

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

With Mrs. Morrisette
The Students Wesley Bible class of City Road Church met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. M. G. Morrisette on North Road street. Group No. One was in charge of the program. Mrs. J. L. Liverman read the scripture lesson and Mrs. N. H. O'Neal made a talk on "Reading and Studying the Bible." The pastor, Rev. Daniel Lane, led in prayer, after which the roll was called with 39 members and one visitor present. The different committees made splendid reports. The secretary and the treasurer made a report on the year's work. Eighteen new members had been added to the roll and $397.37 had been raised. Four families were provided with baskets Christmas, and more work had been done in sending flowers to the sick and visiting the sick and shut-ins than ever before. During the summer months picnics are given and an annual banquet is given in February, which helps the social work. The most important work is furnishing teachers for the Sunday School. Plans were discussed for the work to be done in 1925 and Mr. Lane and Mr. Seyffert made interesting talks on the work done by the class. The following officers were elected:

F. Seyffert, teacher; Mrs. N. O'Neal, president; Mrs. J. W. Sisk, vice president; Mrs. Evelyn Hill, secretary; Mrs. George Smith, treasurer; and Mrs. R. E. Wigg and Mrs. Andrew Sanders, peripatents of social service work. Mr. Seyffert closed the meeting with a prayer, after which the hostesses served delicious refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed. The hostesses were Mrs. W. W. Sawyer, Mrs. M. G. Morrisette, Mrs. W. R. Harrison, and Mrs. C. R. Hopkins. Those present were: Mesdames N. H. O'Neal, George Smith B. A. Gibbs, Brandon Davis, J. L. Boy, Page Lady Godiva

You are asked to believe that these girls—Sybil Wilson, Ruth Eallows, Helen Macdonald and Nina Byron, reading from left to right—you are asked to believe that they up and quit their jobs as show girls in the Moulin Rouge in Paris. And all because of a little difference between them and the manager over costumes. Said costumes, it seems, were strong on quality, but very weak in quantity. And the young ladies simply would not stand for it.
