CALIFORNIA.

We have not yet received our papers by the last arrival from California, but a friend has favored us with the Sacramento Times of November 28 .-There is nothing of importance to report from that place. Among the deaths recorded we find David Blair, and Daniel Melton, (col.) of North Carolina. The cholers has done fearful work among the settlers of California.

CONGRESS.

We still find nothing of general interest in the proceedings of Congress. By this it should not be inferred that our National Legislature is idle, or inattentive to business. There is a great deal of business, affecting the interests of individuals and localities, that was overwhelmed by the "noise and confusion" of the last session, and many will have cause to be thankful that there is a calm in the Assembly which will enable them to attend to important matters of a private nature. We had rather see our Legislators in this staid and sober mood, barren as it is of excitement, than in the hurly-burly of political contention, when demagogues flourish and "madness rules the hour."

COUNCIL OF STATE.

The following gentlemen were elected on Monday week, by the two Houses, Councillors of State for the ensuing two years :

James J. Mckay, of Bladen county, William K. Lane, of Wayne, Whitmell Stallings, of Gates, John U. Kirkland, of Orange, Montfort Sydney Stokes, of Wilkes, Archibald Henderson, of Rowan, Wilson B. Hill, of Guilford.

LEGISLATURE.

The Slavery Resolutions went through a pretty severe ordeal in the House, on Friday. It is now certain that our Legislature will, in no shape, assert the right of secession. When the Resolutions have passed both Houses, if such should be the case, we will lay them before our readers, as well as all perfected matter of general interest. But as we have already stated, we cannot find room for begin in fire and end in smoke.

What will be finally done in regard to amendments of the Constitution, cannot yet be guessed is not the time, however, to discuss the question at. It is worthy of note, in recording the customs of Southern Rights. Let us see what our own the times, that the boasted reform on the part | Legislature will do in the premises. of the Democrats, expressed at the election precincts last summer, has wonderfully subsided in From the Fayetteville North Carolinian of Saturday. the Legislature. The Free Suffrage item, which Mr. Reip made a prominent issue, has been held up, to afford a show for the party, but it is a mere puppet to what was expected from the electioneering promises. The manner of this we have already noticed

It appears, on the whole, that the Democrats are afraid to trust the organic law into the hands of the people. And yet they boast of their exclusive democracy. If the people are truly the sovereigns, what right has the Legislature, in a matter of reform, to dole out scraps upon which they may be permitted to act, while they keep back the main subjects from their grasp? It is the "dear people," the "sovereign people," the "honest people," the "intelligent people," all the time of a canvass; but when it comes to a verification of these adjectives by legislative enactment, not one of them is found applicable to that same people. The Agents who asked the people for power, that they might do certain specified acts, plainly tell their masters they are unfit to take the matter in hand, after all; and that they will not permit them to reform the Constitution at their own pleasure. What is the meaning of this, gentlemen ? What, Democrats afraid to trust the Democracy? Are you afraid of the turbulence of the Democracy of North Carolina, that you will not even submit to them the question of a Reform Convention? Let it be remembered that, according to the principles you have avowed to the people, what they say and not what you think, is to be the mode and the measure of reform

THE CHOLERA.

The Cholera still exists in some parts of the Island of Cuba, both on the North and South side. Accounts from Jamaica to the middle of last the Island, even the mountainous regions, with rrightful mortality.

A SINGULAR CASE.

The Louisville Courier of the 3d inst. says: "On the steamer Bunker Hill that arrived from New Orleans, Wednesday, there were several Californians, one of whom had the cholera, and his case was considered hopeless. Capt. Miller was applied to for the purpose of procuring materials to make him a coffin in case he died. Instead of doing this, he administered lignumvitæ tea, which acted like a charm, and a few doses entirely cured him. This extraordinary fact is worthy of notice, and no doubt the merits of the application will be investigated.

DELAWARE.

The Legislature of Delaware assembled at Doer, on Tuesday last. Governor THROP, in his message, says of the Compromise measures: "Most of them are, in fact, and all should be considered as inrevocable for their agitation can only be productive of increased exasperation and distraction." H says the public mind is against the few noisy fanatics of the North, who are opposed to these measures. We shall be glad to find that His Excellency understands the mind of the Northern people, and trust their returns of members of Congress will show it. It must be conferred that, heretofore, these "few and noisy" chaps have had great power and influence in our National Legislature.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

A series of Resolutions have been adopted by the Legislature of New Hampshire, unauimously, sustaining the compromise measures of the last session of Congress. A proviso to one of the Resolutions was moved by the free-soil party, declaring that the Resolution shall not be construed into an approval of the Fugitive Slave Law, or the bill giving six hundred thousand acres of free territory and ten millions of dollars to Texas .-This was lost, 155 to 18. We are glad to see New Hampshire lending her aid to the support of the Constitution, and to a Compromise that is Mercury. good, so far as it goes. But we look upon the action of the last Congress as affording temporary security, only, to the South; and it is to be rein any of the free States, to repudiate in a case somewhat deficient in its characteristics.

If they cannot hear the present arrangements for the benefit of the South, what may we expect when an appeal is made for larger allowances, and pledges for future security are required, above the contingencies of Congressional majorities ?

We do not look upon the present calm as indicating that perfect satisfaction and peace which is so desirable, and so necessary to our well-being. the Legislative proceedings, especially those that Upon the faithful performance of the contracts of the Compromise, the South rests her hopes of a growing sense of justice in the free States. It seems the poor fellow's cart had been broken down; it was getting seeing the man's distress, asked what the repairs would cost-he was told about ten dollars. The ten dollars intended for the concert were immedia ately given for this purpose, and he returned home without hearing the far-famed Miss Jenny. Here true sympathy and benevolence gained the victory over self-indulgence. And who doubts that this gentleman felt a calmer and purer joy than any of the hundred who thronged the theatre on Friday night?"
