CHOWAN INSTITUTE. We have received a handsome pamphlet catalogue of Chewan Female Collegiate Institute, for the acasion of 1853-'54, with a report of the course of studies &c. We have had occasion to notice this school several times. It is located in one of the most healthful sections of eastern N. Carolina, and in a community distinguished for It's moral character.

SOUTHERN PRESSES These Southern preases which sneer at the Commercial Convention held in Charleston last week and make other unlavorable intimations relative to an assembly of which any nation on earth might be proud, put themselves to a great deal of unnecessary trouble. They will find a ticles in the Tribune and other abolition and free soil papers of the northern States, exactly suited to their views and notions.

THE NEBRASKA BILL.

No little pains is taken by several papers, and among others the National Intelligencer, to show the world how unpopular the Nebraska Bill is in the northern and western sections of the Unicn. by quoting matter that may operate against its popularity. The Journal of Commerce gives us an account of the voice of the States affected by the measure.

"Both branches of the Illinois Legislature, some time since passed resolutions in favor of the Nebraska Bill. The Ohio Senate, by a handsome majority, laid on the table resolutions in opposition to the bill, and both branches of the same Legislature concurred in electing to the. United States Senate a man (George E. Pugh) who is warmly in favor of the bill, in place of Salmon P. Chase, Free Soiler, who is as warmly opposed to. it. The Senate of Wisconsin indefinitely postponed resolutions instructing or requesting the members of Congress from that State to oppose the bill. Those are all the North-western States that have taken any legislative action on the subject. From what we hear from Michigan, Indiana and Iowa, we believe that all those States are in favor of the bill,-or at least not opposed to it,-but their Legislatures are not now in session. Thus it appears probable that all the States covered by the anti-slavery Ordinance of 1787, and all the free States covered by the Missouri Compromise. are content with the bill."

We like the manner in which the Raleigh conventions has been very large and increases as- street. are constrained to doubt whether they will accomplish much good for the South, though we trust necessary for luxury or for comfort; if we can manufacture out of the raw materials we now conveyed to jail. . send abroad, such articles as we now get from the North or from foreign countries; if these and other results we might enumerate, could be brot' about by these conventions, then their assembling would not be in vain."

SOUTHERN RIGHTS. seem to be somewhat at a loss know what Southern Rights mean. Partizans, who want office, and desire to keep the people ander the Yoke of Democracy or Whiggery, as the case may be, in order to chew the cud of official composure, under the wing of the General Government, express no inconsiderable alarm at the mention of these words. We can tell the ignorant and remind the better informed of their import. It is nothing more nor less than the Constitution of our Fathers-the founders of the Republic .-Nothing more. They do not mean "compromises" outside of the Constitution, which are but a political hocuspocus, manufactured for partizan purposes.

The following paragraphs, from a Washington letter gives, we believe, the true character of the policy of the Administration :

"It is no part of the policy of the present Admin stration to plunge Mexico into a state of an archy and confusion, even if it can be done by withholding from her that justice which, though due to her, she may be unable to enforce by her

There, in an ostensibly inadvertent way, a game of some kind for variety was mentioned by the young man from City Point. It was with seemang reluctance, that the villians who laid the plot, engaged in the play. But the finale of the matter is, the gentleman from City Point lost nearly $200, and the Chesterfield novice about $70 more. When the cars left for Richmond Sunday evening, the gamblers persnaded their victims to accompany them there, and under the pretense of going about town, the reluctant genthemen were lost sight of entirely, without any probability of obtaining redress.

IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE WAR DECLARED AGAINST RUSSIA BY GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE.

Two Elverpool steamers, bringing late European news, arrived on Friday-the Hermann, at New York, and the America, at Halifax. The latest date is to the 1st of April.

By these arrivals we have the important intelli gence that war against Russia has been Tormally declared by Great Britain and France. Under these declarations, however, active hostilities are not to commence until the 30th of this month. It is barely possible that this delay may yet afford an opportunity for a pacific settlement of the pending difficulties, though we confess we do not expect | lent establishment was well represented.

The vote for President was as follows ;

THE BULLETIN.

contains an article which deserves some notice at our hands. It is headed : " Arrest of a Preacher The Editors say : " The good , people of North Carolina have surely fallen upon evil times "-" Hard Shell " Baptist preacher, who killed Lassiter in Hyde county, and upon his conviction, made an attempt upon the life of one of the prosecuting attorneys, and then shot himself. "Scarcely " say they " has the excitement created by this horrible tragedy subsided, ere another reverend gentleman commits a grave offence, and is transferred from the altar to the jail. We allude to the arrest of Reverend Thales McDonald of Davidson county, upon the charge of forgery." They then draw up an account of the case from the statement contained in the Salisbury Watchman; swelling and enlarging it, evidently endeavoring to make as much capital out of it as possible. Towards the conclusion of the article they sneeringly ask : " What must be the moral condition of flocks over which such pastors as Carawan and McDonald have presided."

We are not to be understood to enter as the apologist of either Carawan or McDonald. We go as far as he who goes farthest in condemnation of vice and crime in high places as well as low; but there is a spirit breathing through this article, if we have not greatly mistaken it, which more plainly reveals, perhaps, than was intended, the feeling of its author, as with "exultation and triumph, they appear to be directing a blow at the altar, rather than those who minister at it. The main intention, however, of this notice on our part, of the Bulletin's article, is to correct the impression which the last quotation from it is

With reference to the moral condition of Carawan's flock, we know nothing, and consequently have nothing to say. As for McDonald, he has not had charge of any flock for more than a dozen years. His friends believe that if he had remained in his Master's work, the regular pastorate, he would to-day have stood in his integrity as a minister of Jesus Christ. One of the immediate disciples of Christ betrayed him; another denied him; but still the Gospel triumphed over all opposition ; and though Carawan and McDon-

A FREE GOSPEL. The Louisville Examiner tells a story of church member who had always been more remarkable for opening his mouth to say amen than opening his purse. He had, on one occasion, taken his usual place near the preacher's stand, and was making his response with great admiration .--After a burst of burning eloquence from the preacher, he clasped his hands, and cried out in a kind of eestacy, "Yes, thank God! I have been a Christian for twenty-five-years, and it hasn't cost me twenty-five cents !" "Bless your stingy soul!" was the preacher's emphatic reply.

The Germans and French Catholics say the Judge favored the Jesuit party, and appointed a majori y of the arbiters on that side. The party opposed to the Bishop among the trustees refused to give up the church, and the Judge committed them for contempt to prison.

American Catholics were invited to participate in the meeting, and all who were opposed to the iron rule of the Jesuits and foreign priesthood .-Strong resolutions were passed, and speeches delivered in German, French and English. The affair creates much excitement.
