IRISH AFFAIRS.

Irish papers have the following paragraph : "Mr. Foy, United States Consul at Dublin, has had an interview with the Lord Lieutenant on behalf of the New York Exhibition of 1853. Mr. Foy was accompanied by Mr. Marshall, agent for the exhibition. His Excellency expressed himself most anxious to assist in any way the furtherance of the exhibition to be held at New York, without prejudice to the Dublin exhibition at the same time." A meeting of anti-slavery people was held at the Methodist Chapel, Donegal place, Belfast, last week, when an address-somewhat lengthy-to Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, was agreed to. Dr. McGee, Mayor elect, Rev. Dr. Wilson and Rev O'Hanalan made the chief appearance. A similar meeting was held at Liverpool.

THE MAILS.

RALKIGH, Jan 12-The mails which depend upon horse transportation, owing to the terrible state of the roads, are extremely irregular. In spite-of the untiring energy of contractors and drivers, the stages from the West, East and South, are alout bottoms, are obstacles not to be overcome at will, and until a succession of bright days and dry weather, the same irregularities will continue. The Raleigh and Gaston Railroad is performing its duties with great regularity, and being now complete, within a few hundred yards of the depot, will rarely hereafter be responsible for failmes of the Northern mail.

The storm of the night of the 3rd, was very disastrous to the telegraph lines We learn that, on he Railroad, nearly the whole line, between Gaston and Henderson, was prostrated, posts demolished and wire much broken. It will be several days yet, before communication can possibly be restored between this place and the North. South, the damage was great, but not so complete.
