"It is seldom that we recommend what are terused Patent Medicines, to the confidence and partonage of our readers; and therefore when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the heart y approval of the faculty itself."

"Scott's Weekly," said, Aug 25: "Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantage-ous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."
