CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS, PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON.
No. 120 Arch street. Philadelphia.
Their power ever the above diseases is not execuled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most scarching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED. The Bartaephia Saturday Gazette, says of Dr. Heograsn's German Bitters.
This seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, to the confidence and patronage of our readers; and therefore when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universal y prized, and which has met the heart y approval of the faculty itself."

"Scott's Weekly," said, Aug. 25: "Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent HE English and Classical School, under the members of the faculty as an article of much affice-THE English and Classical School, under the members of the incurty as an attached and Classical School, under the charge of Rev. inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon disenses of the liver and digestive organ, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration, is really surprising It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them in to a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system, the great majority of real and imaginary deseases cinnfate. Have them in a healthy condition and you can bid defi-sing to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial-it will recommend it-self. It should, a fact, be in every family.
