GEORGIA COTTON MILLS.

There are in full operation at Columbus, Geor la, four cotton mills, with a capital of $360,000. employing 560 hands. In these mills are 14. spindies, and nearly 400 looms. Another cotton mill has recently been completed, intended to be worked by slaves, and which is said to be much larger than either of the other four; but LANDING FROM SCHR. H. P. RUSit has not yet gone into operation. There are also in Columbus and its immediate vicinity a cotton gin manufactory, which turns out 1 200 gins annually; a very extensive flour mill, and two foundries and machine shop.

The editor of the Clinton (La.) Floridian has an interesting sketch of the Woodville (Miss.) Cotton Factory, which is said to be turning out 88,000 yards of cotton cloth per week. Four thousand spindles are constantly employed. The capital invested $75,000 profits about fifty per cent., and the number of operatives is generally one hundred and twenty-five, at a cost of $4.25
