MISCELLANY.

Death of Little Mary Morgan. The following scene is from "Ten Night: in a Bar-Room, and What I Saw there, by T. S. Arthur, published on the 1st of July. by J. W. Bradley, of Philadelphia. "Father ! father !" the clear, earnest voice of Mary was heard calling. "I'm coming, dear," answered Morgan.

"Come quick, futher, won't you ?" -"Yes, love." And Morgan got up and dressed himself-but with unsteady hands and every sign of nervous prostration. In a little while, with the assistance of his go to work, said Morgan, whispering back wife, he was ready, and supported by her to the child," "and I'll never go out at came tottering into the room where Mary night any more."

was lying "Oh ! father !"-What a light broke over her countenance-"I've been waiting for you so long I thought you were never gong to wake up. Kiss me, father." "What can I do for you, Mary ?" asked Morgan, tenderly, as he laid his face down upon the pillow beside her.

Established in order to afford the Afflicted sound and scientific .dedical Aid, and for the suppression of Quackery.
DR.1. B. Smirn has for many years devoted his whole strention to the treatment of Private compliants, in all their varied and complicated forms. His great success in those long standing and difficult cult cases, such as were formerly considered incurable, is sufficient to commend him to the public as worthy of the extensive patronage he has received. Within the last eight years, Dr. S. has treated more than 29,500 cases of Private Complaints, in their different forms and stages; a practice which no doubt exceeds that of all other physicians now advertising in Baltimore, and not a single case is known where his directions were strictly followed, and medicines taken at reasonable time, without effecting a radical and permanent cure; therefore, persons afflicted with diseases of the above nature, 'no matter how difficult or long standing the case may be,'' would do well to call on Dr. Smith, at his office, No, 16, South Frederick St., and if not effectually relieved no remuneration will be required for his services. His medicines are free from Mercury and all mineral poisons; put up in a neat and compact form, and may be taken in a public or private house, or while travelling, without exposure or hindring from a change of dift is necessary.
STRICTURES. – Dr. Smith has discovered a new method by which he can cure the worst form of stricture and that without pain or inconvenience to the patient. Irritation of the uretha, or prostrate glands, or neck of the bladder, is sometimesmistaken icr strictures by general practitioners or charlatans. YOUNG MEN O'FFICE over Store of W. H. violence with loud noise, doing considera-ble damage to public and private buildings throughout the city, throwing down seve-ral small ones, and re-opening the old cracks made by the earthquakes of 1830, besides making many new ones. All the churches had large cracks in them, and that of St. Augustine was badly damaged. The streets were immediately filled with affrighted people, the cry of Dios fuerte resounded on every side, some knelt in the streets to pray, and others hurried to the churches. The duration of the shocks was about four seconds each, the course the same as before, and the motion of the undulatory or horizontal kind. At three o'clock another severe shock occurred, fol-lowed by others throughout the afternoon and night, accompanied with a vibratory motion and a rumbling noise, the entire number of shocks throughout that day and night being thirteen. A letter in the New York Herald, from which we obtain the above information, proceeds thus :---" Throughout the afternoon many per-

"Nothing, father. I don't wish for anything. I only wanted to see you." "I'm here, now, love."

"Dear father!" How earnestly, yet tenderly she spoke, laying her small hand upon his face.

"You've always been good to me, father_"

"Oh ! no. I've never been good to any body" sobbed the weak, broken-spirited man, as he raised himself from the pillow. How deeply touched was Mrs. Slade as she sat, the silent witness of the scene.

"You hav'nt been good to yourself, father but you have always been good to us."

"Don't, Mary I don't say anything about that," interposed Morgan. "Say that I have been very bad-very wicked. Oh ! Mary, dear! I only wish that I was as good as you are; I'd like to die, then, and go right away from this evil world. I wish there was no liquor to drink-no tavernsno bar-rooms. Oh ! dear ! I wish I was dead."

And the weak, trembling, half-palsied man hid his face again upon the pillow beside his child, and sobbed aloud.

What an oppressive silence reigned for a time through the room !

"Father." The stillness was broken by Mary, Her voice was clear and even .-"Father, I want to tell you something."

"What is it, Mary?" "There'll be nobody to go for you, fath-

"Oh ! no-no-no, Mary ! Don't say that"-the poor man's voice was broken---"don't say that! We can't let you go dear."

"God has called me."

'The child's voice had a solemn tone, and her eyes turned reverently upward. "I wish He would call me !" groaned

Oh ! dear ! Oh ! dear !'

"Father !" Mary spoke calmly again. "You are not ready to go yet. God will let you live here longer, that you may get ready.'

"How can I get ready without you help me, Mary ? My angel child !" "Havn't I tried to help you, father, oh ! so many times ?" said Mary.

"Yes-yes-you've always tried." "But it was'm any use. You would go out-you would go to the tavern. It seemed almost as if you could'nt help it."

Morgan groaned in spirit. "Maybe I can help you better; father, after I die. I love you so much, that I am sure God will let me come to you, and stay with you always, and he an angel to you. Don't you think he will mother?" But Mrs. Morgan's heart was too full. She did not even try to answer, but sat, with streaming eyes, gazing upon her child's face.

"Father, I dreamed something about you while I slept to-day."

Mary again turned to her father. "I thought it was night and that I was " No, never. And I'll promise still more. " Father ?" " Never to drink a drop of liquor as long as I live."

" Never to go into a tavern again."

" What, father ?"

" Never !"

"O father ! dear, dear father !"

And with a cry of joy Mary started up, and flung herself upon his breast. Morgan drew his arms tightly around her, and sat for a long time with his lips pressed to her cheek, whilst she lay against his bo-som as still as death. As death? Yes: for when the father unclasped his arms. the spirit of his child was with angels of the ressurrection .- Arthur's Home Gazette.

N this preparation all the restorative properties of the root are concentrated in their utmost strength and efficacy ; but while Sarsaparilla Root forms an important part of its combination, it is, at the same time, compounded with other vegeta-ble remedies of great power, and it is in the pecu-liar combination and scien life manner of its preparation, that its remarkable success in the cure of disease depends. It acts simultaneously apon the stomach, the circulation and the bowels; and thus three processes, which are ordinarily the result of three different kinds of n edicine, are carried on at the same time, through the instrumentality of this one remedial agent which gently stimulates while it disinfects and expels from the stomach and It disinfects and expels from the stomach and bowels all that is irritating, and at the same time estores vigor and tone. Many other preparations imitate in pearing the name of Sarsaparilla, and in that their resemblance ends, being often prepar-ed from worthless and inert roots, and of course possess no healing or curative properties, and pa-tients in making choice of which they will use, should take no other, but that one entitled to their confidence from the long list of curse it has effect. nce, from the long list of cures it has effected on living witnesses, whose testimonials and residence have been published, and who are still bearing daily testimony to its worth. ASTONISHING CURE.

PATTERSON, N. Y, 20th, 1851. Merers. A. B. &. D. SANDS: Gentlemen.-Hav-ing witnessed the most beneficial effects from the ing witnessed the most beneficial effects from the use of your Sarsaparilla, it gives me pleasure to send you the following statement in regard to my son. In the spring of 1848 he took a severe cold, and after eight weeks of severe suffering the dis-ease settled in his left leg and foot, which soon swelled to the utmost. The swelling was lanced by his physician, and discharged most profusely; after that no less than eleven ulcers formed on the leg and foot at one time. We had fived ifferent Phy-sicians, but none relieved him much; and the fast winter found him so emaciated and low that he was unable to leave his! ed, suffering the most excrucia-ting pain. During this time the bone had become so much affected that piece after piece came out, of which he has now more than twenty-five preserved in a bottle, varying from one half to one and a half inches in length. We had given up all hopes of his recovery, but at this time we were induced to try your Sarsaparilla, and with its use his health and appetite began immediately to improve, and so rapmost any article that may be desired, in complete-ly furnishing Dwellings.
