

South Mills Man Dies in Germany

South Mills, May 7—Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jones were notified yesterday by the War Department that their eldest son, Q. M. Winston Riddick Jones, 39, a member of the 165th Central Postal Directory, General Patton's Third Army, was killed in action in Germany on April 16, and that a detailed letter would follow shortly.

Quarter Master Jones entered the armed forces of his country in October, 1942. He had been in active service overseas for approximately a year and a half, serving in the French invasion, later in England, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany, where he died.

Before going overseas he was stationed at Camp Lee, Virginia, Camp Young, California, in Washington State, and Vancouver, B. C.

Prior to entering the U. S. Armed Forces in 1942, Quarter Master Jones signed up with the U. S. Military Mission to China, and remained in this branch of Government service for 12 months, being present over there when the Japanese over-ran Hankow, at which time he burned 60 American trucks and destroyed thousands of gallons of Government gasoline, to keep it from being captured by the enemy. During this conflict, Jones received a shrapnel wound in his left thigh, which hospitalized him for some weeks.

Returning to the U. S. in August, 1941, and after spending some weeks in South Mills with his parents, Jones reported for duty at Camp Lee, Virginia in October.

Surviving besides his parents, are his wife, a daughter, Betty, age 19, and a son, W. L. Jr., all of Washington, D. C.

Also surviving are two brothers, E. E. Jones, now serving in the Naval Aviation Corps, in the South Pacific, W. B. Jones of Norfolk, Virginia, and one sister, Mrs. C. C. Leary, of Washington, D. C., and a number of aunts and uncles. One aunt is Miss Lena M. Jones of Edenton.

Double Rent Law Seen No Hardship

Raleigh, May 7—The Secretary of State's office has received several inquiries during the past few days about the "double rent" penalty imposed upon tenants who refuse to vacate property at request of the landlord under some circumstances. The calls have come mostly from rent control areas and in addition to wanting information about the text of the act, the inquirers want to know its probable effect in rent control territory. The rent control phase was discussed in committee and on the floor of the General Assembly when the bill was pending, and it was the sense of the lawmakers there would be no conflict with Federal rent control policy.

Prior to ratification of this act on March 19, 1945, a defendant in an eviction proceeding could give a landlord a 30-day notice to vacate, and sometimes retain possession of the property for a year or more after the landlord had requested him to vacate. The new law, in double rent penalty in many cases, since the causes for eviction have been greatly reduced and a landlord cannot dispossess a tenant but for the purpose of charging a new tenant higher rental. Even in rent control areas there are instances when tenants impose upon landlords by unnecessary delay in vacating premises and since the double rent can only be collected except upon verdict of a jury in Superior Court after hearing evidence, legislators agreed the law would not work undue hardship on any tenant.

The RNC said telephone conversations were being held between Edenton, Washington and Monroville to fix the exact hour of the E. Day announcement by President Truman Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin.

Reported Missing Manteo Soldier Says He's Coming Home

Manteo, May 7—Happiest people in all Dare County today were former Chief of Police and Mrs. Asa White when Asaph W. Donahue delivered to them a telegram from the War Department informing them that their youngest son, Lonnie White, reported missing in Germany in early January, was again reported alive and well and happy at the prospect of coming home to Roanoke Island.

Chief and Mrs. White have five sons in the service, and so stand at the head of the list of Dare County families represented in the war.

Lonnie White will be remembered by thousands of Lost Colony visitors as the polite youngster who sold them Coca-Cola between the acts of the pageant. He has been in service about two years. Chief White, who served as the town's police chief because of ill health, has recovered and will this season be a special policeman at Nags Head.

Germans Announce Surrender Before Allies Are Ready

By The Associated Press
London, May 7—The greatest war in history ended today with the unconditional surrender of Germany.

The surrender of the Reich to the Western Allies and the Russian army was made at Gen. Eisenhower's headquarters at Reims, France by Col. Gen. Gustaf Jodl, chief of staff of the German army.

This was announced officially after German broadcasts told the German people that General Admiral Karl Doenitz had ordered the capitulation of all fighting forces, and called off the U-boat war.

Joy at the news was tempered only by the realization that the war against Japan remains to be resolved, with many casualties still ahead.

10,000,000 Casualties
The end of the European war—the greatest, bloodiest and costliest war in human history—has claimed at least 40,000,000 casualties on both sides in killed, wounded, and captured—some after five years, eight months, and six days of strife and overpowered the globe.

Hitler's arrogant armies invaded Poland on Sept. 1, 1939, beginning the agony that convulsed the world for 2,676 days.

Unconditional surrender of the beaten remnants of his legions first was announced by the Germans.

Danish Radio Started II
The historic news breaking in Norway had been followed by a Danish broadcast, which announced that the Danish government had fled to London.

Then the British minister, Luddens, announced that the British government had accepted the surrender of the German forces in the East.

Eastern War Times, that "after almost six years struggle we have accomplished."

Von Krosigk announced Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz had "ordered the unconditional surrender of all fighting German troops."

Flash From Reims
The world waited tensely. Then at 9:37 a. m. RWT came the German-controlled radio of Prague. A broadcast monitored by the Czechoslovak government offices in London said the German commander in Czechoslovakia did not recognize the surrender of Admiral Doenitz and would fight on until his forces "have secured free passage for German troops out of the country." But the Prague radio earlier announced the capitulation of Breslau, long besieged by Russian forces.

entified man drove a little madly through the street with a clang and cow-bell dragging and sounding raggedly. Muttered imprecation followed his foolish path.

And so Victory in Europe Day came to Main street in Elizabeth City.

Not unlike the other war that ended 26 years, five months and 26 days ago, there was something of anti-climax about it. Nine days ago there was this war's "false surrender" that will take its place with the other war's "false armistice." News has been trickling in since and through the columns of the newspapers. Mostly the dramatics had been drained out of it by expectancy.

The end came in drabbles and with no resounding climax. People sighed and turned to tasks that are still urgent. Only half of the world has done with its fighting.

First official news of the surrender of Germany came to Elizabeth City over the wires of the Associated Press to the Daily Advance. The bulletin was timed at 9:41. Official announcements followed, and it was 10:07 when the news broke over the city with the screaming of the siren. The first of the day's editions of the paper and just started to run, but the presses were stopped and the

Greater Love Urged By Carroll at Berea

Great love has the man who will lay down his life for his friends but greater love than this had Jesus Christ who gave his life for his enemies, declared the Rev. W. V. Carroll Sunday morning in his first sermon as pastor of the Berea Baptist Church.

Following a program by 4-H Club boys and girls which included the invocation, scripture reading, the club creed, and taking of the offering Mr. Carroll delivered his sermon: "Died In Battle, His Only Son."

He reminded his congregation that the Southern Baptist Convention, of which it is a part, was organized May 8, 1845, and will therefore be one hundred years old this week. The fact that he arrived at his new home Thursday was just completing the task of unpacking, precluded the holding of a celebration of the anniversary Sunday but he asked the members to think with him during the coming week upon the goal of the Baptists during their centennial, the enlistment of a million souls for Christ.

Similar Battles
"God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life," quoted Mr. Carroll and added that the battle in which Christ died and that in which many young men are giving their lives today were similar in many respects. The battle of right against wrong was the struggle in which Christ died and it remains today a struggle of right against wrong on the battlefields of the world, he asserted.

He told how a pastor had been called to the home of a member of his church to find the man brooding over the loss of his only son on the field of battle. The father had not been too strong a member of the church of God, he said, and the pastor feared that this might completely fill his soul with doubt and hate. When the priest went in to talk with the man he told him to remember that God gave his only son in history's

90 Farmers Treated 40,000 Pounds Shelled Peanuts

Edenton, May 7—Approximately 40,000 pounds of shelled peanuts have been treated in the last few days by the cooperation of 90 farmers in eight communities in Chowan County, according to County Agent C. W. Greenman.

A large number of farmers have purchased Arsan from local dealers for treating seed peanuts on their farm themselves. By cooperation with each other in handling the seed treating process, the cost to the farmers was about 20 cents per pound or a cost of seven cents an acre.

For three successive years there has been an increase in the treatment of seed peanuts by farmers each year as tests made sover including K. J. Copeland, of Tyngsboro, have conclusively proven that the process protects the seed from fungus diseases and decay that attack the seeds after it is in the ground.

Communities visited this week where seed peanuts were treated includes Valhall, Oak Grove, Center Hill, Rocky Hook, Small Cross Roads, Ryland, Snow Hill and Glen.

Last year there were about 12,000 acres of peanuts planted in this county but this year because of critical labor shortage it is believed that there will be little over 11,000 acres planted.

County Agent Greenman in visiting the communities carried five 50-gallon oil drums and other materials for the farmers to cooperate at the community centers for treating their own seed peanuts thus greatly reducing the cost.

Pennywise

"Oh, it wasn't much, just a penny overcharge," you may be telling your reasoning board when you see a price tag for some other dealer charges a little more than the ceiling price.

But here is the way the Office of Price Administration figures it.

If you pay a penny more for ten items such as bread, milk and cereal, that's 10 cents.

If you do that six days a week that's 60 cents.

If you pay 60 cents a week for a year that's $31.20.

If everybody in the country did that it would cost more than $4,000,000,000.

Which goes to prove the old adage that the little things that count are the big things that count.

War Price and Rental Board keeps telling you to check your ceiling prices and report overcharges.

Corinth Baptist Church Welcomes Bazemore

Corinth Baptist Church welcomed its new pastor, the Rev. C. W. Bazemore, heard him preach his first sermon and appropriately observed 4-H Club Sunday in its 11 o'clock worship hour Sunday morning.

Highlight of the 4-H Club program was a message to the 4-H Clubbers of Corinth from Miss Marcie Albertson, pioneer county home agent of Pasquotank County. She said, in a message read by Mrs. P. F. Walston:

"Best loved of all my work when I was home agent was that of the farmers who about 20 cents per pound or a cost of seven cents an acre.

"Along with my love and my greetings I send the 4-H Club members of Corinth today this message:

"First and foremost, learn that God is real, being. Put him first in your heart each year during work until his reality is real to you.

"Second, love your neighbor; and remember that is not the one who lives next door to you, but every one in need the whole world over.

"Faith in and practice of such a way of life will bring peace on earth for every boy and girl in the wide, wide world."

Inspiration for All
In such a message, Mrs. Walston declared, there is inspiration not only for 4-H Club members but for their parents as well.

"Her words remind us again of our duty to train up our children in the way they should go and to walk that way ourselves," she said.

Mrs. Walston also recalled the organization of 4-H club work in the county, how her teacher, Miss Kate Albertson in Elizabeth City High School back in 1915, invited her, with Irene Bright, now Mrs. Joe Conley, to her home to talk with Miss Marcie about organizing a 4-H club in her community.

"And it was right here in Corinth," said Mrs. Walston, "that the first 4-H club in the county was formed." Other names she recalled were Mattie Bibe, now member of the Central assembly, Bessie Carter, now Mrs. M. J. Whitehurst; Ida Mae Tarrant, now Mrs. Charles Parrish; Gertrude Sample, Mary Lee Thompson and Annie Pritchard.

Mr. Bazemore in his first sermon spoke on life, which he characterized as a mystery which priest nor psychiatrist, philosopher nor scientist can define. He divided it into four ages: childhood, up to 12; adolescence, 12 to 25; youth, 20 to 40; maturity, 40 to 60; and old age, 60 and beyond. He presented Christ as able to supply all man's needs from the cradle to life's end, illustrating by the experience of Christian in Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress.

The new pastor was presented

WE WERE DANCING

We didn't know it then. We figured it out later, between us. . . . The night they got Tom in Germany, we were dancing.

I don't know what made us figure back, after we got the news, but we did. And that's what we were doing.

We were dancing.

I hope it won't happen to you, but it might. A lot of brothers and husbands are going to be hit before this is over.

Take a tip from Anne and me. . . don't be dancing. Be busy. Be doing something you won't be ashamed of, whatever the news is.
