ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER. DR. J. S. HOUGTON'S GREAT DYSPEPSIA CURER!

The True Digestive Fluid, or Gastric Juice Prepared from Rennet, or the fourth stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M.

D., Philadelphia, Pa. This is a great Natural Remedy for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, curing after Nature's own Method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastrie Juice. Pepsin is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the matural Gastric Juice, in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of in digestion and Dyspepsia are removed just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing cases of debility, emaciation, nervous decline and Dyspeptic consumption, supd to be on the verge of the grave. The Scienposed to be on the verge of the girbased, is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

Baton Leiebig, in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, anaogous to the Gastric Juice, may be prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Ox, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach." The Case of Seduction and Attempted A especiention in Baltim corrence in Baltimore, are furnished by the papers of that city:

The following particulars of a painful oc-currence in Baltimore, are furnished by the papers of that city:

About eighteen months since, a young man of our city, named Joseph F. C. camer, well known around town, became acquainted with the beautiful and talented daughter of Mr. George Lengue, a gentleman long known and highly respected in our community, as a camera broker. Alias Remios Lengue, the lady to whom reference is made, was, at the time, attached the choir of one of our churches in the vicinity of Baltimore street and numbers of persons wended their way thither every Sunday to lines to ber singing, which all who heard it, pronounced almost unequalled for melody and compass. Creamer, as we stated, became acquainted with her, and paid to her the marked attention usual from a man toward the lady whom he intended to make his wife. The young lady, herself, loved him dearly—not wisely, but loo well—and the consequence was that after he had been visiting her some eight or ten months, her friends noticed a change in her, and anxious maternal frequiries elicited the fact that she was about to become a mother, without having undergone the ceremony that would make her a wife.

Of course the discovery caused the live-fiest emotion in the family, the members of which had always hitherio maintained an unsulid reputation. The father of Mise League at once waited upon the seducer of his draughsullid reputation. The father of Mise League at once waited upon the seducer of his daughter and demanded of him the only reparation in his power to his injured child—to marry her. This he refused to do, alleging that he was a miner, and therefore increases. minor, and therefore incompetent to marry without his father's consent, at the same time referring him to his father as the most spitable person to be consulted in the "premises. Ot course this was merely prevarientled, and an attempt to escape from doing justice to his victim. A short time after this the fahis victim. A short time after this the father of the young lady induced Creamer to go to the house and see Rosalon, the being desirous of having an interview with him.—

When he had arrived at the house, a preacher was in waiting, the license prepared, and every thing in readiness to celebrate the marriage ceremony, which the friends and relations of the lady's family had determined should take place at that time, ever if threats and force had to be resorted to.

The question was then put to Creamer, by the father, "will you marry my daughter?"
to which he again evaded a direct answer by a reference to his father. Mr. League now became very much excited and enraged, and pointing a pistol at the ruiner of the pences of his family, threatened to shoot him if he did not at once marry his daughter, but Creamer steadily refused, and finelly was suffered to depart on a promise that he would do justice to the lady at some future time,— He continued to visit the house putil after the child was born, professing a determina-tion to marry her as soon as he became twenty-one years of age. While this pro-mise was hanging over him, however, he was THE Steamer Brothers and Tow Boats, Stevenpaying his addresses to another indy, the daughter of a highly respected citizen of Baltimore, still however, regularly visiting Miss League, and making no avowal of his deter-mination to break his engagement with her.

on last Saturday work he cloped with the young lady mentioned—Miss Clare—they being married here on Saturday morning, and starting for Philadelphia in the afternoon train. They did not get off, however, without some difficulty, the family of Miss League having by some means become apprised of what was going on, although not to itsfulf extent—they only supposing that he was actually married at the time. Mrs. League and other members of her family were at the and other members of her family depot, and attempted to get to the hr by some means they were put upon a w scent, and the bridal party specceded in scent, and the bridal party succeeded Creamer and his wife remained in Ph phia about a week, and then returned Baltimore, and took rooms at the Fo Hotel, where they have resided up to the present time. The father of the victim a the seducer's arts, knowing that reparati to his daughter by marriage was now out the question, determined to personally his vengeance upon the destroyer of his family's peace and good name, by shooting him; and accordingly he has been on the alert for him ever since his return.

Yesterday morning, about half past sever o'clock, he stationed himself at the blechanics' Bank corner, opposite Barnum's Hotel armed with a double barrelled guo, to walk the blechanics of the barrelled guo, to walk the barrelled guo, to for his intended victim. A few minutes after Creamer came along down Fayette street, and passed him. When he had got about ten yards off the avenues. ten yards off the avenger raised his gun, and taking deliberate aim, fired. The barrel was loaded with buck shot, one of which passed through Creamer's apparel, and after inflicting a flesh wound on the lower part of the ting a flesh wound on the lower part of a breast bone, glanced along the margin of a ribs, and passed out without inflicting a further injury. The second shot struck revolver which Creamer had in a side poset, shivering it to pieces, and then, strut say, fell, and was found in his vest p say, left, and was found in immediately after this discharge, the trig of the second barrel was cocked, and the levelled, but Creamer at the moment the himself before some ludies, who were pa at the time, and thus gave time to som izens to interfere and wrest the gun out of the hands of his assailant.

Creamer immediately proceeded to a publi-house in Gay street, and the services of Dr J. A. Reed were called in, who dressed the wound, which is not dangerous, and he we then taken home in a back. The above a believe to be a fair and impartial statemes of an affair which has caused a great ceal excitement throughout the city.
