From the Philadelphia Inquirer. A THRILLING SCRNE. . DROWNING OF A BALL ON SHIPBOARD.

The following vivid account of the sink-ing of the Royal George, with a ball, in full activity on board, I have translated, for the Inquirer, from the "Forty-Eight Years' Memoirs of a Constitutional Offiser," as extracted into the November number of that most admirable German month ly, "Meyers Monatshefte," published in New

E. J. M. In the summer of 1780, the Royal George, a stately three-decker, of 84 guns, after an absence of two years on a foreign station, east anchor in the Spithead Roads. At the end of a week, which had been employed in removing all traces of her long voyage, and a in thorough cleansing. the Captain issued invitations to the officers of the fleet in the Spithead waters, and to the nobility and gentry of Portsmouth, for a grand ball on board. The interior of the upper deck, freshly painted THE TRI-WEEKLY COMMERCIAL from stem to stern, and elegantly decorated appeared like a floating palace.
The appointed hour for the commence-bor was gradually covered by hundreds of boats, some carrying the invited guests to the Royal George, and others, attracted by curiosity to witness the delicate homage which British naval officers are accustomed to bestow upon beauty. All that the most refined taste could suggest, and the most lavish expenditure procure, had been bestowed on the embellishment of the vessel. The deck, whose entire space was appropriated to the ball, resembled a vast pillared hall, over which, from the masts numberless flags and streamers of every variety of color. Instead of tapestry, the sides were covered with velvets and silk hangings. Among the furniture was to be seen the most precious ivory work, and divans and chairs of rose and sandal woods, as well as all advertisements not immediately concarved and fashioned in a manner to rival nected with their own business, and all excess of the most ingenious Chinese taste. The awning was composed of carpets of the richest Oriental fabric, ornamented with gold and silver embroidery, and the rugs before the state rooms were productions of ly dames. The sideboards glittered with gold and silver vessels, among which was a magnificent vase, set with costly jewels, the gift of an East Indian prince. Otto of roses in crystal jars, from niches expressly made, scattered in profusion its delicious perfume. In a word the whole scene, with its splendid decorations, resembled rather the banqueting room of a royal palace, than the interior of a flag ship.

articles of luxury in the wardrobe of prince-

After the Admiral had cast a last satisfied glance upon the tasteful embellishments, and had passed in review the brilliant preparations, he repaired to the deck, where in state, and surrounded by his officers, as a king by his nobles, he took his post to receive his guests. Whilst a select band of music filled the air with melody from every side there was seen gliding over the smooth waters towards the ship, gaily dressed boats bearing the elite of beauty and nobility from Portsmouth, Portsen, the Isle of Wight, and other neighboring points on the coast. The universal joy of the officers and guests was enhanced by the beauty of the night, not a cloud dimming the radiance of the stars, and not a breath of air ruffling the surface of the

And yet, destruction was maliciously hovering in this hour of festivity, over the finest ship in the fleet. Already death invisibly sat grinning behind the seats of these pleasure devoted guests. Of mutiny there was no apprehension, as the whole crew were all true and loyal, and warmly attached to the commanding officer, nor was there any possibility of a leak, as the utmost precautions had been adopted, and the powder magazine had been additionally secured by triple fastenings. Who could have believed that the swelling of a gentle west wind, would be sufficient to produce a catastrophe, as unparalled in its character as in its awful incidents!

About two hours later, as the ball was in full movement, there arose, not a light breeze, but rather a breath of air, from the south-west, which hardly stirred a curl of hair among the crowd of dancing beauties. The oscillation, which it brought as it stole across the motionless face of the water. appears to have been unnoticed. But, inscrutable fate! This insensible puff of air, not sufficient to draw a sound from the cords of an Æolian harp, by the under swell it created, disturbed the equilibrum of two immense chain anchors which, with some heavy guns, had been stowed in the open ports, and, on account of the calm weather, had not been secured by fastenings. This ponderous mass started from its balance by the heaving of the sea, with lightning speed rolled to the opposite side of the vessel, and in a moment threw the Royal George upon her side.

One heart piercing cry of woe from a thousand woices, a sound before which the stoutest sailor quailed, rose in frightful dissonance, and broke upon the startled ears of those in the surrounding ships, while echo bore the death wail to the adjacent coasts, where it rolled along, like a thunder peal, deadening the roar of the surf, and striking with terror the shuddering in-

The lofty masts immediately bowed to the surface of the sea, which at first, as it were overawed by the sudden cessation of the prevailing joy, receded in a wide cir-cle, and then as quickly returned, as if to the execution of a fearful judgment, pouring over the high bulwarks, and through the ports into the innermost recesses. Once more the stately fabric, in all its imposing mass, upon the restoration for a moment of its lost balance through the settling water, some erect, as if to display in full majesty the imposing grandeur of its form. Proudly stretched the lofty masts their extended reamors, already soaked by the over-deeper sinking, began, in giddy whirls, a horror-striking dance, -a few seconds more, and it shot, with its thousands of human beings, in vain with deathly pallid and agonized countenances imploring heaven for deliverance, and chinging convulsively to the shrouds, into the gaping abyss. The foaming sea, with loud and terrible gurgle, forever closed over the black, yawning gulf, and all was silent !

A few moments sufficed to complete the terrific catastrophe. From all the neighboring vessels, boats were sent to attempt to save some of the drowning thousands, but the vast whirlpool caused by the sink ing ship, prevented a near approach Only a few of the most experienced sailors, who climbed to the topmasts, as the Royal George for the last time heaved erect, were enabled to save themselves by swimming All the rest, in the midst of a jubilee of pleasure, fell a prey to the drowning sea.

CELEBRATED GERMAN RITTERS.

CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS, PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, No. 120 Arch street. Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelli, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most scarching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, withal, safe, cerain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED. The "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," says of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters. "It is seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, to the confidence and patronage of our readers; and therefore when we recomend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish It to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself."

"Scott's Weekly," said, Aug. 25: "Dr. Hoofland's erman Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent men. acre of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cares of female weakness. Persons of detiliated con vitations will find these Bitters advantageous to heir calth as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

MOXE EVIDENCE. I. G. Moore, Esq , of the Daily News, said, Oct 31. "Da. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. - We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn disease of e bowels, and can with truth testify to its efficacy. We have taken the contents of two bottles, and we have derived more benefit from the experiment than we derived previously from years of allophatic (reat-ment at the hands of our first physicians,"

Hon. C. D. Hineline, Mayor of the City of Camden. N. J., says:
"Hoofland's Germans Bitters.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organ, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration, is really surprising calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them in to a state of repose, making sleep refreshing. If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the tomach, liver and nervous system, the great majority of real and imaginary deseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition and you can bid defi-ance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial-it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit."

Quackery. DR. 1. B. SMITH has for many years devoted his whole attention to the treatment of Private complaints, in all their varied and complicated forms. His great success in those long standing and difficult cases, such as were formerly considered incurable, is sufficient to commend him to the public as worthy of the extensive patronage he has received. Within the last eight years, Dr. S. has treated more than 29,500 cases of Private Complaints, In their different forms and stages; a practice which no doubt exceeds that of all other physicians now advertising in Baltimore, and not a single case is known where his directions were strictly followed and medicines taken at reasonable time, without and medicines taken at reasonable time, without effecting a radical and permanent cure; therefore, persons afflicted with diseases of the above nature, no matter how difficult or long standing the case may be," would do well to call on Dr. Smith, at his office, No. 16, South Frederick St., and if not effectually relieved no remuneration will be required for his services. His medicines are free from Mercury and all mineral poisons; put ug in a next and comand all mineral poisons; put up in a neat and com-pact form, and may be taken in a public or private pact form, and may be taken in a public or private house, or while travelling, without exposure or hindrance from business, and except in cases of viocent inflammation, no change of diet is necessary.

STRICTURES.—Dr. Smith has discovered a new method by which he can cure the worst form of stricture and that without pain or inconvenience to the patient. Irritation of the uretha, or prostrate glands, or neck of the bladder, is sometimes mistaken strictures by general practitioners or charlaten.

HENRY'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL, PURELY VEGETABLE IN ITS COMPOSITION.

THIS invaluable Cordial, is extracted from Herbs and Roots, which have been found after years be possessed of qualities most beneficial in the diseases for which it, is recommended, and hence whilst it is presented to the public, as an efficater on which reliance may be placed as to itsafety. In cases of Impotency, Hoemorrhages, Disordered Sterilly, Menstruation. or Suppression of the Menses, Fluor Albus or Whites, or for DEBILITY rising from any cause, such as weakness from sick ness, where the patient has been confined to bed for ome time, for Femalesafter Confinement, Abertion or Miscarriage, this Cordial cannot be excelled in its salutary effects: or in loss of Muscular Energy, Irritability, Physical Prostration, Seminal Weak ness, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Sluggishness, Decay of the Procreative Functions, Neryousness, &c., where a Toxic Medicine is required. t will be foundequal, if not superior to any Comround ever used.

TO FEMALES.

Henry's Invigorating Cordial, is one of the most invaluable Medicines in the many Complaints to which Femalas are subject. It assists nature to brace the whole system, check excesses, and creates renewed health and happiness. Less suffering, discase and unhappinessamong Ladies would exist, were they generally to adopt the use of this C rdial. Ladies who are debilitated by those obstructions which females are liable to, are restored by the use of a bottle or two, to bloom and to vigor. YOUNG MEN.

That solitary practice, so fatal to the existence of man and it is the young who are most apt to become its victims, from an ignorence of the danger to which they subject themselves, causes NERVOUS DEBILITY,

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured t. 2. selves by private and improper indulgences, the 3 is cret and solitary habit which rules both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society. These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. MENTALLY. - The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil-Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust. Love of Soliude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced Thousands of persons, of all ages, can now judge what is the cause of their declining health. Losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale and emaciated, have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REM-EDY FOR GENITAL DEBILITY. This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most ner-yous and debilitated, many of whom had lost all hones, and been abandoned to die. By its complet invigoration of the Nervous System, the whole functions, and the fallen fabric of life rai beauty, consistency, and duration, upon the ruins of an emaciated and premature decline to sound and pristine health. Oh, how hap y have hundreds of misguided youths been made who have been suddenly restored to health, from the devastations those terrific maladies which result from indisction. Such persons, before contemplating MARRIAGE.
