DR. J. S. HOUGTON'S PEPSIN! The True Digestive Fluid, or Gastrie Juice ! Prepared from Rennet, or the fourth stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebly, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa. This is a great Natural Remedy for Indigestion, and Dyspepsia, curing after Nature's own Alethed, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice. Pepsin is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Cx, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Pluid, precisely like the natural Warantee Deeds, and Deeds for Mortgage or land ing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspepties, curing cases of debility, emaciation, nervous decilie and Dyspeptic consumption, sup-posed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scien-tific Evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

Baron Leiebig, in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastric Juico, may be prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Ox, in which various articles of food, as ment and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner os they would be in the human stomach." SPEECH OF GEN. WADD

OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

At the Dinner of the Maryland Historical Society on the 10th of May

The Hon Joun Banney introduced Gen. Thempson with the following remarks. Thempson with the following remarks.

At this eventful moment, when every heart vibrates in quick pulsation, from the lofty, peaks of the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, with prayers for the Union, it is most appropriate to welcome to our board a distinguished son of the South—a Union man, a Southern patriot—always steadfast in the faith; and here permit meterminely, that, browner wide-prend are to to be the dissuffiction now prevalent in South Carolina, it is my firm conviction that South Carolina, it is my firm conviction that a large majority of her entire population will be found autainted by the sophistry of a few misguided political firebrands, goaded by imaginary wrongs to prefer the hazard of an independent sovereignty where they may federacy. Prompted by the descendant of a. Carroll. a name hallowed in the affections of every friend to human liberty, whose glorious example in affixing his sign manual to the Decfortune unequalled by any of his contemporaries, and his subsequent devotion to the principles and practices of pure Republicanism, won for him the the of Ultimus Romanorum, as the last survivor of that illustrious band who frame thi immortal instrument, a Carroll desires to tender a tribute of respect to our welcome and distinguished

Gen. WADDY THOMPSON, of South Caroina: The true champion of freedom-u Union man.

After the applause had subsided, Gen. Thompson said : The sentiment which has just heen announced, and which has been so kindly and flatteringly received refers to three subjects; myself, our Federal Union, and my own beloved State. Of the first it is not becoming that I should speak; of the two last it is, and, if I speak as I feel, it will be to give utterance to feelings of pride and of deep affection. One of the earliest and most firmly-rooted of my political opinions has been that with the permanence of the Federal Union are indusolubly united the dealers in fine drings and Popular Medicine, throughout the United States. It is prepared in Powder, and in Pluid form—and in Prescription vials for the use of Physicians.

As it is not a secret remedy, no objection can be raised sgainst its use by Physicians of the constantly are ceeding fevulutions.

The experiment of the capacity of man for self-government has never before been made under circumstances so favorable. It never will be again; and, once put out the light of our great and thus far successful excountry, the Digestive matter of the Pepsin, is put periment, and the world is left foreger in the

I will not make so ungracious a return for your kindness as to inflict upon you a long historical Sold, wholesale and retail, by A. C. EVANS & dissertation. But there is something monitory in BROTHER; W. H. LIPPITT & Co, and C. De- the trifling causes which led to the Pelopenesian war, and its disastrous and extermi ting effects upon the free institutions and the greatness and the glory of Greece; and the parallel to the present state of things amongst us cannot fail to suggest a warning to all right-minded and right-hearted men. How few were the causes of collision and of war A lot of China, Glass and Earthen Ware. They between the States of Greece and those which exist amongst the different States of this confederacy. That diversity of employ-ments and of productions, which, whilst we remain united, constitute the strongest of all will be glad to see their old Castomers (especially the honds of union, will, if we are ever sepa-rated, be the fruitful sources of collision and of protracted and sanguinary wars. The single question of extradition of fugitive slaves would of inevitable certainty lead to war in six months. Does any sane man suppose that if the people of the North will not yield that question now even to preserve the Union. that they will yield it after the Union is dissolved, and aissolved on that very point? I would not give a rush for the concession of the right to secede. I leave that question to abstract theorists and acure dialecticians. And such a war! without parallel in all the elements of hate, calamity, and hortar by any recorded in the darkest pages of many recorded in the darkest pages of many history—a war, from the contemplation of which the heart shrinks with a sickening sorrow and despair. On what other field have ever met enemies as equal, as proud, as war-like as implacable, and with more than the proverbint rancor and vengeance of civil wars. I freely yield the paim of courage to those who can look with composure upon such a future as that. I confess that I have not the courage to do it. But I should plty the weakness of the man who, admitting the the weakness of the man who, admitting the danger, may the probability, of all these colamities, would refer me to some book of political economy, that I might derive consolution from the fact that I should purchase coton domestics a shade cheaper.
