MISCELLANY.

A GHOST STORY. 'Talkin' of sperits reminds me o' my experience in that line,' said Sutler, gravely shaking the ashes from his pipe.

'Let us hear it,' I said. 'With the greatest pleasure, Cap'en. My father, you see, had been under the turf for By Lady Bulwer Lytton. Received and for J.T. MUNDS. a good many years. He wasn't a bad man, by no means; a kinder heart never beat nor his; but he was oncommon fond o' terbaker. H'd smoke the day out and the day in. He hadn't an equal in that way, except old Sam Flint, our nearest neighbor, and he was just about his match; and tell their tough stories evenin' after evenin', but that afore my father died.

'My nateral susceptibilities bein' fine, I felt rather bad when the old gentleman stepped out. I used to lay awake night is published every TURSDAY, TRUESDAY and neighbors, and seemed to have plenty o' SATURDAY at 35 pur annum, payable in all cases the same sort; although, afore that, he backer on the winder sill, thinking it best to let the old gentleman depend on his own exertions for a supply o' pigtail.'

EMPLOYMENT FOR AGENTS

EVERAL Thousand energetic and trustworthy young men are wanted to act as agents-both local and travelling - in every state in the Union for the sale of a patented article of manufacture now in extensive demand. The exclusive right for the United States is owned by the advertisers, and agents of capacity and business tact can casi-ly carn Two Hundred Dollars per month.

NO CAPITAL NECESSARY. "Extract from communications from our agants" "I herewith enclose you a draft for dollars, deducting One-hundred and ninety seven dollars as my commission on the sale of the last month."— Signed H. Read. "I shall realize as commission on my sales this month about one hundred and sev-enty-five dollars.' E. C. Field. The occupation will prove a light and gentle anly employment-as honorable as it is profitauce substantial testimonials as to character and industry. Saluries will be arranged for the first year if preeried. So many answers to advertisements are forwarded from motives of idle curiosity only, the adver-tisers will consider no application unless accompanied by One Dollar as evidence of sincerity, when full particulars will be forwarded. Address BURNS, BENEDICT & Co. Baltimore, Md.

No agent will be accepted unless able to pro

A JOKING CLERGYMAN. Rev. Dr. Byles was the original compound of religion and mirth, conspicuous in the latter part of the last century, in New England. With a good heart, a mind of stable principles, and a decent reverence for his holy office, he nevertheless posses-sed a buoyant and genial flow of spirits constantly running over with puns and witty concelts. He maintained his connection with his (the Holfis street) Church for forty-three years. He was a hale, yet aged man, when the Revolutionary war began, and in his predilections leaned toward the royal side. In May, 1777, it was deemed necessary

N this preparation all the restorative properties of the root are concentrated in their utmost strength and efficacy; but while Sarsaparilla Root forms an important part of its combination, it is, of the same time, compounded with other vegeta-file remedies of great power, and it is in the pecu-liar combination and scien ific manner of its prep-S Wif. aration, that its remarkable success in the cure of disease depends. It acts simultaneously upon the stomach, the circulation and the bowels; and thus three processes, which are ordinarily the result of three different kinds of " edicine, are carried on at the same time, through the instrumentality of this one remedial agent which gently stimulates while t disinfects and expels from the stomach and bowels all that is irritating, and at the stomach and estores vigor and tone. Many other preparations imitate in ocaring the name of Sarsaparilla, and in that their resemblance ends, being often prepar-ed from worthless and inert roots, and of course and will keep constantly a second state of the ed on living witnesses, whose testimonials and residence have been published, and who are still bearing daily testimony to its worth. SANDS: Gentlemen.-Hav-ing witnessed the most beneficial effects from the ing witnessed the most beneficial effects from the use of your Sarasparilla, it gives me pleasure to send you the following statement in regard to my son. In the spring of IS48 he took a severe cold, and after eight weeks of severe suffering the dis-ease settled in his left leg and foot, which soon swelled to the utmost. The swelling was lanced by his physician, and discharged most profusely; after that no less than eleven ulcers formed on the leg and foot at on-time. We had five different Phy-sicians, but none relieved him much; and the last winter found him so emsciated and low that he was unable to leave his ed, suffering the most exercise-A FEW VERY FINE PIANO FORTES, and in fact al clety Rooms-Front Street. During this time the bone had become so much affected that piece after piece came out, of which he has now more than twenty-five preserved in a bottle varying from one half to one and a half inches in length. We had given up all hopes of his recovery, but at this time we were induced to try your Sarsaparilla, and with its use his health and appetite began immediately to improve, and so rap-id was the change that less than a dozen bottles ef-fected a perfect cure. The 'sore in the ground' was healed soon after.

Going along the streets one day he found himself in a great crowd near the old North Church.

'What is the matter?' he asked of a bystander.

'Why there is a man going to fly from the steeple.' 'Poh !' said he, 'you all come here to see a man fly ? Why, I have seen a horse fly.' A learned lady, of Boston despatched a note to him, on the great dark day, in the following style :

'Dear Doctor-How do you account for most any article that may be desired, in complete-ly furnishing Dwellings, Hotels, Offices or So His really was

His reply was-

'Dear Madame-I am as much in the dark as you are.'
