NEW SCHOONER.

We observe that a new schooner has been pu on the regular line of New York packets, by Mr. Geo. Harriss. We have had no opportunity to go on board of her, but presume she is first rate, or she would not be where she is. She is called the Ben, and is commanded by Capt. Zont, and is 330 tons burthen.

LARGE SALE.

Our friends Messrs. H. & J. Mayen, as will be seen by their advertisement, offer for sale the whole of their very large stock of prime Goods, at cost and under. We believe this offer affords an excellent opportunity for dealers in their line of business.

DEATH OF COL. ALSTON

The Weldon Patriot of Thursday says: "It is with deep pain that we announce the decease of Col. W. F. S. Alston, on Monday morning last .-An extended Obituary with the proceedings of the different societies to which he belonged will appear in our columns next week."

THE BIBLE.

We have frequently been asked by our young friends what Books we would advise them to read. Among others we have recommended the Bible who have read neither with attention. But we ask leave to say, that the pages of Blackstone, the | Ten Buildings, worth probably Text Book of the common law, would have all Stereotype Plates, valued at been blank, so far as equity and justice, and the duty of men to men are concerned, without a transcript from the Bible. The technicals of Law are not there, to be sure-but the Law is. We do not, certainly, wish to detract from the merits of any of the authors above named, and surely not from Blackstone, who was a practical printer and of course " one of us."

SPIRITUAL RAPPINGS.

The Jacksonville News states that Mrs. Elizabeth W. Haughton, of that city, was committed to the Lunatic Asylum at Worceater, on the 28th ult. in a deplorable state of insanity, caused by attending spirit rapping circles.

CONSECRATION.

The new Episcopal Church in the city of Raleigh, will be consecrated on Thursday, the 22d inst. The attendance of the Clergy and Laiety of the Diocese, and the public generally is respectfully requested.

THE PUBLICATION OF THE MESSAGE The Journals of New York, lay the charge of improper proceedings, with regard to the publication of the President's Message, at the door of his Cabinet. Why, really, though the thing might be improper, we do not see that any great harm has been done. If the Executive chooses to disport in this fashion, and select among the presses those whom it is considered best to bind strong to party service, by the ties of confidential attention -and to break in upon the order of a pledged arrangement for the general accommodation, why let it be done-it is all in the way of the policy developed in certain letters written from the Cabinet some time ago. For our part, we would not have cared if it had been kept back a week or longer, so our subscribers did not complain.

The Trabune says, on this subject: "The Couvier and Enquirer, however, in a good-natured and witty account of the rumpus, takes occasion to say that "The Tribune has impaired its character for fairness by anticipating the order to publish." In reply to this, we beg to assure our respected cotemporary that car Extra containing the Message was not issued until the receipt of a dispatch from Washington to the effect that the reading had begun in Congress. That our dispatch got here some time before that received by the Postmaster only proves that our correspondent reached the Telegraph Office somewhat sooner than the public messenger, and furnishes a new illustration of the superiority of private enterprise over Government machinery."

NORTHERN SHIPS FOR CHARLESTON.

The Courier of Thursday says: "We mentioned on Saturday morning, that a new ship of 800 Nicholas. tons, the Brother Jonathan, intended for a Charleaten and Liverpool trader, and to be commanded by Capt. Bichard H. Tucker, of Wiscasset, had sched on the 3d inst., at Portsmouth, N. II. Still the loss is so great and so unexpected, ble rabble. Very likely, but they must be taught that they will need to render their remaining property available, to meet the large outlay necessary in re-establishing their business and carrying out their pre-existing arrangements. It will be a great advantage to them, if the Insurance Companies which hold risks on the property destroyed, will pay the money promptly, without waiting for unecessary formalities. As no Company (except one in London) is liable for more than $5,000, it cannot be difficult to carry out this suggestion, without special inconvenience. We may be permitted to say here, that the Harpers submit to their loss with great composure, and are neither disheartened nor irritated by their misfortune.

"The Harpers have taken temporary possession of a fine new building in Beekman street, whither many loads of books have been removed, (a much larger number than it was supposed had been saved till they were brought together,) and yesterday a considerable sale was effected and the books delivered. Quite a number of individuals have tendered aid, the use of money, presses, &c., and expressions of sympathy come from every hand. One little incident may be mentioned. Forgetting the nature of the government which most of that persuasion have made theirs by choice and adoption, they would unwittingly here develop that same civil and ecclesiastical tyranny from which they so recently fled. Within a very few months, riots have occurred in Louisville, Cincinnati, Newark, Montreal and Quebec, growing out of the attempts of Roman Catholics to forcibly prevent freedom of discussion in religious matters; and last Sunday our own city was made the scene of a disgraceful outrage, of the same fanatical and unchristian nature. Street preachers whose doctrines were unpalatable to a portion of those who voluntarily come within the reach of their voice, were harshly assaulted, and the public peace, as well as the sanctity of the Sabbath, desecrated. The Church cannot here in any shape and form be allowed to rule in the Republic, except in the minds and hearts of those who yield it a voluntary obedience. This doctrine must here over-ride that of any of the spiritual fathers, who may maintain, however, conscientiously, that "here y must be punished by torture as an offence against God and man." We are led to these remarks from the fact that the Rev. Mr. Lee, a converted Roman Catholic, who is now delivering lectures in Newark, N. OUTRAGE A correspondent of the Courrier des Etas Unis, inder date of the 28th November, records one of the greatest outrages that has been committed since the days of the massacre of the Protestants of France, or the palmy days of the Inquisition, or of the Jesuits. Could any one believe, that by the Roman Catholic Intolerance the buried body of a Protestant was exhumated and violently sitched over the wall of a cemetery, into the next field, to be the prey of birds. The fact came to the knowledge of the Charivari, and other Paris papers, who are all in arms and loudly call for the punishment of him who descrated the grave and committed such an outrage on society.

WHIG MEETING IN NEW HANOVER. Pursuant to notice the Whigs of New Hanover met at the Court House in Wilmington, on Thursday evening last, 25th inst., and on motion of Col. John MacRae, the meeting was organized by the appointment of Dr. James H. Dickson as Chairman, and Edward Savage as Secretary.

The object of the meeting having been explained by the Chairman on motion of John Cowan Esq. a committee of three was appointed to draft solutions, for the consideration of the meeting. The committee consisting of John Cowan. Thos. Miller and O. P. Meares, Esq'rs, reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

The Whigs of New Hanover County being anx ous for the restoration of those sound republican principles, which were taught by our fathers, and by the maintainance of which alone, our country can remain permanently and gloriously prosperous, have this day assembled in Convention and upanimously resolve.

First. That we will join our Whig brethren of the State in a Convention, to be held in Raleigh on the 21st Prorpary next, according to the apcointment of the Whig Executive Committee, and hat we will cheerfully abide by, and carnestly endeavor to promote the decision of said Conention, both for the settlement of those quesions of State policy, which have hitherto disracted our party, and for the selection of a Gubrnatorial Candidate for the next campaign.

Second, That we are deeply grateful for the manifestations of regard and preference already exhibited in public meetings and otherwise, for New Hanover's favorite son, Goorkge Davis; and while we express our determination to abide the lecision of the Convention, we cannot forbear earnestly to press his claims upon its attention. lie is a fi m. consistent and conscientious politi cian; a tried, true and faithful Whig; an able. eloquent and learless expounder and defender of Whig Principles. His life exhibits the impersonation of honor and truth His character is above reproach and above suspicion; and his energy and zeal have been manifested by the most arduous services in the Whig cause, under the most discouraging circumstances, when there was neiher reward nor the hope of reward.

Third, That the Administration of MILLARD THE MORE affords a perfect illustration of the pracical operation of Whig principles. Perfectly satisfactory to its friends and depriving even its eneics of the power of just and honorable complaint, the Whig party of the country will seek for the establishment of a similar Administration; and b lieve that, in so doing they will serve the be .. nterests and secure the permanent glory of their

The business done in the SENATE yesterday was mostly of a preparatory character, consisting of the reference of private claims and other subjects The Roman Catholics are going ahead pretty to committees for investigation. One subject referred is of particular interest, viz : whether it be not expedient to provide for the appointment of a Commission to revise the Public Statues of the United States, and report them in an improved form to Congress for its final action. The question is before the Committee on the Judiciary.

In the House of Representatives a bill wa introduced which proposes to make a grant of public lands to the several States and Territories for the benefit of indigent insane persons. This humane object was under consideration at the last session, and lost for want of time.

A bill was also presented to extend the benefits of the pension laws to all persons serving in the war of 1812 and Indian wars prior thereto. This is a subject of interest to many thousands. Many bills were introduced, amongst which were several for grants of lands for railroads.

An inquiry was ordered in reference to the exediency and necessity of raising two or more egiments of mounted troops for the protection of

THE MURDER ON LAKE ERIE.

CLEAVLAND, Dec. 12 .- Nine deck hands belongng to the steamboat Louisiana were arrested here on Saturday, charged with the robbery and murder of E. Anderson and have been committed to jail. Anderson was mate of the steamer Buckeye State, and resided at Cleveland. He bore a good character for sobriety, &c. A German, who came from Buffalo on the Louisiana states that Anderson went down into the steerage, where the German emigrants were, and that soon after a number of deck hands went down, and began to conduct themselves improperly towards the women. BENNETT CONVICTED OF LIBEL. New York, Dec. 14.-The jury to-day, in the case of Edward P. PITTSBURG, Dec. 12 .- Bendini, the Pope's Nur cio, was yesterday escorted to Church in this city, by a large procession, composed of the different Roman Catholic Societies, bearing banners with inscriptions. Considerable excitement ensued, and after service, when the Nuncio, accompanied by Bishop O'Conner, was returning to his carriage, some rioters stepped forward and ouffed cigars into their faces. One rudely pushed Bishop O'Conner, mistaking him for the Nuncio. The rioters were chastised on the spot. During the performance of Mass, Bishop O'Conner received a letter from Mayor Riddle, stating that complaint had been made that the Sabbath was about to be violated by firing cannon, music, &c., and asking the Bishop to interpose. The Bishop replied that he had no knowledge of such demonstration, which would be made without his approval. The Mayor responded, in another letter, in which he recognized the right of the movement in honor of the Pope's Ambassador, and assured the Bishop of protection against disorderly and lawless interference.

Halifax News-The Cause of the Humboldt's

Wreck. BOSTON Dec 11, 1853 .- Halifax papers of the Sth are received. Rear Admiral Arthur Panshaw has been appointed to succeed Sir George Seyour as British Naval Commander on the North American and West India stations. The Boscawen is his flag-ship.

The Hafifax Chronicle charges the loss of the steamship Humboldt to an impudent and ignorant fisherman, who boarded her in the character of a pilot, to which he had no claim, and when asked without a bottle by them, in case of sudden sick without a bottle 124, 25 and 50 cents. to show his papers said that he had left them at home. The Chronicle intimates, that if no legal punishment can reach the rogue, an application of Lynch Law would be justifiable in his case.

THRILLING SCENE IN A MENAGERIE. At the Broadway menagerie, last evening, says the Herald of Sunday, a scene occurred which J. J. Lippitt. was not amounced in the programme of performance. At 8 o'clock, as usual Mr Dreisbach entered the dep, in which were a lion, three leopards, a lioness and a Brazilian tiger, for the purpose of exhibition. Scarcely, however, had he commenced the performance, when, for some unorseen cause, the tiger sprang at Mr. Dreisbach The unexpected attack threw him from his feetand the beast instantly fastened his teeth on the breast of Mr. Dreisbach and his claws on other parts of his body. The lioness, observing the assault, took the pert of her master, and pitched into the tiger; but in so doing she unluckily missed the tiger and struck Mr. Dreisback a powerful blow with her paw, which only tended to increase the difficulty. Mr. Moffatt, the principal attendant during the xhibition, kept the other animals back from enering into the melec, as they seemingly felt inclined to do; at the same instant he opened the door, and by main force dragged Mr. Dreisback ience, fifty Delegates to attend the State Conven- from the den, the tiger still maintaining her atown cage, she loosed her hold, sprung into her own apartment, licking her chops, and crouched down in one corner, evidently enjoying the good taste of her fond master. Dissatisfied Fugitive Slaves in Canada. Col. Henry Ward, of Harper's Ferry, Va., bas received a letter dated Chatham, Upper Canada, Oct. 26, from a female slave of his, who, with her two children, ran away about a year ago. The Spirit of Jefferson says she appeals in the strongest terms to her master and mistress to allow her and her children to return and remain with them.

I am sorry that I left. I want to see you all so had, that I don't know what to do. I dream every night about you all, and sometimes I sit down and cry all day and all night because I want to come back again. There is nothing here but hard times and bad darkies, and I want to come back.

COLLISION.

The collision on the Eric Railroad on Thursday night proves to have been more calamitous than was first reported. Thomas Featherton, a brakeman, has since died of his injuries; Mrs. Elizaboth Litte, of Zanesville, Ohio, is so much injured that she is expected to die; a Mrs. Nicholas. of Troy, and a Mrs. Dedrick are in a precarious condition, and about twenty others are more or less injured. The coroner's jury has rendered a verdict charging the accident upon the gross carelessness of those having the emigrant train in charge. The rails of the road were torn up some distance, and the loss to the company independent of damages for personal injuries, will be
