VAYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRON-CHITIS, CROUP, ASTHMA, WHOOP-ING COUGH AND CONSUMPTION.

In offering to the community this justly celebrated remedy for diseases of the throat and lungs, it is not our wish to trifle with the lives or health of the afflicted, but frankly to lay before them the opinions of distinguished men and some of the evidences of its success, from which they can judge for themselves. We sincerely pledge ourselves to make no wild assertions or false statements of its efficacy, nor will we hold out any hope to suffering humanity which facts will not warrant.

Many proofs are here given, and we solicit an inquiry from the public into all we publish, feeling assured they will find them perfectly reliable, and the medicine worthy their best confidence and patronage.

From the distinguished Professor of Chemistry and Materia Medica, Bowdoin College.
Dear Sir: I delayed answering the receipt of your preparation, until I had an opportunity of witnessing its effects in my own family, or in the families of my friends.

This I have now done with a high degree of satisfaction in cases both of adults and children.
I have found it, as its ingredients show, a powerful remedy for colds, and coughs, and pulmonary diseases.

PARKER CLEAVELAND, M. D.
BRISWICK, ME., 5, 1847.
From an Overseer in the Hamilton Mills in this City.
Lowell, Aug. 10, 1849.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: I have been cured of the worst cough I ever had in my life, by your "CHERRY PEC-TORAL" and never fail, when I have opportunity, of recommending it to others.

Yours, respectfully,
S. D. EMERSON
Read the following, and see if this medicine is worth a trial. This patient had become very feeble, and the effect of the medicine was unmistakeably distinct:—
UNITED STATES HOTEL, SARATOGA SPRINGS,
July 5, 1849.

Dr. J. C. Ayer,—I have been afflicted with a painful affection of the lungs and all the symptoms of settled consumption for more than a year. I could find no medicine that would reach my case, until I commenced the use of your "CHERRY PECTORAL," which gave me gradual relief, and I have been steady-ly gaining my strength till my health is well nigh restored.

While using your medicine, I had the gratification of curing with it my reverend friend, Mr. Truman, of Sumpter District, who had been suspended from his pastoral duties by a severe attack of bronchitis.

I have pleasure in certifying these facts to you,
And am, sir, yours respectfully,
J. F. CALHOUN of South Carolina.

tical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

ANGEL CHARLIE.

BY MRS. EMILY C. RICHSON.

He came—a beauteous vision—
Then vanished from my sight,
His cherub wing scarce clearing
The blackness of my night;
My glad ear caught its rustle—
Then sweeping by he stole
The dew drop that his coming Had cherished in my soul.

Oh! he had been my solace
When grief my spirit swayed,
And on his fragile being Had tender hopes been stayed,
Where thought, where feeling lingered
His form was sure to glide,
And in the lone night watches
"Twas ever by my side.

He came—but as the blossom,
Its petals close up,
And hides them from the tempest,
Within its sheltering cup,
So he his spirit gathered,
Back to its frightened breast,
And passed from earth's grim threshold
To be the Saviour's guest.

My Boy—ah! me the sweetness,
The anguish of that word—
My boy, when in strange night dreams
My slumbering soul is stirred,
When music floats around me,
When soft lips touch my brow
And whisper gentle greetings,
Oh, tell me, is it thou?

I know by one sweet token
My Charlie is not dead,
One golden-cine he left me,
And on his track he sped.
Were he some gem or blossom,
But fashioned for to-day,
My love would slowly perish,
With his dissolving clay.

Oh, by this toothless yearning
Which is not idly given,
By the delicious nearness
My spirit feels to Heaven,
By dreams that through my night sleep,
By visions of the day,
By whispers when I'm erring,
By promptings when I pray.

I know this life so cherished
Which sprang beneath my heart Which formed of my own being So beautiful a part,
This precious wisdom creature,
My unflinched, voiceless dove, Lits now a seraph's pinion,
And warbles lays of love.

Oh, I would not recall thee,
My glorious angel boy,
Thou needest not my bosom,
Rare birds of life and joy,
Here dash I down the tear-drops Still gathering in my eyes Blest—oh! how blest! in adding A seraph to the skies.
