DANIEL WEBSTER. OF MASSACHUSEFIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT WILLIAM A. GRAHAM. NORTH CAROLINA.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. he article signed "Clinton" is almost too long the crowded state of our columns, but we will sort it as soon as our existing arrangements will sermit. We defer comments till then.

We would be obliged to those who write for The Commercial if they will make their articles short, or else divide them. This will ensure an earlier insertion.

DREDGING BOAT.

Our enterprising fellow clizen, JAMES CASSIDEY, Esq., constructed at his Ship yard a Vessel 55 feet ngth, 25 feet in width and 4 feet depth, to be used as a dredging Boat. Her machinery is nearly all on board, and she will be ready for launching in 2 or 3 weeks. She is intended for the rewing of shoals from the mouth of the river to Pavetteville, if required, and forming a channel of 15 feet water. She has a flat for the purpose of receiving the mud or sand, and conveying it to any desired place. She is well calculated for deepening the water at the front of wharves or cleaning out docks. Her Bucket is so constructed that the mud, or sand, may be thrown on the wharf if desired; we hope the enterprize may meet with the encouragement it so well deserves; our wharves and rivers need very much, this sort of improvement.

MR. JENIFER.

This distinguished Whig, who was a member of the Whig Convention, has come out with a declaration that he cannot support Gen. Scorr; his reasons are similar to those we have from time to time laid before our readers, and it is not, therefore, necessary to publish his letter. We may make some extracts from it hereafter.

Dates from Buenos Ayres to Aug. 2d deny the report of a revolution having broken out there .-The Governor had not resigned and matters were as quiet as usual.

INDICTMENT.

The Grand Jury of the U. S. District Court for New York, have indicted the owners and officers of the Henry Clay for manslaughter.

A FIGHT ABOUT RELIGION.

On Sunday night last a large party of Irishmen collected at a drinking place in New York, and began an angry dispute on religious subjects, which ended in a general fight. Not less than 2.000 persons either witnessed the fight or were d in it themselves. The police finally disngaged in it themselves. And ponce many the most making several arrests. We fear these religioussts put a wrong construction on the admonition to be "filled with the spirit."

The great Magyar is living in a private boarding house in a back street in London, without in the least degree troubling himself about politics, the intervention question, nor the solidarity of the people. The French, Italian and Hungarian Exthes no longer look to him for counsel. Kossuth, they argue, has so opened the eyes of absolutism on the continent, that it is morally and physically impossible that any scheme for the revival of lation can succeed under his management.— As a leader, therefore, his prestige, his influence, his name is gone.

THE TRIBUNE.

The Tribune was off its gnard on Tuesday last, having lately tried to speak quite softly about the South. But a Correspondent having sent him a description of a revolver, intimating at the same, that every Southern gentlemen who has slaves should buy a dozen of these articles, Mr. Greely speaks as follows:

Is it possible that Southern gentlemen, who own slaves, are obliged to provide the means of killing them at such a rate ? Is it possible that they have disposition to rebel against their owners, or to attack them ? We have always underd Slavery to be a divine, or at least a patriar-liastization, and as such of course the perfecof all that is sweet and lovely in human relaertainly we often hear of slaves who, hav-ic the mistake of freeing themselves, have ck to their old homes and their form-How can these contradictions be frec-

We know that the riews taken by "Civis" correspond with those of several gentlemen who had the matter in official charge, and who were somewhat censured for too much particularity in business matters -We hope the affair will now rest under the impulses and influences suggested by our correspondent, We are bound to notice the subject in this manner, as we are personally involved in the validity of the official action above alluded to.

QUESTIONS NOT ANSWERED.

On the 26th of last month, we had the honor to propound the following questions to the Boston Atlas, a leading Scott paper-being led thereto by certain comments made by the Editor on the course of The Commercial. We invite the attention of the reader to them :

What are his (the Editor's) views relative to Southern Rights, under the Constitution-should they be perpetual or temporary? Will the Editor stand up to the Baltimore Platform ?

Will the supporters of Scorr in Massachusetts do the same? Will the Atlas sustain the Fugitive Slave Law?

Was not the Allas one of the papers that abused Mr. WEBSTER for vindicating Southern Rights and sustaining the Constitution?

If the Editor has taken any notice of the above, it has escaped our observation. What do Southern men think of this? Are they prepared to go hand in glove with the northern supporters of Gen Scorr, who will not, dare not answer these questions in the only way that ought to satisfy a southern man?

REV. MR. DOUB-THE STANDARD.

We see that the controversy between this gentleman and the Editor of the Standard still continues Mr. Doub is a Minister of the Gospel, of high character for piety and theological acumen He has charge of a Congregation in Raleigh .-From all we have heard of the Reverend gentleman, we should presume he has the good of souls at heart, and that, like his Master, he feels that he is not sent "to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

Our friend Holden, though, speaking after the manner of men, a clever follow, is, we fear, a great sinner. He may even neglect to attend meeting. Of course, Mr. Doub is grieved in spirit, and feels a special vocation to friend Holden. Having no other way of access to him, he addresses him through the "Star." He addresses him on politics, well knowing that Billy will attend to nothng else just at this time.

But this is a ruse de guerre; Mr. Doub, when he secures his attention, will change the subject, merge the Politician in the Theologian, and be down upon him about sins.

Unless we are mistaken in all our views of the character of the ministerial office, and of the holy zeal of the Rev. Mr. Doub, this controversy with the Standard is only designed to cover the main attack upon the wickedness of friend Holden.

In the mean time, we desire to submit to Mr. Donb whether his course is best adapted to the conversion of Friend Holden, or to the increase of his own usefulness as a Minister of the Gospel.

To be serious: We believe we but express the feelings of Mr. Doub's best friends when we say that, on his own account, we deeply regret to see him soiling the reputation of years, by a descent into the arena of party politics.

DOUBTS ABOUT OHIO.

Ohio has been claimed as one of the most certain States for Scott, but the following from the New York Tribune of Tuesday last, indicates a squally atmosphere. We infer from the words of the Editor, that he has no hopes of Ohio, though he says they are "strengthened." Hear him :

We gave the last week to a visit to our friends Northern and Central Ohio, in the hope of gaining some farther light on the important problem here indicated. The result of our inquiries has strengthened our hopes, though it has not entirely dissipated our apprehensions. That a majoriof the legal voters of Ohio prefer Winfield Scott to Franklin Pierce for next President, there is no reason to doubt. If the vote were taken to-morrow-every voter in the State depositing a ballot for Winfield Scott or Franklin Pierce, according to his preference-Gen. Scott could not be beaten. But if 20,000 yotes are thrown away on Hale, at least 16 000 of them will be cast by men who were formerly Whigs, and who are to-day Whigs upart from the question of Blavery. They have been alienated from the Whig party by assertions that it has changed its character since 1840 and '44 and become pro-Slavery, and in favor of the Perpetuation and extension of Human Bondage; and on this ground solely many of them will resist all appeals from their former brethren, and persist in throwing away their votes. And besides, there will be a large number of newly naturalized German voters this Fall, a majority of whom will be deceived into voting for Sham Domocracy, mistaking it for the genuino article.

MOUNT ETNA.

A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Malta, states that on the night of the 20th of August, during the celebration of the centinais, or every hundredth anniversary of Saint Agata, the patron Saint of the town of Catana. Mount Etna became auddenly convulsed, and a magnificent eruption took place, which has not been surpassed by any within the past forty years, and fears were entertained that, from the northerly direction which the lava took, the neighboring villages of Zafarana and Giarre have very seriously suffered. For several days previously torrents of rain had descended, and passengers from Messina, by the French steamers which arrived at Malta on the morning of the 25th, reported that the volcane was still in activity during the night of the 24th, and no doubt dreadful rayages will

A FORGER DETECTED.

The Dublin Mail states that a man named Murphy, an American-born subject, was brought before the Magistracy of the head office of Police at Dublin, on the 27th of August, charged with forgery of American Bank Notes. He had employed an engraver in June last, who made the matter known to the American Consul and the Magistracy. He was advised to continue the work, which he did, till about fifty notes were worked off and points." the evidence against Murphy complete. His design was, no doubt, to pass the forged notes upon the numerous emigrants leaving Dublin.

I was troubled with Dyspepsja, for four years, during which time I tried many remedies, but never met with any so good as your Bitters.
