From the Utica Gazette.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS CONVENTION. MESSES Eprons-The accompanying 'take off,' was handed as a composition by one of the pupils of the Utica Female Seminary. Having heard it read. I thought it too good to be lost to the public; should you coincide with my opinion, and deem it worthy of a place in your columns, it is at your service.

Twas at the hour of twilight, The hour of early daws, Wher I took up a paper To read the weekly news. The first thing in its colmans That attracted my attention, Were these four Wondrous, mystic words-"A Woman's Right Convention !

A female orator "held torth," (My hair stood on an end So thrilling were the words, of our Afflicted female friend.) When she sas down, 'mid deafening cheers, Another martyr rose, But ere her speech was half way through, I fell into a doze.

And dreamed I saw her words fulfilled In many a wondrous deed. in public, and in private life, As woman has decreed: Within the "White House" I beheld A certain Mrs. Bates, Who filled the Presidential Chair Of the United States.

Our Congress-women, lady Mayors

Our Govenors and all, In hats, and standing collars looked Particularly small. Webster and Clay, to petticoats And silence had retired, White madam Foote's loquaciousness Was very much admired. Women with anxious, care-worn brows In counting-houses pent, Toiled hard, to earn the property Their dashing husbands spent Not only men, but women took This most decided stand, Even little children changed their plays And clothes, throughout the land.

The girls laid down their crotchet work To toss their brothers's balls: The boys unclasped their shining skates. To dress their sisters, dells. On did L see a rouguish boy Lift up his green berage viel, To nod to some fair graduate Of Harvard or of Yale.

Elf-locks, with whiskers and moustable In statute were dismissed While their amdition seemed to be To make a good 'French twist The same transposing mania In marriages was seen. Women of over sixty, wedded Boys of just fifteen.

But woman's wishes have no bounds So she enlarged her claims. And by an act of Congress, passed A bill, for change of names. Thus many a little Fanny Became a Hezekiah, And many a rougish little Frank An Aumble Keziah

When Lawoke, I felt disposed. To cry aloud with Cass. "I hope that dreadful state of things Will never come to pass. And ever since that wondrous dream. I've shuddered at the mention Of anything pertaining to A Woman's Rights Convention.

FOR THE COMMERCIAL. THE SABBATH. "The Subbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath.'

FRIEND LORING: I hope your renders wont think from the heading of this article your paper is not specially devoted to such subjects, and perhaps the most of your intelligent readers would prefer some other matter for reflection, I decline to do so. But. Sir, that the Sabbath was made for man is Wilmington Saddle, Herness, and Trunk evident from all nature around. Look at of life.

blessed day. Look at the thousands of this coach, Gig and place on a Sabbath morn, when the Church Sulkey Harness; Sulkey Harness; Saddles, Whips, cash, or from responsible persons will be well packed and promptly forwarded. them to the house of God, to return thanks for the blessings and mercies which Gut has of the 8.000 inhabitants of this place. What mers. is the reason of this one is ready to ask .-Well, let us try and find out.

Come, take a stroll around Town on a and has now, and willke p through the season a good Subbisth day, and you will find 6 to 8 Bar assortment of Fly Netts. Rooms, licensed by the Legislature of N. C. to break the Sabbath, by relling liquid fire to man, who had rather be found there than where God requires him to be. Now, Sir. I contend that the sage makers of our Laws have no right to authorize man to break the Sabbath day; for it is a command not to be broken and one as immutable as the one who 50 SOXES each, for sale low by SAVAGE & MEARES.

"Remember the Sabbath day to keep it Holy," is not to be set aside by those who arrogate to themselves the power to do so. If drinking at those establishments were all, it would not be so bad; but, Sir, men canbe found there who ought to give a moral tone for good to this place; who are Gambling a vay the Sabbath for money and their souls to the Depil. Ought such to be the case ? no. Bir, no. It a man wont go to Church, let him keep away and not countenance such places. But those places are not all of the moral wrongs of this place, No. Sir. there has a population come into this place within a few years, and have opened small retailing Stores all over the place and keep liquor to sell and have their Stores opened on the Sabbath expressly to sell liquors to our coloured population; which es- 5 HHDS prime quality. For sale by ANDERSON & LATIMER. tablishments bave done more for demoralizing that part of our population than all things else put together; and Sir I am surprised that our Town authorities don't put a stop to it; appoint Sunday guards apart from the night one, whose express business it shall be to see that all of them are shut up. and if not to shut them up and fine them heavily; it can be done.

It is greatly to the interest of the Slave holder to see that it is done, for they are the greatest sufferers and it is their property that is being destroyed by thousands yearly.

Thus by giving one a license to break the Sabbath others take the liberty to do so.

Sir, many a Father's heart will be made to bleed over a fallen Son, through the influences of those who break the Sabbath year in and year out, and as countenanced by those to whom many men look up for better things; and especially the colored popula-

Now who will make a move in this matter; will the people elect men to the Legislature expressly to repeal that law that licenses men to break the Sabbath, and wont our Town authorities take some steps to mend the matter, for most of them have sons that are growing up and they will feel the influence that is thrown around them for good

Thus, man is responsible to God for all his acts whether moral or immoral and before his face he must stand or fall.
