PAYETTEVILLE MARKET. March 4.- The North Carolinian reports:

Little alteration to make in prices this week .-Tr ade dull. It will be seen that the price of Beef, on the hoof, has considerably advanced. And the butch ers inform us that the article is very scarce and much wanted. Bacon, 10 a 104; Cotton, 81 a 94; Flour, $6 a 7; Corn, $1,10 a 1,14; Lard, 84 a 10; Butter, 20.

CHARLESTON MARKET. March 3.-Rough Rice .- The receipts since our last comprise 39,000 bushels, about 20 000 bushels of which have been sold. Prices have ranged from 96c. up to $1 15 as in quality. Among the sales were several parcels of prime quality which brought $1 14 and $1,15 per bushel.

Rice.-There has been a moderately fair de mand for this article during the week, and the bulk of the receipts, which comprise 3800 tierces have changed hands. The market at times has been depressed, and the qualities suitable for the West India markets and for Coastwise shipmen. have been sold at to decline on the prices current at the close of the previous week, while the better sorts have sustained their former position. The sales have been made at prices ranging from 3) a $4) per hundred, but the bulk of transactions have been within the range of 3 13 15 a 34 per hundred. The subjoined quotations will give a tair index of the state, of the market at the close of the week, viz : - Ordinary to Fair 31 a 31. Good to Prime, 4 a 44.

Corn. - The receipts since our last have added about 15 000 bushels to a stock which before this secession, was more than equal to the demand Which has depressed the market, and prices have further decline. We have reduced our quotations to correspond with this state of things, and those we offer will show the state of the market at the close of business. Some 10,000 bushels of the receipts were from North Carolina, and were sold principally at 90c. Country commands from 91 o 93c., the latter price, however, is an extrem-

Cotton - There was quite an active demand to this article to-day, which resulted in the sale of fully 2800 bales, at a range of prices well up to those current at the close of the week. The transactions comprise 53 bales at 71; a 101.
