due at the Court House door, in the city of Raleigh, on M nday, the 17th day of October, (if not previously disposed of at private sale,) his Farm, 9 miles east of Raleigh, situated on the Newbern Road, and formerly well known as the "Busses Place." It contains 400 acres of good free land, with a fair proportion of wood land. On the premises is a very good Dwelling House, containing eleven rooms; there are very few country houses superior to it in the country of Wake. There is a good kitchen, with the county of Wake. There is a good kitchen, with several houses for negro quarters; a carriage-house, Cider Press, Stables, Cotton Gin House, &c., and a Store House, at which a very respectable trade is carried on. The location of the buildings is in the midst of a grove of large Oak, high and healthy. It would be a delightful residence; or would answer for a Boarding House for persons desirous of spending their summers in the country.

The North Carolina Rail Road, about to be built, has been marked off to run within a hundred yards of the Dwelling.

A further description is unrecessary, as no one will probably purchase, without examining the premises.
