GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA! ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER. DR. J. S. HOUGTON'S PEPSIN! an assortment öl The True Digestive Finid, or Castric Juice !

Prepared from Rennet, or the fourth stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemistry J. S. Houghton, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.

Tots is a great Natural Remody for Indigestion, and Dyspepsis, curing after Nature's own Method by Nature's own Agent, the Gustric Juice. Pepsin is the chief showen, or Great Digesting Principle of the Guetric Juice- the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomuch and Intestines It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Day save Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastrie Juice, in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and partect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of in digestion and Dyspepsia are removed just as they would be by a heal by Stornach. It is doing wonder for Dyspeptics, caring cases of debility, emmeiation, nervous decine and Dyspeptic consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scientitle Evidence men which it is based, is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

Baron Leiebig, in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An 'Artificial Digestive Pluid, analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Ox, in which varibus articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human, stomach." Half a teaspoontal of pure PEPEIN, infused or disolved in water, will digest or dissolve Five Pounds Roast Beef in about two hours out of the Stom-

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin, is sold by nearly ail the desicrs in fine diags and Popular Medicine, through-out the United States. It is prepared in Powder, and in Fluid form—and in Prescription vials for the use of Physiciana.

Private Circulurs, for the nee of Physicians, may be obtained of Dr Houghton or his Agents, describing the whole process of preparation and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not a secre; remedy, no objection can be raised against its use by Physicians in respectable standing and regular practice. Price

M KISS FOR CHARITY'S SARE.

At a rate-course in Normandy, some En glishmen were admiring the picturesque and historic costume of the women of the country-Several of these gentlemen jackeys, slightly excited by the impressions of their dejenner, were guitered together in a knot, admiring not only the costume but the enpire a fine of the women of Normandy, whose beauty was heightened by the piquant originality of their lotty lace head-gear. These sportsmen were uttering their comments on the passeretion was accepted by the extraordinary beau-ty of a young woman, evidently just married who at that moment passed by. She was walking in the midst of a group of country ladies and lasses in their silk dresses and long-tailed, short-waisted, black coats and in the company might be seen the black casses of the cure and view of the cassock of the cure and rienr of the pur-

"What a beauty," exclaimed one of the sportsmen, "on my honor, i'd give two sovereigns for a kiss of her rosy theeks." "Hallo! here's a hifstek, who says he'll give two sovereigns to kiss our Louise," said a bumpkin in black velvet vest and hob-nailed

"Ah! ah!" cried several of the girls together, "how generous, two louis are not Peru!"
"Well, theu, I'll give three," sold the Englishman. The joung women to whom the provocation was addressed, looked towards the En-glish man and smiling, said, "It would give you a great deal of picusure, then, Monsieur ? "Oh, an immense deal !" "Well, in that case," continued she, after a little hesitation, "give five louis and here's my cheeks." Thus challenged, his liberality would not have backed out laid it cost him twenty guiucas. The five golden pieces were drawn from his purse and placed in the young woman's hands, who honestly performed her part of the contract and received a brace of

MRS. PARTINGTON'S LAST. Reading in the newspapers of Jenny Lind's benevalent disposition, Mrs. Partington came to the complimentary expression in regard to the "fellow feeling in her bosom"! which the Sweedish Nightengale cherished toward the unfortunate and needy. Involunvery personification of amazement, the good old lady repeated, "A feller feeling in her bosom ! la me, if that aint jut the way the fellers used to do when I was a gal !"

then she re-adjusted her spectacles and kept on reading. A FLOWERY PREACHER. One of the best illustrations of a "flowery discourse, which we can remember, is that of a gentleman who, in lecturing to an nu-dience, colleged Paleyle evidence, in the fol-lowing trainer:

"Ladies, and gentlemen, I am as certain of these truths as I am that flour comes from Rochester, and that I know for certain my brother having this morning received three hundred barrels of superfine, which he desires me to state, will be sold for each or approved paper, as low as any in the in

SACRICEGE.

An outrage was committed by a gang of young men and boys on Saturday last, which we think stands unequaled in the innuls of crime in this city. The party as-sembled in the Presbyterian grave-yard, be-tween Pweitth and Thirteenth, Elm and Race streets, went to the family smalt of Wm. D' Jones, and effected an entrance by tearing down the back wall, broke open th coffins deposited there, and took a skull plac-ed it on the end of a pole, and using a per-john of the bones as castinets, formed a proecesion and paraded around the streets.
