The Commercial.

WILMINGTON. N. C .: TUESDAY JANUARY 24, 1854.

From the Macon Republican THE WIDOWED INEBRIATES LAMENT. I'm thinking on thy smiles, Mary-Thy bright and trusting smile-In the morning of our youth and love, Ere sorrow came-or guile : When thine arms were twined about my neck And mine eyes looked into thine, And the heart that throbbed for me alone, Was melting close to mine.

I see full many & smile, Mary, On young lips beaming bright; And many an eye of light and love, Is flashing in my sight; But the smile is not for my poor heart, And the eye is strange to me, And lonelinses comes o'er my soul When memory turns to thee.

I'm thinking on the night Mayr-The night of grief and shame ; When with drunken ravings on my lips To thee I homeward came. Oh ! the tear was in thine earnest eye, And thy bosom wildly heaved, Yet a smile of love was on thy cheek, The' the heart was sorely grived.

But the smile soon left thy lips, Mary, And thine eye grew dim and sad, For the tempter turned my steps from thee And the wine- cup drove me mad. From the cheek the roses quickly fied, And the ringing laugh was gone, Yet the heart still fondly clung to me, And still kept trusting on.

Oh ! my words were harsh to thee, Mary. For the wine-cup made me wild, And I chid thee when thine eyes were sad, And cursed thee when they smiled ; God knows I loved thee even then, But the fire was in my brain, And the curse of drink was in my heart, To make my love a bane.

T was a pleasant home of ours, Mary, In the spring-time of our life, When I looked upon thy sunny face, And proudly called thee wife; And 'twas plesant when our children played Before our cottage door, But the children sleep with thee, Mary, I shall never see them more.

Thou'rt resting in the church-yard now, And no stone is at thy head, But the Sexton knows a drunkards wife -Sleeps in that lonely bed ; And he says the hand of God, Mary, Will fall with crushing weight, On the wretch who brought thy gently life To its untimely fate.

But he knows not of the broken heart, 1 bear within my breast; Or the heavy load of vain remorse, That will not let me rest; He knows not of the the sleepless pights,

GOING BAIL

Lawyers frequently subject persons who offer themselves for bail to unnecessary badgering. A case of this kind occurred in Superior Court Chambers, New York, not long ago. Old Mr. Jacob Abrams, a man worth a quarter of a milli in of money, offered himself bail for a Jew fur-dealer," who had been arrested under the Stillwell act. The amount of bail required was $4500.

Counsel : ' No sir. it is not sufficient. We have a right to know what this property is.'

Abrams: 'Very well, sir, I've got your own bond and mortgage on the house you lise in, for eight thousand dollars, and I con-sider it worth full the amount of the bail.' [Much laughter, in which the Counsel joined.] Counsel : 'We do not wish to ask any more questions. Mr. Abrams. [To the Judge. We are satisfied with the buil, your honor. This is a true incident. Mr. Abrams had just taken the bond and mortgage from an insurance company who wanted the cash for it.

A HINDOO CAVILLER SILENCED. As Mr. Thomas was one day addressing a crowd of Hindoos, on the banks of the Ganges, he was accosted by a brahmin as follows : 'Sir, don't you say that the devil tempts men to sin ?'

'Yes,' answered the missionary. 'Then,' said the brahmin, 'certainly, the fault is the devil's; the devil, therefore, and not man, ought to suffer the punishment." Just then observing a boat descending the river, Mr. Thomas directed his attention to it, and said-Brahmin, do you see yonder boat ?

· Yes.'

'Suppose I were to send some of my friends to destroy every person on board, and bring me all that is valoable in the boat, who ought to suffer punishment? I, for instructing them, or they for doing the wicked act ?

Why,' answer the brahman, 'you ought all to be put to death together.' Ay.' replied Mr. Thomas, 'if you and the devil sin together, you and the devil will be punished together.' Music rather unfits a man for wrenting with the world. It softens the heart and robs him of suspicion. Show us a flageolet player, and we will show you a man who is 'cheated in his change' every time he goes to market.

To which is added, receipts for the cure of the above diseases, and a treatise on the causes, symptoms aud cure of the Fever and Ague, for twenty-five cents a copy; six copies one dollar; will be for-warded to any part of the United States, by mail, free of postage. Address, postage paid, Cosden 4-Co., Publishers or box 196, Post Office, Philadelphia. "This is, without exception, the most comprehen-sive and intelligible work published on the class of diseases of which it treats. Avoiding all technical terms.it addresses itself to the reason of its readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and no pe rent, however fastidious, can object to placing it in the hands of his sons. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, and with too little breath to puff. and 'too little presumption to impose,' he has offered to the world at the merely nominal price of 25 cents, the fruits of some twenty years most successful prac lice."-HEBALD. "No teacher or parent should be without the knowledge imparted in this invaluable work. It would save years of pain, mortification and serrow to the youth under their charge."-PEOPLE'SADYO

A Presbyterian clercyman in Ohio. in writing of 'Hunter's Medical Manuel, says : "Thousands of our youth. by evil example and the influence of the passions, have been led into the habit of self-pollution without realizing the sin and fearful consequen ces upon themselves and their posterity. The constitutions of thousands who are relaing fam lieshave een enfectied. if not broken down, and they do not know the cause or the cure. Any thing that can be done so to chlighten and influence the public mind as to check, and ultimately to remove this wide-spread source of human wretchedness, would confer the greatest blessing next to the religion of Jesus Christ, on the present and coming generations --Intemperance, (the use of intoxicating drinks,) though it has slain thousands upon thousands, is not a greater scourge to the human race. Accept my thanks in behalf of the afflicted, and believeme, our co-worker in the good work you are so active engaged in."
