THE STANDARD.

We find the random shot we fired at the corruption of the party press has found a lodgment in the heart of the Standard. Tries to dodge toobut can't come it. We must think there is something in the remark : "Shoot into the tree-something will fall." Got a big fat this time.

THE TWO WINGS.

From the late nomination of Judge BRONSON and other indications of partialities for catholicism and the "Catholic Vote" in New York and elsewhere, it appears that there are two distinct wings to the Democratic Party, throughout the Union. One is the patriotic democrats who have with a party heart, who go for the Roman Catholic Vote. One is truly the American Democracy, the other is the Roman Catholic Democracy .-Wonder which of these wings the Raleigh Standand will favor ? The latter, we guess,

JESUIT'S OATH.

We publish on our last page the Jesuit's Oath. The public will see that there is no reliance to be placed on a Roman Catholic Jesnit, in regard to the political interests of the country or the social happiness of the people. Bound in allegiance, political and religious to a foreign Potentate, they can desitoy our Institutions through fraud and corruption or by violence, not only without reproof, but with the approval of their lawful sovereign, the Pope of Rome.

Some of the Jesuits are native born citizens of this country and others have been naturalized ; both enjoy, in common with with all others, the sion of property, reputation and life. And yet ed to build nunneries and force innocent victims they can deprive us of all these privileges, with within them? Who have burned Protestant Bithe sanction and applause of their Lowful Master, a vile Italian Priest

What is to be done in such a case, in these days of pasty corruption and intrigue, it is difficut to the war of intolerance is brought' to our very say. It is not hard, however, to come to a right doors, shall we not resist it? Self preservation is conclusion, if we were permitted to exercise common sense and award justice in the case. Every Jesuit should be treated as an alien, and deprived whether native or foreign. Why, this society has been the object of censure even in Catholic counfor even European Popery-but they come here and establish schools and colleges, and take quite the lead in the array of the Roman Catholic Faith-

Therefore, Resolved, That by this melancholy stroke of the exemplary man, and consistent Christian. He was a member of the Methodist E. Church, and his death was gloriously triumphant in Christ his Savior.

THE CRY OF PERSECUTION.

Jesuitism is not yet dead. It was never more apparently manifested than in the course pursued by the Most Holy Church, in the cry of Proscription; Persecutive Intolerance, and other kindred an American heart; the other is the democrats expressions. Now that they are "driven to the walls," and know full well that their influence in political matters has well nigh received its death blow, it is amusing to see the meek and lowly mien of the Jesuits, and to hear the hypocritic .] whincing of the men who have always ruled, when able, with an iron rod. Americans be not deceived. Jesuitism is the same to-day that it ever has been, and the crucity and intolerance of the Romish Church has not changed. It cannot change, it is an Infallable Church, and therefore, when they raise the cry of persecution, it falls back upon their own heads with tremendous weight, notwithstanding their assumed meekness and the powerful efforts of Douglass, Seward, Greely, Bennet, Benton & Co. The thinking men of America will not be deceived. There is no intolerance of spirit among Americans, never has the grave a rest, which, had his case proved inbeen ; on the other hand, the history of Romanism everywhere has been and is, the history of wretchedness, eruelty intolerance, persecution and blood. rights of citizenship and are secure in the posses- Who are the intolerant ones ?
