

GENERAL INFORMATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1884.

FOR GOVERNOR.
GEN. ALFRED DOCKERY.

PANORAMA OF NIAGARA.

Franklin's Panorama of Niagara, now on exhibition at the Theatre, has been spoken of as the highest in the world. It has been so long on the way, it has so many of the things which will afford gratification to the eye, that it is not a mere picture, but a scene, and a scene of such grandeur, that it is a grand work of art. It is a grand work of art. It is a grand work of art.

TIPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS.

In our issue from Charleston, dated April 10th, in the 6th line, "right of his opinion," should read "right." In the 6th line, "insignificant a Southern mind," should read "entirely."

CENSUS.

Any suggestions which may be induced by an examination of the tables of the United States Census for this County, should be forwarded at an early day, to Mr. DeBow, Superintendent of the Census Office at Washington, with a view to the correctness of other publications from that office.

SALE OF THE STEAMERS.

The Steamers Gladstone, Gov. Dudley, Wilmington, and C. Vanderhilt, belonging to the Wilmington & Raleigh Railroad Company, were sold Thursday in Charleston, pursuant to advertisement. We received a telegraphic dispatch to the following effect:

Gladstone, eighteen thousand eight hundred dollars; bought by P. K. Dickinson, Esq., of this town.

Gov. Dudley, fifteen thousand six hundred dollars; Commercial Insurance Company of Charleston.

Wilmington, twelve thousand dollars, F. C. Mathison, Esq., Charleston.

C. Vanderhilt, ten thousand one hundred dollars; P. K. Dickinson, Esq., Wilmington.

Total for the four steamers, $66,000.

The Company's Wharf in Charleston was offered for sale, but was bid in at $80,000.

FROM THE EDITOR.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 12, 1884.

In Convention, on yesterday, there was a good deal of business done, but chiefly consisting of Resolutions offered by the Delegates of the different States, which were referred to the General Committee. Some short speeches were made, among which was a good one from Mr. Metz, of Virginia, on steam communication with Europe. Mr. Marshall of Mississippi made quite a brilliant effort, on the subject of the General Interests of the South, and the favorable results of Southern Conventions. Mr. Brown, of Tennessee, in response to a general call addressed the Convention in quite a short speech.

On to-day, Resolutions were offered and submitted, as on yesterday. The chief object of attention was the subject of the Pacific Rail Road, upon which several distinguished speakers addressed the meeting, viz: Messrs. Conner, of Kentucky; Pike of Arkansas; and Gen. Winflow, of Tennessee, and Dr. J. M. Owsen, of Mississippi. The subject of the Pacific Rail Road, and the subject of the Conventions, were the main topics of the Convention.

This Convention is one of the most respectable bodies of men ever assembled in any country, in regard to intelligence, and, as far as can be judged from appearance and deportment, moral rectitude and propriety.

I visited Charleston College, a handsome building on College street, this morning. It is a vacation. We looked through the College Museum, in which is a very large collection of the "stuffed" inhabitants of the Forest, the Ocean and the Air, and a full collection of minerals. There is a Box Constructor, 20 to 25 feet long; also, a Turtle caught in Charleston Harbor about a year ago, 10 feet long. Both animals are large in proportion to length.

The Military Hall, on Wentworth street, is a large and handsome building. The Hall, in its preparations are made for the night, is about 80 feet long, and is beautifully dressed and adorned. The supper is to be given in a temporary building erected contiguous to the Hall, 110 feet in length and 40 feet wide.

For a description of this place, with which I was much pleased, I am indebted, in part to the Mercury. It is draped over with rich striped cambric, (the colors of the flag of the Union, surmounted by a blue field, spangled with 31 stars), which completely covers the walls and ceiling. "In the centre is placed a splendid gas illumination, representing the sun, and round the hall by each window is a handsome row of lamps, each set forming the name of some Southern and Western State. Above the arms of each State with festoons, shrubs and flowers. The floor is covered with fifteen richly painted landscapes, the whole of which are emblematic of the States represented by the Delegates. At the end of the room are placed three handsome paintings of great artistic merit, the subject of each having reference to the occasion. Rich couches like the walls, white beautiful shrubs and flowers shed fragrance and coolness over the whole scene. The sapper and withdrawing rooms are also elaborate in design and execution, and all seem arranged to render the Convention all a festival alike worthy of our country, and our distinguished guests."

It is difficult to describe the magnificence of its appearance, I am told, when lighted up.

The Artesian Well, on corner of Meeting and Wentworth, has been sunk 1200 feet. The operation is at present suspended, for want of augers, &c., but will be resumed with hope of success.

The Citizens Market is about 700 feet in length, running from Meeting, past Church and State streets, nearly to the Bay. There is a market near the Neck, somewhat of a private affair, about one-third or fourth as large as this.

In the Citizens Market this morning I found 600 lbs for sale at the following prices: Beef, from 12 to 14 cents per lb.; Mutton, Lamb and Veil, 16 to 22; Pork, 18; Turkey, 37; The two first of the 6 divisions of the market are occupied with fresh meat. Two others compose the Vegetable market, and some meat, part of which was almost vacant. The prices were: Peas, 75 cents a peck; New Irish Potatoes, very good, 31.75 a peck; The Fish is the Fish market, and the 6th the Bank House. Fish, very fine Walleye, 45 to 75 cents a bush; a basket of good size; smaller bunches 25 cents. There is not a very material difference between this and the Wilmington market, in general. Some articles are higher here at this time. On the whole, the market is a very good one for a population of about 55 or 60,000.

There is a Fish market building at the Dock. One of those incidents very common in the history of the Roman Catholic Church happened in this city about three weeks ago. A widow lady of that Church recently died, bequeathing in her will $20,000 in money and $4000 in other real estate to two Nieces, who stood next in line of the bequest of that estate. After death it was discovered that she had made another Will, giving all to the Church. It is reported that the Will which she made in the City of Rome, and which was made after the woman became speechless. Of course, the Priest who attended her are responsible for this fraud and robbery. The gentleman who has the property in charge refused to give it up, till the evidences of illegality may be given to set aside the latter. He is a Catholic, but a honest man and a Christian. What will be the result, it is difficult to say.

I omitted to mention, in its proper place, that among the most distinguished members of the Convention, whose presence was a gratification to the North Carolina Delegation, was Gov. W. D. MOSELEY, of Florida. Many of us remember him with esteem and affection, while a citizen of Wilmington, a long time ago—and others have heard of and admired his character and history.

I was invited to examine the building on Society Street used as a High School. It is a large and handsome cemented building, with corinthian columns. It has about 100 scholars. The Principal is Mr. Henry M. Burns, A. M., a distinguished scholar and estimable citizen—a member of the Presbyterian Church.

The list of the North Carolina Delegation, which has heretofore appeared, is imperfect. The following, I believe quite correct:

MRs. Stowe and the Darkies Falling Out.

At a late meeting of what they call in that State, "the Massachusetts State Council of Colored Americans," the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That when Mrs. Stowe promised the colored people of this country a large donation from the funds collected from her friends and ours, for the establishment of a School adapted to our wants, we rejoiced in the hope of great and lasting good to our race from that noble enterprise.

Resolved, That her late refusal to make that contribution in aid of our elevation, has filled us with unfeigned regret and mortification, and compelled us to believe that she has been actuated by other influences than the dictates of her own good heart.

SIZE OF OUR GREAT LAKES.

The latest measurements of our fresh water seas are these:

The greatest length of Lake Superior is 335 miles; its greatest breadth is 160 miles; mean depth 988 feet; elevation 627 feet; area 32,000 square miles.

The greatest length of Lake Michigan is 360 miles; its greatest breadth is 108 miles; mean depth 900 feet; elevation 587 feet, area 29,000 square miles.

The greatest length of Lake Huron is 200 miles; its greatest breadth is 180 miles; mean depth 900 feet; elevation 574 feet; area 20,000 square miles.

The greatest length of Lake Erie is 250 miles; its greatest breadth is 80 miles; its mean depth is 84 feet; elevation 555 feet; area 6,000 square miles.

The greatest length of Lake Ontario is 180 miles; its greatest breadth 65 miles; its mean depth is 500 feet; elevation 202 feet; area 8,000 square miles.

The total length of all five is 1585 miles; covering an area altogether of upward of 90,000 square miles.

A Swindler to the Tune of Fifty Dollars.

An elderly gentleman by the name of Browder, who arrived in Richmond yesterday morning in the Southern train, was swindled out of $50 in the following manner: while going over to the Petersburg depot, a man fell in with him near the packet office, and commenced conversation with him about his being lame, leading him to believe he was from Petersburg. After they arrived at the depot, a second man came up, and began to talk to the first about making a certain bet. One then observed to the other that he would bet him and turned to the old gentleman and asked him to lend him a little money. Mr. Browder readily agreed to lend it, and the other finding him willing to do so proposed to borrow fifty dollars, at the same time handing him his watch to hold, till he could step into the Moore, Vernon house and procure some change. He stated that the watch was a valuable one, and worth double the amount he borrowed. He then left Mr. B., sitting in the cars, and one of the parties went one way and the other in a different direction, leaving the old gentleman with a watch to hold not worth fifty cents.

Richmond Penny Post.

The negro population of Philadelphia occasionally pass all bounds of propriety and respect, and indulge in the most frantic behavior. During the passage of a negro funeral through the streets of that city a few days since, two parties of "colored society," respectively calling themselves "up towners" and "down towners," who had monopolized a great portion of the thoroughfare, got into a wrangle, which ended in a desperate struggle. Clubs were freely used over each other's devoted heads; considerable blood was spilled, but no bones were broken. The police arrived, and the belligerents stopped their disgraceful proceedings.

A case bearing some resemblance to the Gardner case has occurred in London. Frederick A. Molyneux, formerly a member of Parliament, was committed to prison on a charge of forging papers of attorney, and obtaining $25,000 stock from the Bank of England. Being unable to procure bail he was committed, and was found dead in his cell.

INQUEST.

Coroner's inquest on a request on Monday last, at the house of Mr. J. W. Bland, on the body of a man named William, who was shot on Monday, 9th inst., "Death by the violation of God's law."

SANTA ANNA'S WIFE.

The statement that Santa Anna married a Miss Leaphigh, a native of Western, Albany county, New York, is denied. The wife of the Mexican Chief is known to be a Mexican lady of Spanish extraction. He married her some ten or twelve years ago, when she was not out of her teens.—She is represented as very beautiful, highly accomplished, and of most commanding presence.—The story of his marrying, a New York lady probably arose out of the fact that Don Lorenzo do Zavala, formerly Governor of the city of Mexico, married a Miss Amanda West, of Western, some time about the year 1825. He subsequently returned to a large fortune in the State of Texas lands, and finally settled on a rich plantation on the Rio Trinidad where he died, leaving his widow with four children. A fine river in Texas now bears his name. Mrs. Zavala's mother, previous to the first visit of the Don to this country, married a second husband, a German, named Leaphigh, in Western.

LUDWIG'S MISCHIEF.

The following "April incident" is related in the Knickerbocker, as having occurred to a lady of respectability in Brooklyn:—"The lady has a charming little boy, very obedient, imitative and active. The child had noticed the postman constantly leaving letters, and moving off quick; and he thought it would be a very fine thing to become a postman. So he one day went to his mamma's wardrobe, and took out some twenty-five or thirty letters, tied them up and walked forth, leaving no sign of his having been there. Next evening he brought her an open letter, which she said somebody had left at her door; but what was her astonishment when visiting him arrived, for another and another lady coming in, all bringing open letters, until her ample parlor was completely crammed! You need not doubt the mirth and fun grew fast and furious, as each lady entered with the same tale, and the little postman was elated beyond measure to find what a capital postman he was; but the best of the fun was, that every lady, one and all, asserted she had not unfolded or read one word."

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—THE SENATE, after disposing of the usual morning business, yielded to a request of Mr. Badger to defer the consideration of Executive business that the bill allowing a credit for duties on railroad iron might be considered; and this bill having been taken up, it led to a discussion which occupied the remainder of the day. Its further consideration was then postponed to the 24th instant.

In the House of Representatives Mr. Bennett's bill, granting lands equally to the several States, came up for consideration; and after an unfruitful motion to lay it upon the table, it was postponed for two weeks.

The House resumed in Committee of the Whole, the consideration of the Civil and Diplomatic Appropriation bill, but made no progress thereon. Mr. Cullum, of Tennessee, spoke at length on the Nebraska bill, considering it in the aspect of an attempted repudiation of the obligations of some of the most distinguished men of the country, and denying that the people of the South had any objection to the measure from their own representatives or desired it at the hands of a Northern champion.

The land graduation bill was postponed, and business on the Speaker's table was considered and referred.

A FEMALE HIGHWAY ROBBER.

On Saturday evening last says the N. Y. Evening Post, as Mr. J. W. Branwood was passing the corner of Thames and Greenwich streets, he was accosted by a woman, who asked him for a cent. He was about complying with her request, when he was suddenly seized from behind by two men who held him while the woman robbed him of a wallet containing $8.75 and some other articles, and all three then ran off. He immediately gave an alarm, but before the services of a policeman could be had, the thieves escaped. The woman was seen soon after in Greenwich street, and arrested, and on her person, was found nearly all of the stolen articles. She was committed to the city prison by Justice Bogard.

Colonel Watkins, of the ill-fated steamer San Francisco, who resides at Jamaica Plain, near Boston, had occasion, lately, to sell his furniture at auction, which attracted a large number of persons. A gentleman from the North informs the Richmond Enquirer that everything sold brought enormous prices; that $1 a piece was given for small plates; a common cork screw worth about six pence sold for $4—a tea-set of India china (incomplete) brought $20. Two small cruetes with open cases, brought $4 each! People were crazy to obtain something else belonging to so celebrated a man. It is calculated that the entire furniture, originally worth $1000, sold for over $4000.

LONG JOHN WENTWORTH.

It having been stated that John Wentworth was a journeyman printer when he first went to Chicago some years ago, the Toledo Blade denies it, and says that he was nothing but a lawyer, yet as he was an ambitious chap and wanted to come up into the world he allowed the impression to go abroad that he was a printer for the respectability of the thing! His plan operated successfully, for he amassed a fortune of $200,000, and has been five times elected to Congress.

A man named Jacob Johnson, about thirty years of age, married a lady in Portland, Maine, on the 15th day of December, 1849, with whom he lived up to September, 1852, when he disappeared. He went to Portsmouth, Virginia, where he attempted to marry another lady, but the fact of his already having a wife was discovered, and he left that place. On the 8th day of September last he was joined in wedlock to a lady of Baltimore. The fact of his former marriage was discovered on the third day after the marriage, and the father of the second wife commenced an investigation. He was tried in the Baltimore circuit court, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for seven years two months and eight days. Both his wives were in court, and were much affected at their exposure.

ACCIDENT.

We learn that the mail train on the Raleigh and Gaston Road on Tuesday last ran over a man who was stretched across the road about six miles this side of Littleton Depot. He was terribly mangled, both of his legs being cut off and his skull cut in twain. Some suspicion is entertained that he may have been murdered and then placed across the track.—Rel. Star.

OUR CONSUL AT LONDON.

A letter published in the London papers, signed by Kenneth Maclean, and Lorda Hollin, and addressed to George N. Sanders, expresses their regret at the "astounding and unexpected" news that the United States Senate had refused to confirm his nomination to the United States Consulate at London. They seem to labor under the impression that it will have a disastrous effect on the Republic's cause throughout Europe; and therefore they express the hope that the Senate may be induced to reconsider its action.

WAKE-UP FOR SURE.

The Tribunal adjourned late on Saturday night, after having disposed of a large amount of business.

The trial, which was progressing at the time of our last going to Press, of Lundy Typpit and W. Keith, as accessories to the murder of Napoleon Bonaparte, resulted in their conviction for Manslaughter. They were both branded and sentenced to imprisonment,—the former, (on account of his physical infirmities,) for three months only; the latter, for twelve months. The trial of Balen Keith, the principal in the murder, will probably take place in Franklin, during the present week.

Judge Caldwell presided with that ability and urbanity, which have won for him so elevated a reputation as a Judge. Attorney General Ransom also discharged his duties with a zeal and a fidelity, un surpassed by none of his predecessors.

THE NEXT STATE FAIR.

We are gratified to learn that the State Agricultural Fair have appropriated the liberal sum of $2000 for the improvement of the Fair Grounds near this city, and proper order for the next Annual Exhibition, in October.—

A COSTLY BUSINESS.

A man named Strong made use of seven poor oaths in a magistrate's office at Wilmington. For each day's ago, for each of which he was fined 50 cents. This so enraged him that he gave his tongue such loose reign it could not be stopped until the justice put on another face, and ordered him to be committed. Finding it to be a rather costly business, he "knocked under," paid the fines, and was released.

The Progress of Medical Science. We have just examined a new and marked evidence of this nature, in a compound from the East, prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, Mass. It is a deep Chemist, and combines the constituents of this remedy in strict accordance with chemical principles. There is nothing secret about it, but the whole is put on another face, and published and made known to the Medical Profession. We have the Formula with full particulars, in the Doctor's own hand writing, and must in sincerity give it and the medicine, that they show a skill and intrinsic merit, which is worthy of all commendation. The medicine has been in use in the throat and lungs, being fully tested by all the Medical Colleges and most of our eminent Medical men, and is as far as I know highly applauded by them.

While, therefore, I am most heartily opposed to all the Medical Colleges and most of our eminent Medical men, and in my capacity of Physician, properly recommend the Cherry Pectoral to all.

HENRY'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

The merits of this purely vegetable extract for the removal and cure of physical prostration, general debility, nervous affections, &c. are fully described in another column of this paper, to which the reader is referred. $2 per bottle. 3 bottles for $5. 6 bottles for $9. $16 per dozen. Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass. Sole Agent, N. Y. No. 23, South Street, below Elmhurst, Philadelphia, Pa. TO WHOM ALL ORDERS MUST BE AD-DRESSED. Retail Sale by all respectable Druggists and Merchants throughout the country.

REMEDIES.

WORTHY THE ATTENTION OF ALL AS THEY CAN BE RELIED ON.

THE preparations of Dr. J. S. Rose each give a certain statement of the result of the demand made upon the Emperor Soudano by the French Admiral. The demand was for lack indemnity money to the amount of $160,000, with the threat of bombardment if it was not paid. The writer states that the money was paid after which the French Admiral saluted the Haytian flag. The foreign Consuls did not side with the Emperor in the matter.

A YOUNG FEMALE IN PANTS AND TROUBLE.

A young girl in Boston, gratified her fancy on Thursday evening by arraying herself in male attire and mingling in the sports of that City. At a little past midnight she returned home, where her mother refused to admit her, and watchman Adams took her to the C. nro watch house where her penitence procured for her, after a suitable reprimand, permission to go home under the escort of the watchman.

AN OBEDIENT SOLDIER.

On Saturday last, a soldier connected with the Charleston Navy Yard, entered a shop where liquor was vended in that city and walking up to the bar, began to fumble for a fourpence while waiting for the bar-tender, who was busy in another part of the store. He had just secured his money, when a woman came in, and walking up behind him, sleeping him on the shoulder and shouted, "March!" The soldier turned to see who gave this order, and recognising his wife as the giver of the command, without speaking a single word, turned on his heel, and marched out of the door as straight as though under martial command.

MINING IN CALIFORNIA.

The last number of the Sacramento Journal says:—"During the past few days we have conversed with numerous practical miners and others, from various parts of the mountains, all of whom concur in the opinion that a golden harvest is being gathered, as rich as the mines of California have ever yielded in former years. Indeed, so rapidly is the dust accumulated, there would seem to be a good prospect that the time lost during the early fall and winter will be amply repaid in the course of a very few months from this time. The effects of the miners' success are already apparent in the cities; business is improving rapidly, and after the lapse of a short time we shall hear no more complaints from merchants, traders or others."

The last number of the Sacramento Journal says:—"During the past few days we have conversed with numerous practical miners and others, from various parts of the mountains, all of whom concur in the opinion that a golden harvest is being gathered, as rich as the mines of California have ever yielded in former years. Indeed, so rapidly is the dust accumulated, there would seem to be a good prospect that the time lost during the early fall and winter will be amply repaid in the course of a very few months from this time. The effects of the miners' success are already apparent in the cities; business is improving rapidly, and after the lapse of a short time we shall hear no more complaints from merchants, traders or others."
