Engagement Announced
Miss Nellie Hastings entertained on Thanksgiving evening at her home on North Road street in honor of her guests, Misses Inez and Ethel Simpson of London Bridge, Virginia. Music and games in keeping with the holiday season were enjoyed after which a delicious ice course consisting of ice cream molded in the shape of turkeys with cream wafers and mints were served. At the close of the evening Mrs. I. W. Morgan of Portsmouth, sister of Miss Hastings, instructed the guests that "at the close of the day all turkeys go to roost and at the close of this beautiful Thanksgiving Day let us go into the dining room and commune with the turkeys." As the living and dining rooms were thrown en suite the surprise of the evening was revealed, which announced the engagement of Miss Nellie Hastings to Mr. P. S. Crowder of Lattimore. The dining room was festively decorated with gold and brown, and candles in silver holders cast a soft glow over the room. In the center of the dining table was an "Old Oak-ken Well." Surrounding a circle around the edge of the table were miniature turkeys with streamers of gold ribbon attached to their necks. At the other end of the streamers which fell into the well were tiny hearts which bore the message of the evening, "Wishing Well, F. S. C. and N. B. H. January, 1926." Those present were: Misses Inez and Ethel Simpson of London Bridge, Katharine Davis, Helen Bright, Mary Wright, Marguerite Parsons, Beanie Davis, Bertha Chappell, Nellie Hastings, Mamie Hastings, Messrs. Forrest S. Crowder of Lattimore, W. W. Horsey of Murfreesboro, Elkin White, Johnnie Williams, Claude Ward, E. Leary, A. Keel, Clyde and Roy Peare of Portsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Peare of Portsmouth; Messdames I. W. Morgan of Portsmouth, S. W. Hastings, Jr., of Norfolk, R. E. Buffkin, M. R. Pritchard, C. J. Ward, and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hastings, Sr.

WEEKSVILLE PARENTS AND TEACHERS MEET
Delightful Program Enjoyed at Typical of Weeksville
Weeksville, Nov. 28.—On Tuesday evening, November 24, a representative group of the parents of the Weeksville community met the teachers at the school and enjoyed a program presented by the sixth grade pupils.
The pupils displayed unusual talent for children so young and also showed that a great deal of training had been given them. The following program was rendered:
Plucky Psalm by Walter Evans—A Boy and His Stomach by Mae Humphreys.
Sewing Circle by the sixth grade girls.
Samuel's Proposal by M. P. Reid and Marion Halstead.
Song, "I Love This Carolina, by the sixth grade.
Miss Maude Leitch made a short talk explaining the purpose and use of the high school library. Mr. Pritchard emphasized the importance of athletics in the school day program.
Mrs. John Brown of Salem announced that the Woman's Club of that township had raised a goodly amount to be used for having scenery for the stage at the Weeksville High School. After explaining the manner in which the money was raised, she handed R. T. Ryland, the principal, $26.50.
This is typical of the Weeksville spirit. The enthusiasm and community spirit of the members of the Parent-Teachers' Association is growing every day.
The school held their monthly meeting at the home on Miss Margaret Russell Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. The meeting was opened with a scripture reading by Miss Elizabeth Davis and this was followed by prayer by the teacher of the class, Mrs. J. J. Simpson. Miss Margaret Russell and Edna Davis sang a duet. There were questions and Bible drill by Mrs. J. J. Simpson and the class was dismissed by Miss Margaret Russell. After the meeting ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses. Those present were: Misses Elizabeth and Helen Davis, Pearl and Hattie Carter, Maggie and Edna Davis, Katherine McPherson, Margaret Russell, Elnor Ralph and Mrs. J. J. Simpson. Visitors present were Miss Estie Russell and Johnnie Carter.

NEWLAND P. T. A. HAS GOOD MEETING
Thanksgiving Program Given on Wednesday Evening at Seven O'clock
Newland, Nov. 28.—The Newland Parent-Teachers' Association met in the high school Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. The meeting was opened with a song, "Faith of Our Fathers," after which the president read the seventh chapter of Leviticus. After prayer by M. P. Jenkins the roll was called and 28 members responded. Two new members joined the association, which makes the total number 45.
B. L. White, principal of the school, made a report on financial matters. Superintendent of Schools M. P. Jenkins made a talk on a way to light the school and gave suggestions as to the kind of curtains most suitable for the stage.
At the conclusion of the business meeting the program was turned over to Group No. 2. Mr. Leitch made a talk on "Things for Which We Are Thankful." After several stunts had been enjoyed refreshments consisting of home-made candy and apples were served. "Farewell to Thee" was sung and the meeting adjourned. The next meeting will be held December 22.
