Columbia Defeats Roper 6-1 For Second Win of the Season

Detroit Breathes Hot on Necks Of Chicago Sox

By JACK HAND (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Detroit was breathing on the necks of the first place Chicago White Sox today only a half game behind because Dizzy Trout still had the hex on the New York Yankees.

For the seventh time since August 24, 1943, the colorful right hander from the Indiana farm country had turned back Joe McCarthy's club.

Trout's fourth success of the year, coming at the opening of the Yankees' first western trip, served to accentuate the positive value of the Tigers' three-star mound staff. It was the Dizzy one's fifth complete game to four for Hal Newhouser.

All last season, Detroit was the big stumbling block to the Yankees' quest of a fourth straight flag. Every other club in the league managed to beat Trout at least once but he lumbled New York six straight times. Newhouser also beat them six games but lost two.

As the Bengals elbowed past New York into second place it was beginning to look like the same old story all over again. One had three-run fifth inning cost Rookie Al Gettel his first defeat, 4-1.

Mel Ott Gets Homer

Mel Ott's 49th major league homer in the New York Giants' night game 6-1 nod over Cincinnati before 23,303, tied for third the late Lou Gehrig for third place in the all-time home run derby. Only Babe Ruth with 714 and Jimmy Foxx with 527 were ahead.

Ott's homer was incidental to the Giants' victory in their first inter-sectional test as a four-run first inning attack on Arnie Carter was the clincher. Harry Feldman had little trouble notching his fourth straight by scattering seven blows.

Johnny Rucker, New York centerfielder, stretched his consecutive hitting streak to 18 games, tops in the majors but long removed from Joe DiMaggio's 56.

Brooklyn, earned a 6-4 verdict over the world champion St. Louis Cardinals, for their fifth successive triumph. Rookie Vic Lombardi tightened up in the clutches to minimize 10 Card hits as Dixie Walker bashed a triple and double to doom Harry Brecheen.

Derringer Loses

Paul Derringer saw his four-game streak go up in smoke as he and the Chicago Cubs bowed to the Phillies, 5-2. Bill Lee was the winner over his old mates.

Tommy O'Brien's double with the bases loaded started Pittsburgh off to a 9-5 edge over the Boston Braves and a decision for Preacher Roe over Jim Tobin.

Cleveland shaded the Red Sox, 2-1, on a pinch single by Paul O'Dea with the sacks choked in the last of the ninth to give Allie Reynolds the edge in a tight duel with Jim Wilson.

The season's smallest crowd, 941, saw the White Sox triumph 6-4 over Philadelphia on Thornton Lee's effective chucking. St. Louis was rained out of a home night date with Washington.

Dressed and Drawn Pelican Offered To Local Grocer

Ray L. Twiddy, local grocer, yesterday received a postcard from a salesman friend in Florida. The picture showed a flock of pelicans swimming and eating, and the personal message was:

"Can ship you unlimited pelicans, dressed and drawn, to substitute during meat shortage." But Mr. Twiddy says he wouldn't relish pelicans and does not believe his customers would either. He recalls that a few years ago before the war and before the meat shortage somebody started a fad for eating crows. But it didn't go over very well and did not last long. The idea of eating crow doesn't appeal to most folks and Mr. Twiddy doesn't believe that pelican would be popular either.

The bird has too much neck, as well as too much beak, in his opinion.
