The most atrocious crime Louisiana has known in years was revealed by the confession of Mrs. Ada Bonner Lebeud (left) that she conspired with Dr. Thomas Dreher in the murder of her husband, James J. Lebeud (right. Lebeud's buckshot-ridden body was slashed with a hunting knife to prevent floating and thrown into Lake Pelourde, near Morgan City, Louisiana. An alleged hired assassin shot the husband to death. The conspiracy grew out of a love affair between Mrs. Lebeud and Dreher, paralleling the recent Snyder case.

Don't Fly—Write
Grover Cleveland Hergdoil says he'd like to fly back to the United States. However, Lindbergh says
It is not so easy to fly from Europe to America as from America one to America as from America quits being one.

It is not so easy to fly from Europe to America as from America to Europe. . . Mr. Bergdoil probably will find flying even harder now than it was ten years ago.
. . . Maybe if Mr. Bergdoil would apply to the American Legion convention this fall he'd find many willing to give him a little more instruction in the rudiments of flying. . . . Congress could strike a special medal for the intrepid alrman and he could have great; fun comparing his badges and exploits with Doc Cook.

An organization has been tormed in Washington to try to persuade the country to stop kidding Congress. We're ready to quit—if Congress is.
