

How Did Totem Get That Far? Even the Realtors Are Infected

Hollywood, home of movies, is a topsy-turvy town—so much so that even the business houses are affected. This shows a real estate office built like an Egyptian sphinx.

From Northwestern United States to New Zealand is a long long mile, but here a totem pole in New Zealand and that's a Maori chieftain who seems to be the keeper of the totem. The figure in the original "big stick" of the Maori and the photo shows the figure in the totem pole is holding one. If Speaker Longworth could get one like that the insurgents would pipe down—maybe.

Auto Rudely Breaks Baby's Sleep

It was a rather rude awakening for George M. Peck Jr., aged 3, of San Diego, when his father's automobile plunged into the Peck home. The car's drive shaft broke as Mr. and Mrs. Peck roared the top of a hill nearby. The machine, after trying out a corner tumbler of the house, stopped astraddle of the baby's bed. But George Jr. was unharmed.

FRANK WOOD DEAD
Edenton, Jan. 27. — Frank Wood, aged 58, died here at one o'clock Tuesday, after an illness of four weeks. He is survived by his widow and two children, George Wood and Mrs. Rebecca Wood Drane.

Harry Snow, sales manager of Daugherty Mackey Lumber Company, Vidalia, Georgia, is the latest of his parents, Professor and Mrs. B. L. Shrop on West Main street.

Mr. Wood was well known in the business life of Edenton, prominent in the Episcopal Church, and associated with the North Carolina Historical Association and the Virginia Dare Memorial Association. For 30 years he was a member of the Chowh County and for four years a member of town council.

CORNS

Lift Off—No Pain!

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.
Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.

The Best None Too Good

"After many years of stomach suffering I have at last found a medicine for that trouble. But believe me it was a timely find. I couldn't have lasted a great while longer. My stomach would bleed with gas like a barrel and the colic got to be awful. Medicine didn't help much until I got hold of MAYER'S 'One Dose Will Convince,' which did the trick. I am telling everyone about it." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the intestinal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists. (adv.)
