A Letter from Major Downing

Major Jack Downing to Governor Louis Ke DOWNINGSVILLE, AWAY DOWN BAST,

In the State of Maine, 1 ecember 22, 1851. DEAR GOVERNOR: I hope you wont les slighted because I haint writ to you alore.— The truth is I haven't had no time. I've The truth is a haven a month rast, I could been so busy for about a month rast, I could n't get time to write no how. Uncle Je and I have been hard to work all the time day and night, reading your speeches the duins of the meeting in New York England. We begin a week or two before you got to York, and have been at it eve you got to York, and have been at it ever since. We commonly get up and go at it before breaklast, and take turns rending, and keep it up till bed time; that is, till nine o'clock in the evenin; for that's the time we Downingville folks go to bed. So I hope you wont feel slighted because I have n't lound time to write to you afore now, and I hope you have o't felt lonesome since you're been in York. I see you are on the way to Philadelphy, and Baltimore, and Washington, and if you should feel lonesome in them places, just turn about and come down here places, just turn about and come down here to Downingville, and we'll try to cheer you up and make you feel at home. I say this because I have took a great liking to you and I always mean what I say. I've took a greater liking to you than any body else since I lost my dear old friend Gineral Jacksince I lost my dear old friend Gineral Jackson. May be it is because you are so much like him. Fact, in some things it seems to me you are jest like him. Old Hickory was the man what "took the responsibility" when he wanted to do any thing; and I see you are jest so; you aint alraid to take the responsibility; and what's better still you are trying to encourage other folks to take the respot sibility tu. Old Hickory was a great hand to make principles, and then fight cas through. And there again I think you are good deal like him. And by the way, I begin to feel quite a liking for President Bona-parte of France, for I see he's took the responsibility at last, and been making principles and fightin of 'em through. There's some smart tolks in the world yet; and it's well there is, for it's pretty likely there'll be a use for 'em belore another year is out.—And then another thing which makes me think you are so much like old Hickory is the hoperate. the hoorahs. Why, it seems to me I can hear 'em all the way from York to Downing ville; and it carries me right back to old times, when the whole country was ringing with 'hoorah for Jackson."

I think, dear Governor, you better stop here till next summer, and not go back to Hungary. We shall have to make a new President next summer, and you might get in to be President jest us easy as a eat coullick her cur-and a President you know higher than Governor. Had n't you bett take it? I know you can get it? you'll only sny the word. Our parties in this country have been so broke to pieces and mixed up lately that nobody could tell who to piece upon for President; and we've been a good deal worried for fear we shouldn't make out to choose any President at all next summer, And I aint sure but what you've got here jest in the nick of time to get us out of this scrape. For if you'll only stand as candi-BROTHERS LINE.

HE Steamer Brothers and Tow Boats, Sterenson and David Lewis are prepared to forward th Desparce, all goods consigned to the Propri Whigs, and the Silver-gray Whigs, and the Hunker Democrats, and the Barnburns Democrats, and the Seward party, and Union-Safety Committee party, and the Liberty party and the regular Free-Soil party, and the regular Free-Soil party, and the regular Vote-yourself-a-turn party, and the old Abolition party, and the old Secession party, (which sprouted up on of the old Nullification party that I and the Hickory killed off.) and the Co-operation Secessionists and the out and one so-slow Secessionists, and the out and out go-To Merchants in the interior he would say, that all Goods shipped by him, will be delivered to their Agents in Fayetteville. His Agent in Wilmington is JOHN C. LATTA, to whom all communications may be addressed, as Agent of the Steamer Brothers. vided again into the party for Intercention without war, and the party for Intervention war or no war.

> It was lucky you took a stand and pu your foot down when you first got to New York that you wouldn't be mixed up, with any of our parties in this country, for if you had once got fairly mixed in with 'em you would a found yourself in such a snur! I am afraid you would wash yourself back to Turkey again before you would ever get out of it. And i'ts lucky on another acco that you have't mixed up with any of a twenty parties. For now you are the only man in the country that can get their votes As you havn't said nothin agin cone of 'en they can all turn round and vote for you, and if you'll only say the world they'll do it, and glad of the chance, for that srems to be the only way they can get handsomely out of the everlasting santi they've got into all over the country. You need the afraid there's any thing in the way agin your being President. To be sure, there is some liftle rules had down about it is my constitution. laid down about it in our constitution, that ean all be managed well enough; only wants somebody to take the responsion ity. Folks cant always go accordin to constitution when they get into a bad one they have to make new principles to go See how President Bonaparte has jest out of his snart; the constitution didn't at in his way a bit; he jest sot up a new pr ciple and fit it out.
