A "PALPABLE HIT" DEFINED. The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce narrates what he calls a "passage at arms," a day or two since. I remained ring himg But the spectators interfered now, and quickly rescued the fugitive, and pulled his pursuers from their horses and set them to fleeing in turn, while your COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD their prisoner was set free. Then were seen four effigies (of Pierce, Douglas, Loring, and Hallett) slowly borne along; and the cough subsided, and on using ten bottles I was restored to perfect health. I feel very grateto the mournful tolling of the bell, to a gallows erected in the wide angle of the street, where they were suspended by debted for this great change, and am happy to say that I am now enjoying as good health as I ever the neck 'until dead.' The French army, under Baraguay d'Hilliers, was embarking in English ships from Cherbourg for Finland.

Napier was in line of battle before Gronstradt, and had exchanged shots, but nothing decisive had occurred.

There had been some fighting at Sebastopol between eight Russian steamers and three English steamers, the latter being considerably damaged. The Russians lost two thousand killed, but made good their retreat. Greece continued quiet.

'The insurrection in Spain is formidable. The insurgents maintain themselves, notwithstanding the battle ucar Madrid.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR. Prince Gortschakoff (not general) arrived at Vienna on the 4th of July, and is the bearer of the official reply of Russia to Austria. The precise terms of the reply had not transpired, but Gottschakoff also carried an autograph from Nicholas to Austria, the tenor of which sale at was said to be that by the evacuation of Wallachia, leaving free the Danube to the Czar, considers he satisfies all the reasonable demands of Austria. Moldavia is not to be evacuated, as the occupation of that principality is necessary as a guarantee for the conditions of a future treaty of peace.

Colonel Montenffel arrived on the 6th at Berlin, from St. Petersburg, with the Czar's reply to Prussia. The reply is courteous, stating that the Czar would consent to resign the exclusive protectorate over Greek Austrians, if Turkey would accede to the joint protectorate of the Five Powers; that the Czar will evacuate the Principalities when the Western Powers evacuate Turkey, but will maintain a strong military position in Moldavia, as provisional security.

The Czar has also sent Colonel Isakoff to Dresden with a friendly autograph letter to the king of Saxouy, and other sovereigus who were represented in the Bamburg Conference.

In the meantime hostilities continue, and fighting is reported from the Baltic, Black Sea, the Danube, and Asia

The Austrians have entered Wallachia, and the French army is embarking in English ships at Cherbourg for Finland.

Respecting the Austrian occupation of Wallachia, all yet known is, that on the 2d of July, seventeen steamers with Austrian troops on board, dropped down the Danube.

Napier's fleet was lying in line of batthe before Cronstadt up to June 29, but no attack had been made.

The English frigate Desperate fired some shots which the batteries returned. Bomersund was the second time bombarded on the 26th and 27th of June, and the fortification destroyed.

THE BLACK SEA. On the 24th of June eight Russian steamers came out from Sebastopol and attacked three allied ships at the batteries. The allied ships engaged were the Furious, the Terrible, and the Descar-ties. The affair seems to have been a no witnessed the most beneficial effects from th use of your Sarsaparilla, it gives me pleasure to send you the following statement in regard to my son. In the spring of 1848 he took a severe cold and after eight weeks of severe suffering the dis-ease settled in his left leg and foot, which soon swelled to the utmost. The swelling was lanced 700 CASKS Rockport Lime now landing for Sale by. J. HATHAWAY & SON. by his physician, and discharged most profusely after that no less than eleven ulcers formed on the leg and foot at on- time. We had five different Phy sicians, but none relieved him much; and the last winter found him so emaciated and low that he was unable to leave his! ed, suffering the most excrucia-ting pain. During this time the bone had become so much affected that piece after piece came out, o which he has now more than twenty-five preserved in a bottle, varying from one half to one and a half inches in length. We had given up all hopes of his ecovery, but at this time we were induced to try your Sarsaparilla, and with its use his health and appetite began immediately to improve, and so rapwas the change that less than a dozen bottles effected a perfect cure.

With gratitude, I remain truly yours, DARIUS BALLARD. We the undersigned neighbors of Mr. Ballard, heerfully subscribe to the facts of the above state ient. H. & R. S. Hayt, A. M. Trowbridge, Geo. T.
