So she told the girl in a sharp the exercise of a discretion which the comvoice to do as she was directed, and she would always do right Up went Betty. the Court decided to order twenty lashes and the unhappy priest, despite his angry protestation, was obliged to turn out of No. 6. and go into No. 4. But a little time elapsed ere the girl was told to put the friar into No. 8, and the poor pries', thinking that everybody was mad in the house, and sturdily resolving to quit it the next morning, crept into the damp sheets of No. 8. But he was to enjoy no peace there. Betty was again directed to put the friar into No. 3. and with tears in her eyes she obeyed.

In about an hour the landlady concluded to go to bed herself, and the frar was ordered into her room. Wondering what it all meant, Betty roused up the priest, and told him that he must go into No. 11. The patient monk then crossed himself, counted heaviest qualities made; Georgia and South Carohis beads, and went into No. 11. It so happened that the husband of the landlady was troubled with the green-eyed | Burlaps; and Crape Shawls. For sale by monster, jealousy. Going up to bed, therefore, before his wife, his suspicions was confirmed by seeing between his own sheets a man sound asleep. To rouse the sleeper and kick him into the street was the work of but a few moments-nor was the mistake explained till the next day, when the priest informed the inn-keeper what outrages had been committed upon him, and he learned to his astonishment that he had been serving the whole night as a warming

ARCHITECTS AND BUILDERS. The late Mr. Alexander, architect of Rochester bridge, and other fine buildings in Kent, was once under cross-examination, in a special jury case at Mailstone, by Sergeant, afterwards Baron Garrow, who wished to detract from the weight of his testimony. After asking him what was his name, the sergeant proceeded : 'You are a builder, I belive?'

'No, sir I am not a builder, I am an ar-

'Ah! well; architect, or builder, builder or architect, they are much the same, I suppose ?

'I beg your pardon, sir, I cannot admit that; I consider them totally different.' Oh, indeed !- perhaps you will state wherein this great difference consists.'

'An architect, sir, prepares the plans, conceives the design, draws out the specifications - in short, supplies the mind; the builder is merely the bricklayer or the carpenter-the builder is in fact the machine; the architect the power that puts the machine together, and sets it a going.'

'Oh, very well, Mr. Architect, that will do; and now after your very ingenious distinction without a difference, perhaps you can inform the court who was the architect of the Tower of Babel?'

The reply, for promptness and wit. is perhaps not to be rivalled in the whole history of rejoinder.

There was no architect, sir, -and hence the confusion!

FUNNY SENTENCE

There is an advestisement in the Savannah News, of a Female College in Georgia, which contains this sentence: 'French is taught by a native female lady.'

That is rather an odd expression, it appears to us. Who is responsible for so much originality and wit?

From the New York Day Book. ABDUCTION AND ATTEMPT AT MURDER On Wednesday last, a young girl was taken to the New York Hospital in a state of insensibility, and bore on her person marks of ill treatment. Upon being seen by Dr. chapin, he at once concluded that she was laboring under the influence of laudanum. He accordingly applied the proper remedies, and with the stomach-pump removed a large quantity of the drug came to her senses, and on being refreshed by sleep, she told the story of her grievances. She stated that her name was Mary Morris, and she resided with her mother in Thompson street, and that there she had formed an acquaintance, about three months since, with a young man who had seduced her, and who during the last week had decoyed her from her mother's house and taken her in a carriage to a spublic house in West Broadway, where she was detained by her seducer, who treated her with great harshness, and threatened and beat her and compelled her to take medicine for the purpose of procuring abortion; and that when for the sale or regt of houses or lands in town or she resisted the desires of the man, he threatened to take her life, telling her he could do as he pleased with her for by

DR. 1. B. SMITH has for many years devoted his whole attention to the treatment of Private comlaints, in all their varied and complicated forms. His great success in those long standing and diffiult cases, such as were formerly considered incurble, is sufficient to commend him to the public as worthy of the extensive patronage he has received. Vithin the last eight years, Dr. S. has treated more than 29,500 cases of Private Complaints, in their litterent forms and stages; a practice which no loubt exceeds that of all other physicians now advertising in Haltimore, and not a single case is known where his directions were strictly followed, nd medicines taken at reasonable time, without effecting a radical and permanent cure; therefore, persons afflicted with diseases of the above nature, 'no matter how difficult or long standing the case may be," would do well to call on Dr. Smith, at his office. No. 16. South Frederick St., and if not effect tually relieved no remuneration will be required for his services. His medicines are free from Mercury and all mineral poisons; put up in a neat and com pact form, and may be taken in a public or private house, or while travelling, without exposure or hindrance from business, and except in cases of vio-ent inflammation, no change of diet is necessary. STRICTURES. - Dr. Smith has discovered new method by which he can cure the worst form of stricture and that without pain or inconvenience to the patient. Irritation of the uretha, or prosfrate glands, or neck of the bladder, is sometimes mistaken for strictures by general practitioners or charlatans YOUNG MEN

ASTONISHING CURE. PATTERSON, N. Y , 20th, 1851 Messrs A. B. &. D. Sands: Gentlemen .- Hay ing witnessed the most beneficial effects from the use of your Sarsaparilla, it gives me pleasure to send you the following statement in regard to my son. In the spring of 1348 he took a severe cold. and after eight weeks of severe suffering the dis-case settled in his left leg and foot, which soon swelled to the utmost. The swelling was lanced by his physician, and discharged most profusely; after that no less than cleven ulcers formed on the leg and foot at one time. We had five different Phy sicians but none relieved him much; and the las winter found him so emaciated and low that he was unable to leave his! ed. suffering the most exerucia-ting pain. R. SWAYNE: Dear Sir—Believing it a duty
I owe to the public, and in justice to you, I have thought proper to make known one of the an early application, thereby avoiding inner and suffering, as well as expense. By his improved method of treatment, Dr. S. can safely guarantee a method of treatment, Dr. S. can safely guarantee a October last, I was afflicted with a severe gathering in my breast, which formed a large abscess, ingin my breast, which formed a large abscess, and perfect cure in all cases of this commuch afflicted them, and discharged large quantities of corruption, external and internal. My reath could also pass through my lungs and ou through the cavity of my breast with apparent ease, attended with a violent cough day and night, loss of appetite, and extreme debility, so that my physicians thought my case extremely hopeless and beyond the power of medicine. I remained in this wretched condition for a long time, until was wasted to a mere skeleton, and there seemed be no hope for me, but, having read in the pube papers of the many wonderful cures performed by your COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, I immediately sent to Baltimore for five bottles and commenced its use, and, to my great satisfaction and that of my anxious family the abscess or opening in my lungs began to heal, and the cough subsided, and on using ten bottles was restored to perfect health. I feel very grate. i, and firmly believe that in your medicine, under the blessings of Divine Providence, I am indebted for this great change, and am happy to say that I am now enjoying as good health as I ever

From the Journal of Commerce: O the Horrors of the Infamous Nebraska Iniquity !-- Turning half a Continent into a

Let the readers of the Journal of Commerce call to mind what we have told them from the first, as to the bearing of the Nebraska Law upon the question of slavery. Let them bear in mind also what the Anti-Nebraska politicians, clergymen and newspapers have told them in regard to the same thing; and then let them read the following letter, which is corroborated by other information from authentic sources: "At this moment," says the writer, "there are eight or ten thousand white persons in the Territory of Kansas, of whom at least 3,000 have crossed from Iowa, between St. Joseph and and Westport." And out of this 8,000, he has "never seen one person who is in favor of slavery, who is now residing either in Kansas or Nebraska." At the very next session of Congress, he says Kansas will be knocking at the door for admission as a sovereign State. That she will be a free State, is as certain as any thing future. What an illustration is here of the truth that sound principles are safe principles; and that men may prudently follow wherever such principles lead, even if they do not at the moment see the end of the road. Correspondence of the Public Ledger. Letter from the Upper Missouri. Nebraska and Kansas-Resources and Prospects. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 27, 1854. MESSES. EDITORS: Having just returned

o this place from an extended tour through a large portion of the territories of Nebraska and Kansas, 'I have collected a large mass of facts in reference to the soil, climate and agricultural qualities of the country, as some speculations in relation to their probable future political prospects, which would, no doubt, prove interesting to your readers. Of the two territories, I greatly prefer Kansas, and it is, as a general thing, better supplied with water and timber, and the soil is equally good. The winters, also, are much milder; still there are tens of thousands of acres of land in Nebraska It gives tone to the stomach, strengthens the which far excel any thing you ever saw in ral opinion, and the tide of emigration, which tended to Nebraska, has now changed to Kansas. Only a few days since, a large party (some hundreds) of Germans, who had started for Nebraska, left the steamboat at the mouth of the Kansas and entered Kansas instead of Nebraska, as they first contemplated. All the emigration from Iowa and Missouri is now to Kansas. The title of the Indians will expire Formerly conducted by Guy C. Hotchkiss, in November, and there are thousands of whites who will then cross the river here and at points above. At a ferry some few miles above here, the ferryman informed orders in the above line. The quality of the me that he had daily averaged forty families across his ferry. This may seem incredible, but it is true. At least 8000 perorders, and they will be promptly filled. Terms son's from lowa alone are believed to have crossed the river for Kansas between this place and Westport: and at this moment there are eight or ten thousand white persons now in the territory. In twelve months there will be a sufficient number of persons to form a State government; and, mark my prediction, at the next session of Congress, Kanses will be knocking for admission into the Union as a sovereign State.

And now, gentlemen, you may ask how about slavery? Will their State Constitutions recognize slavery? I answer, no.-On the great Nemahaw river there is a large settlement of Missourians; I was among them for three weeks; knowing the deep interest felt through the country on this question, I have made it a special subject of inquiry, and I assure you that I have never seen one person who is in favor of slavery, who is now residing in either Kansas or Nebraska. Even the Missourians give it up as a settled matter. The soil, the climate, the nature of the productions of the country, are all against it-While, therefore, Wilmot Provisos and Nebraska Bills may furnish to members of Congress a fruitful theme for speeches to Buncombe, a "higher law" than any law of Congress has decided the matter. Slavery can never flourish there. Of this I am as well convinced as I could be of any ascertained fact.

You may desire to know which parts of the country are most to be preferred for settlers. This is a hard question to answer. In Kansas anywhere on the Vermillion or Blue river counties, or anywhere between the latter and Gt. Nemahaw river, a seuler can hardly go wrong. I prefer the last named place, and there I shall most probably end my days.

In Nebraska there is much more waste land than in Kansas, but as I said before, there are large bodies of splendid land in all parts of the territory.

I may also mention another advantage which Kansas has over Nebraska All emigrants for California or Oregon leave the Directors expected to do the first year-having already issued more than 200 Policies.

Dr. Wm. W. Harrish, Medical Examiner, and Agent. Wilmington, N. C.

emigrants for California or Oregon leave the steamboat at the mouth of the Kapsas, and start from Westport, five miles from the mouth of that river. the steamboat at the mouth of the Kassas, the mouth of that river. This is Col. Free nt's starting place. They follow up the K isas a long distance, and then cross over to the Platte or Nebraska; but do not reach that river till they advance some hundreds of miles west of the Missouri-The great highway between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, you will thus perceive, passes chiefly through Kansas, and this secures to the latter the great railroad route. On this subject I shall write more DECEIVED this morning, a new supply of fully in a future letter. It is, or ought to and Printed French Jaconetts; Black net Mitts; be, the great question of the day. I am,

gentlemen, yours faithfully,
