COUNTRY LASSIE AND HER LOVER. "To-morrow, ma, I'm sweet sixteen! And William Grimes, the drover, Has popped the question to me, ma, And wants to be my lover! To-morrow morn, he says, mamma, He's coming here quite early, -To take a pleasant walk with me

Across the field of barley." "You must not go, my daughter dear, There's no use now a talking; You shall not go across the field With William Grimes a walking. To think of his presumption, too, The dirty, ugly drover! I wonder where your pride has gone, To think of such a rover ?"

Old Grimes is dead, you know, mamma, And William is so lonely ; Besides, they say to Grimes' estate That William is the only Surviving heir to all that's left, And that ... v say is nearly A good five thousand pounds, mamma-

About three hundred yearly." "I did not hear, my daughter dear, Your last remark quite clearly ; But William is a clever lad. And no doubt loves you dearly. Remember, then, to-morrow morn, To be up bright and early,

To take a pleasant walk with him

Across the field of barley." SOME MORE OF THEM 'ERE BEANS A legislative assembly, gathered as it is from all quarters and from every profession, must necessarily include all varieties of character, some of a most amusing kind. Several years since, the town of - saw fit to elect a sturdy furmer, whom the love of travel had never led out of the precincts of his native county, to the onerous post of 'Member of the General Court.'

Arrived in Boston, our friend, being somewhat hungry, and desirous of taking something substantial for the stomach's sake,' tound his way into one of our principal hotels just at the dinner hour. He sat down to dinner, and, being requested by the waiter to select from the bill of fare what dish he chose, expressed a desire for some baked beans. This was brought him, and, from the gusto with which it was eaten, evidently suited our Representative. The plate was cleared in an incredibly short space of time, and the attentive waiter was at his side.

'Will you have your plate changed ?' ·What will you have next?' The bill of fare was consulted, and the Parsley, Esq. Wilmington. by his side with the old question. 'Of course,' thought he, 'he'll want some thing else this time.'

·What dish shall I bring you sir? The Representative took up the bill of fare and followed its various items, with his finger, till he came to the end, a process which occupied some ten minutes. He was apparently puzzled, but in a moment his face lighted up, and he said—
I don't care if I take a few more beans!

They were brought, and we need not say, went the way of their predecessors. Perhaps, sir.' said the waiter, as he took away the empty plate, 'you would like some kind of pudding?' We have all kinds.' I don't know,' was the hesitating reply 'have you got any more of them ere beans?'

'Yes, sir.' 'Then I guess you may bring me a few more to finish up with. I don't want any pudding.

For every day of the session our country Representative patronized his favorite dish When, at length, his services were dispensed with, and he returned to his constituents, he was asked how he liked stopping in Boston? 'Boston is a great place,' he exclaimed with enthusiasm; Boston is a great place for baked beans ! - Yankee Blade.

THE OLD SOLDIER'S CONVENTION. To the Editors of the National Intelligencer. representing the surviving soldiers of the war of 1812 assembled at Independence Hall .-The attendance was large. Joel B. Sutherland. Esq. of Philadelphia, was chosen President, and Vice Presidents were selected from each of the States repre-An address was delivered by the President, and a series of resolutions were adopted, setting forth the objects of the meeting These resolutions ask a grant of 160 acres of land to each and all who participated in the war of 1812, whether on land or water and also an extension of the benefits of the Revolutionary pension act to the soldiers and widows of the war of 1812.

The Convention then adjourned to the Chinese Museum, to which they were escorted by a volunteer company. Here large delegations came in from Baltimore and New York, and were welcomed with loud and repeated cheers.

Other resolutions were adopted, more fully stating the objects in view, and giving thanks to various members of Congress and public functionaries, and to the press, for the interest manifested in the subject.

The Convention then took a recess until six o'clock, when it again met, and listened to many enthusiastic and patriotic speeches. It created a solemn impression to see men who forty years ago met, in the buoyancy and bloom of youth, in their country's service, now marked with the furrows of age and care, under the certain and irrepressible feeling that they were, in the language of one of the resolutions, but lingering on the shores of time." soon to be wasted into the ocean of eternity.

The Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," says of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters. "It is seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, to the confidence and patronage of our readers; and therefore when we recom-mend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to or distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long stablished, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself."

"Scott's Weekly," said, Aug 25: "Dr. Hoofland's erman Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent men. rers of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cars of female weakness. Persons of debilitated con "utions will find these Bitters advantage-ous to heir calth as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems." MOXE EVIDENCE.

J. G. Moore. Esq., of the Daily News, said. Oct 31. ng this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of he bowels, and can with truth testify to its efficacy. We have taken the contents of two bottles, and we have derived more benefit from the experiment than we derived previously from years of allophatic treatnent at the hands of our first physicians." Hon. C. D. Hineline, Mayor of the City of Camden. N. J., says:

"Hoopland's Germans Bitters.—We have seen many fluttering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organ, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration, is really surprising It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them in o a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the HENRY'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL, stomach, liver and nervous system, the great majority of real and imaginary deseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all disposed to give a trial-it will recomm

THE BEDINI EXCITEMENT. It was stated under our telegraphic head and should nowhere be tolerated by American freemen, as he is not worthy to breathe the free air of this country, yet he is fered everywhere by the Jesuits, to the great annoyance of the free American citizens.

"Americans I citizens of the greatest and most liberal; Republic on earth, do not disgrace your reputation by tolerating a monster like this Bedini in Your midst. Do not shelter one who lies murdered the patriots of Italy. Give us your co operation and help us to destroy the secret plans of this Roman missionary; the blood of the martyrs of freedom, the tears of widows and orphane, the poor, down trodden people of Italy cry for revenge! Let them have it—drive this monster back to his bloody master that sends him. Come one, come all, and let the cry be beard: Down with Bedini!"

The Wheeling Gazette, which refused to print handbills, says it was got out by per-sons who alleged that they cared nothing about the Nuncio's religion. He was charged with the murder of their brethren in Italy, and hence their indignation. During the whole day on Saturday, the Gazette says, it did not see a Protestant who did not condemn and regret the measure. The editor adds that he himself tore down all the bills he could without attracting attention, or doing anything to exche remark, and he saw many other Protestants do the same thing.

C. MYERS, manufacturer and dealer in Hats, Cars. Canes, and Umbrelias, No. 1 Granite Cathedral in that city had with St. James' Cathedral in that city had been connected with St. James' per at Washington Hall. on Saturday eve ning, for the purpose of niding, by its proceeds, in defraying the expenses incurred in finishing the Cathedral. During the evening a large crowd assembled on the outside, but everyt' ing passed of peaceably, with the xception of the noise created by boye, until the supper was over and the ladies retired to their homes, when the crowd proceeded to the Cathedral. In this connection the Intelligencer says:

"We must however, say that few who went to the Cathedral went with any preconceived determination to act lawlessly. and, that, in our judgment, far the greater part of those who did go, went as spectators. to witness what might happen; and, of the entire assemblage, a large proportion of them were boys. For some time after the arrival at the Cathedral no violence was attempted, but we learn that after a short space of time some persons becoming impatient and inding no one acting further, stones at the windows of the Cathedral, which ND Undersleeves; Linen Habits and Sleeves; resulted in the breakage of panes of glass in two or three of the windows, after which the crowd dispersed without further violence. violence, excepting the very free use of the Anglo Saxon towards the functionaties of the church, from the Pope down." The Nuncio, according to the Gazette, was at the supper. He has since left the city. The papers make no mention of the report of his being burnt in effigy.

GEN. JACKSON AND COL. BENTON. Having recently published an interesting extract touching the character of Gen. Jackson, from Col. Benton's works, "Thirty years in the Senate." probably the re-publication of the following communication written by the Col. forty years age, will be interesting to been for some months brewing between Gen. Jackson and myself produced on Saturday the 4th inst, in the streets of Nashville, the most putrageous uffray ever w-tressed in a ed and Brown Table Damasks and Ditto in Cloths all sizes and qualities; Linen and Cotton Diapers; civilized country. In communicating this of fair to my friends and fellow-citizens, I limit myself to the statement of a few leading facts, the touth of which I am ready to establish by judicial proofs. "1. That myself and my brother, Jesse

To THE PUBLIC, - "A difference which had

Benton, arrived at Nashville on the morning of the affray-and knowing of Gen. Jackson's threats, went and took lodgings in a different house from the one in which he staid on purpose to avoid him. 2. That the General and some of his friends came to the house where we put up. commenced the attack by levelling the pistol at me, when I had no weapon drawn, and advancing upon me at a quick pace, without giving me time to draw one. "3. That seeing this. my brother fired upon Gen. Jackson, when he got within eight or ten leet of me. "4. That four other pistols were fired in quick succession, one by Gen. Jackson at me. two by me at the General, and one by Coffee at me. In the course of this firing General Jackson was brought to the ground, but I rec. ived no hurt. "5 The daggers were then drawn, Col. Coffee and Mr. Alexander Donaldson made and gave me five slight wounds, Captain Hammond and Mr. Stokely Hays engaging my brother, who being still weak from the effect of a severe wound he had lately received in a duel, was not able to resist two men. They got him, down, and while Capt. Hammond beat him on the head to make him lay still, Mr. Hays attempted to stab him, and wounded bim in both arms as he tay on his back, parrying the thrusts with his naked hands. From this situation a generous hearted citizen of Nashville, Mr. Summer, relieved him. Before he came to the ground, my brother chapped a loaded pistol to the breast of Mr. Hays, to blow him through, but it missed fire. "6. My own and my brother's pistols carried two balls each; for it was our intention. if driven to arms, to have no child's play .-The pistols fired at me were so near that the bluze of the muzzle of one of them burnt the sleeve of my cont, and the other aimed at my head, at a fittle more than an arm's length from it.

"7. Capt. Carrol was to have taken part in the affray, but was absent by the permission of General Jackson, as he has since proved by the General's certificate, a certificate which reflects less honor, I know not

-8. That this attack was made upon mein the house where the judge of the district. Mr. Searcy, had his lodgings? So little are the laws and its ministers respected! Nor has the civil authorities yet taken recognizance of this horrible outrage. THOMAS HART BENTON,
