

THE COMMERCIAL

WILMINGTON, N. C.
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1853.

THE NEW JAIL.

The subject of the new Jail is attracting much attention we have instituted some inquiries, and gather the following facts, from a reliable source.

1. The Court never ordered the removal of the Jail because it was a nuisance. They wanted a more secure and comfortable one, whether erected on the old site or a new one. No person ever complained to the Court that it was a nuisance.

2. The lot purchased is the only unimproved one with water advantages within the limits of the town.

3. The Committee have no authority to erect a Jail outside of the town. And as respects the Memorial against the site chosen, if any one of the Memorialists will suggest a more suitable location, the Committee will gladly adopt it.

4. The piece of ground selected is, in its present state a nuisance, as every citizen knows or may know, by examining the same. It generates malaria, and is a resort for boys who choose to 'dabble in the mud there, &c.

5. The Committee intend putting up such a building on the premises, as will enhance the value of the adjoining property, rather than depreciate it—and the health of the neighborhood will be promoted by the contemplated improvement.

From these facts it will appear that things have been managed to the best ability of the Committee, with the "lights before them." We do not speak by authority, but venture the suggestion, that if any thing better can be done, the Committee are ready and willing to do it, non con.

A FIRST RATE SCHOONER.

We yesterday went on board the new three masted schooner James H. Chadbourne, Captain Wainwright. It is possible that our judgment may be warped by our partiality for the name, but we think she is one of the finest vessels of her class we ever saw. Her length of keel is 126 feet, breadth of beam 30 feet, depth of hold 10 feet, and she measures 400 tons. The Hone is 60 feet long, and is divided into a Cabin 15 feet long, and a house 25 feet long for the storage of merchandise. The Cabin has four state rooms, 6 feet by 7, very well fitted up with two wide berths in each.

From her appearance she must sail well; we were informed that she has run 12 miles per hour—a speed seldom if ever exceeded without the aid of steam.

One half of the J. H. C. belongs to Messrs. J. H. Chadbourne & Co. and Capt. Wainwright, her commander. The other half is owned in New York. She sails from this port, and we consider her a very creditable addition to our mercantile marine. We know of none more worthy of success than the owners of the Wilmington moiety—a full measure of which they have our best wishes to attain.

CAPE FEAR AND DEEP RIVER.

We regret that we have not space to insert an interesting letter of J. H. HUTTON, Esq., one of the Directors, and always an active and efficient help to the interests and progress of the Cape Fear and Deep River Improvement. Mr. HUTTON was prompted to write the letter, which appears in the Raleigh Register, by an attack of Dr. MITCHELL, of the University, on the improvement of the upper Cape Fear, in which he asserts that its navigation is impracticable. Mr. HUTTON controverts this position, and maintains that the present plan of improvement will afford good navigation in the lowest water during the severest drought, and that the locks and dams, properly constructed, will withstand the most violent freshets ever known.

LARGE MEETING.

Some four or five thousand persons assembled at the Metropolitan Hall, New York, on Thursday last, which the Washington Union describes as an immense "meeting of French, Italian, German, Hungarian, Swiss and Cuban exiles, marshalled under their respective revolutionary banners," with "speeches in French, Spanish, German and Slavonian."

The object was to honor the course of Captain INGRAM, in the Kosta affair, and to vote him a gold medal.

We have no objection, for one, to giving the gallant Captain the credit of being incited by honorable and patriotic motives. But, when we are required to connect this with the doctrine of becoming a citizen, and still residing in a foreign country, and is not required in his declaration to abjure his allegiance to his native country. When we are required we say, to admit that he is, under these circumstances, entitled to all the benefits, and rights, and protection of a citizen, we beg to be permitted to retain the small portion of common sense necessary to discern that this doctrine is fallacious and foolish.

Mr. EDWARD EVERETT sent a letter to the meeting, approving of its object, so far as the Captain is concerned, which he concludes as follows: "Important questions of law, both municipal and international, present themselves in the case, some of which are new. On these questions—as our information of facts is incomplete and unofficial—I reserve my judgment. There can be but one opinion of the noble conduct of Capt. INGRAM."

We need not be surprised that Mr. EVERETT entertains doubts, when the Hon. R. J. WALKER wrote a letter, espousing Captain INGRAM'S cause, and the right of Kosta to protection, because there is a popular breeze rippling over the political waters, to catch which, certain gentlemen have loosened their sails, and we fear, widened their consciences.

There is a singular feature in this transaction of humbug and fuss. Mr. FRANCIS MEAGHER declined attending the meeting, saying, "I am not yet a citizen of the United States." The remark was worthy of that noble Irish heart, soon to become an American. Mr. MEAGHER does not assume the right to act in matters relative to the honor and interest of the United States, though he has declared his intention and lives among us. Mr. Kosta requires the United States to protect him while residing in a foreign land!

By the doctrine now attempted to be promulgated, the United States might get into a quarrel with another nation about one in Kosta's situation, and when the fight was over, he might tell Uncle Sam, that he did intend to become a citizen, but had not altered his mind; so our countrymen would spill their blood and expend their treasure for a "bird in the bush."

After three years' probation, and not before, the applicant is required to swear to support the Constitution of the United States, and renounce allegiance to all foreign powers. Kosta is no more a citizen of this country than any other foreigner, and can have no claim as such.

THE FARMER'S JOURNAL.

The Farmer's Journal has been removed from Bath to Raleigh. The Editor says he has done this "not because anxious to get among the "welled heads or upper tens" as they are called, but for the reason that we believe, a change of this kind will confer a mutual benefit upon ourselves and those whose interest we advocate."

A SINGULAR EPISTLE.

The following letter appears to us to be of a very extraordinary character. Mr. COLBY gives very singular reasons for abandoning the work—Opposition should impel people to push on an enterprise with increased determination and zeal. The letter appears in the Raleigh Register.

Guilford, Sept. 20, 1853.
Mr Editor—At the instance of several gentlemen of high standing in this State, Mr. Smith and myself, shortly after visiting North Carolina, were induced to subscribe for a large portion of the stock in the Fayetteville and Western Rail Road. We had no mistrust as to the utility and success of the undertaking, nor do we anticipate at the time of the work, nor did we anticipate, at the time of the work, any opposition, at least in North Carolina. But since we have commenced active operations on the road, we have felt and witnessed with deep mortification and pain, the series of attacks made upon this road, and the deep river improvement, by Dr. Elisha Mitchell, Professor of Geology and Mineralogy, at Chapel Hill—a gentleman of great learning, occupying a high and commanding position throughout the whole country, and especially in the immediate vicinity.

"Seeing this determined opposition, I most respectfully suggest to my fellow stockholders, as well as to those interested in the River Improvement, whether it would not be prudent, and to our interest, to abandon both these works forthwith, and save all further expenditure. Most respectfully,
JOHN L. COLBY."

New York Correspondence of the Commercial.
Conclusion of the Morgan Affair at Newport—Death of Mr. Henry R. W. Hill, the Millionaire, and Public Brevity at New Orleans—Detention of Southerners—Half Pennies.

New York, Sept. 26th.
In my last letter I mentioned that Mr. Morgan had committed an assault upon Mr. Hone at Newport. It appears that when the altercation between Morgan and his wife occurred, they were stopping at the Bellevue House, and Mr. Hone at the Tour. The ladies at the latter, upon hearing Mrs. Morgan's difficulties and indignities, held an indignation meeting, and requested Mr. Hone to intercede in behalf of the injured lady. Fortified with this high prerogative, Mr. Hone stepped forth as the champion of the fair sex in general, and of Mrs. Morgan in particular. He soon found himself involved in the perilous task of intermeddling in the concerns between man and wife. In a few days Mr. and Mrs. Morgan made up, and were as loving as ever, and Morgan, taking advantage of the pacification, revenged himself by the assault upon Mr. Hone. Two prosecutions, a criminal and a civil one, arose out of this affair, and the former taking precedence, Morgan was admitted to bail in the sum of one thousand dollars. This he forfeited, and he and his wife were seen riding about New York in their carriage day before yesterday, and both together since then, have taken their departure in the steamer Franklin for Havre and Paris. It is always safest to let man and wife alone to settle their own affairs, and to this conclusion Mr. Hone will no doubt come, for notwithstanding his chivalry and good motives, he is not likely to realize from them any other pay than that which Paddy gave the drum. These scandalous developments will have no other effect upon society than to show off its weak and corrupt features, and the repulsive deformities which the mantle of fashion throws over its deluded varieties in the magical circle of high life, into which so many are anxious to enter.

The public papers, a few days since, announced the death of Mr. Harry Hill of New Orleans. He died at his plantation near that city. He deserves a passing notice, not only on account of his great wealth, but his public enterprise, and distinguished munificence. When the epidemic appeared, he at once contributed five hundred dollars to the Howard Association for the relief of the sick poor. Finding that the pestilence was on the increase, he authorized the Howard Society to call on him every week for the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars as long as the fever prevailed. Mr. Hill was attached to the Methodist denomination, and some months since he purchased a tract of ground fronting Tivoli Circle in New Orleans, on which he designed erecting, at his own expense a Methodist Church, the outlay upon which, including the premises, was to have been $120,000. He was for a long time, the Nashville partner of the House of Dick & Hill of New Orleans. They were large Cotton Factors, and having made liberal advances to farmers and speculators, the firm became involved in 1837, and as an indemnity for their advances, they soon found themselves in possession of numerous plantations and a large slave interest. With such productive and valuable assets, their credit was speedily re-established, and their wealth increased. The two Mr. Dicks died immensely rich, and Mr. McLane, the remaining partner, withdrawing in 1851, Mr. Hill continued the business alone, under the title, however, owing to unsettled claims, of Harry Hill & Co. That same year, also, they experienced a temporary drawback, by suspending payment for two or three months, arising from the pressure of the money market, and the low condition of the waters of the Mississippi, which kept the produce from market. But their resources were undoubted. Mr. Hill, besides other property, was the owner of one or two sugar estates, and of six or seven cotton plantations—His cotton crop last year amounted to 4,700 bales. His fortune is estimated at a million and a half. The result, too, of his individual enterprise and business capacity. He was a widower, and has left an only son and heir to these princely possessions.

It is seldom that Providence permits the accumulation of great wealth in individual hands, without some countervailing drawback. Mr. Hill's son is very slightly removed above a state of idleness; such is the destiny of the opulent—Their hopes of supremacy and perpetuity are cut off in the profligacy, disobedience, insanity, or idleness of their offspring; and great possessions are hoarded up, only to be speedily distributed for the general benefit of poor and struggling humanity. Such has been the general result of things, in this respect, ever since the return of the prodigal son, the rebellion of Absalom, the fatality of the son of Croesus, and the recorded history of many ancient and modern millionaires.

There are many Southerners here from New Orleans and Mobile, who would gladly return home if they could do so with impunity. The prevalence of the fever in the river towns on the Mississippi, is very embarrassing to the Louisiana planters who are at the North with their families.

There is no abatement of the pressure upon the hotels. They are as much crowded as ever, and will continue so throughout October. It has been a prevalent impression, that October would be the best month to visit the city and the World's

THE EPIDEMIC IN NEW ORLEANS.

The interments in New Orleans on Saturday last, were 34, only 12 of which were from yellow fever. On Sunday there were 35, of which 16 were from the fever. The Board of Health have discontinued issuing daily reports.

His Excellency Gov. MANNING has appointed Thursday, the 13th of October next, as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer throughout the State of South Carolina.

LATER FROM MEXICO.

New Orleans, Sept. 26.—The steamer Texas arrived at New Orleans on Sunday night, bringing advices from Vera Cruz to the 23d, and City of Mexico to the 18th inst. She brings no intelligence from California later than the 16th ult.

General Torrel, Minister of War, died at Taccubaya on the 16th inst., of apoplexy. His successor had not been appointed.

General Manuel Mitchell Torrena, also, died on the 7th inst., in the city of Mexico.

ARRIVAL OF NORTHERN LIGHT.

2 WEEKS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.
Nearly Two Millions of Gold Coins—A Million More on the Way—Large Increased Production—More Strikes—Emigrants Arriving—Opposition to Gov. Bigler.

New York, Sept. 25.—The steamer Northern Light, from San Juan, arrived at 1 o'clock this morning, bringing San Francisco dates of Sept. 1st., $1,300,000 in gold on freight, and $500,000 in the hands of the passengers. She alone brings 650 passengers. She connected with the Brother Jonathan from San Francisco, which brought down 700 passengers and $1,500,000 in gold on freight.

The steamer Cortes arrived at San Francisco on Aug. 28, with the passengers who left New York in the Northern Light on August 6th. All were well.

The specie by the Northern Light is consigned principally as follows: Duncan, Sherman & Co., $400,000; American Exchange Bank, $200,000; Adams & Co., $200,000; Burgoyne & Plume, $300,000.

The steamer Oregon, from Panama, left San Francisco on the 1st, with nearly $1,000,000 gold on freight, which was consigned principally as follows: Page, Bacon & Co., $200,000; Adams & Co., $200,000; $100,000; B. Davidson, $100,000; Wells & Fargo $75,000.

The miners were generally doing well. Emigrants from China and across the plains were arriving in great numbers.

A large shipment of quicksilver had been made to China.

The excess of shipments of gold for the past eight months of 1853, over the same months of 1852 is nearly $10,250,000.

Strikes among the laborers continue, and were generally successful. Bricklayers had struck for $12 and lod-carriers for $6 per day, and had been successful.

Indian hostilities on Rogue River were unchecked.

The two men who murdered Mr. Beckwith, at the Volcano diggings, were arrested on board the Brother Jonathan just as she was about to sail—Their names were Dutch Harry and James Fox.

A large meeting had been held at San Francisco in favor of the immediate construction of the Pacific railroad.

Politics were waxing warm, and several prominent democrats were canvassing the State in opposition to the re-election of Gov. Bigler. Dr. H. M. Gray had been nominated for Mayor of San Francisco by the Whigs, and Capt. E. J. Harrison, agent of the Nicaragua steamship company, by the democrats.

The taxable property of the city had been assessed at $29,000,000.

Nearly one-half of the town of Sonora had been destroyed by fire. The flames broke out in Barnum's Hotel, and swept down the whole north part of Main street. The business part of the city escaped. Loss $40,000.

The town of Kelsey's Diggins, in El Dorado county, was burnt down on the night of the 25th ult. Loss $40,000.

WAR IN OREGON.

Dates from Oregon to the 26th of August have been received.

An Indian insurrection had broken out in Paige river valley, which created great consternation among the inhabitants. Several tribes had united and commenced a war of extermination upon the whites. Many massacres had already been committed. Among the victims were Dr. Wm. R. Rose, and John R. Harden. Lieut. B. V. Griffin, with a company of troops, had made an attack upon a party of Indians, but was obliged to retreat, himself wounded.

An expedition under General Lano had gone to the scene of action, and bloody work was expected. Twenty whites had been butchered.

QUEBEC RIOTERS.

The grand jury of the city of Quebec has found bills against fourteen persons "for riotously beginning to demolish the Chalmers Church, and dwelling house," during the outbreak when Gavazzi was lecturing in the Church.

SERIOUS DISASTER ON LAKE ERIE.
BUFFALO, Sept. 24.—Bishop's large boom derrick, which was at work at the wreck of the steamer Erie, off Silver Creek, was capsized during the gale last night, and that, together with the steamers Madison and Lexington, went down. Mr. Bishop and the crew of the boats were all saved.

RHODE ISLAND LEGISLATURE.
PROVIDENCE, Sept. 24.—A bill has been introduced in the House calling a convention on the basis of universal suffrage, to repeal the registry tax as a qualification for voting.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.
BANGOR, Sept. 24.—The saw mill of Geo. Veazie in this place was totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The loss is $30,000, upon which there is no insurance, the policy having run out a few days since.

From the New Haven Register.

Philosophers have long been puzzled to account for the singular fact, that the taking up of a contribution, is sure to put a collection of people to flight. A correspondent of the Boston Post, rhymes over the remarkable phenomenon:

A SCENE.
Wherein Widesworth Sees the Theory of Repulsion Illustrated by a Hat.

I see them rushing out
In wild tumultuous rout,
And I ask what's their about,
Of one near—
Is the dinner hour nigh,
Or a constable near by,
Or that they wildly fly
Out of here?

Then he answers with a grin,
And he looks as sly as sin,
As he points his thumb within—
'Tisn't that;
But the president has said
That money's to be paid,
And the people, sore afraid,
Dodge the hat."

STABLER'S "GOOD MEDICINES" are popular with all who know of them. See their advertisement in another column. Their "Cherry Elixir" is admirable for Coughs &c., and their "Dianthia Cardia" is the best remedy for diseases of the Bowels now extant.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.—We believe this to be an excellent preparation, and shall therefore not hesitate to recommend it to our readers. It has been tested in numerous instances in this city, and in several others, and under our own observation, it has accomplished what other popular medicines and some of our most skillful physicians had failed to accomplish—a perfect cure, in cases of (apparently) confirmed consumption. It is the only medicine for this disease which can be heartily recommended.—Temperance Advocate, R. I.

Weak, Nervous, Depressed in Spirit, and a prey to innumerable mental as well as physical evils, the victim of dyspepsia is indeed an object of commiseration. Yet it is absurd for him to despair. We care not how low weak, nervous and irritable he may be, the cordial properties of Hood's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, are stronger than the many headed monster which is preying upon his body and mind; and if he chooses to try them, we will insure a speedy cure.

DR. J. S. ROSE'S PAIN CURER will cure all pains in the stomach or bowels in a few minutes. For Toothache, or Pains in the Face, it acts like a charm, giving instant relief. Indeed for pain in any part of the body, or for Spasms, Rheumatism, neuralgia, or pains in the side, back or limbs, it is invaluable. Nothing equal to it for Lumps or Aqueing in the Breast. DIED.

In Nash County, at the residence of his father, Wm. Pitts, Esq., Mr. JAMES W. PERRY, in his 24th year.

This amiable and much beloved young man, just in the bloom of life, when death, cruel and remorseless, tore him from the bosom of his parents and friends, and consigned him to the gloom and darkness of the Grave. Thus are the beautiful, the gifted, the affectionate and lovely, called from the peaceful and happy circles of domestic blessedness to the mysterious regions of eternity. Where the rose blossomed but yesterday, the cypress now waves its branches of sorrow, and the tear—the burning and the blighting tear now marks with the streams of its agonies the cheeks of those who have seldom wept over such calamities—ever such misfortunes. The lamented young man has doubtless gone to that better land, where he will meet those he loved and the just, who like himself were called in a moment—an unexpected moment—from the brightness of this world to the Garden of God.

In this town, on Monday the 26th inst., ROBERT HENRY son of George and Eliza Jane Alderman, aged 9 months and 16 days.
