MISCELLANY.

Tobacco Riot at Cambridge University. A gentlem n rashly assayed Friday night, Nov. 3d, to give a lecture in Cambridge against the use of tobacco. The room was crammed long before he commenced with under-graduates, provided with pipes and cigars, squibs and crackers: and the lecture had not proceeded far when it was interrupted by cries of "Three cheers for Sir Walter Raleigh." The lecturer becoming angered, with the increasing disorder, made an observation that he had expected on coming to a University town to address gentlemen, and not a lot of blackguards." This was the signal for increasand cigars were set alight in all directions, and a number of persons who had entered the gallery (which had been closed to the the gallery (which had been closed to the under graduates) were saluted with a show- General Agent Commission and Porwarding Merer of sombs and crackers.

Browne, one of the borough magistrates, STEAM ENGINE AND SAW MILL. appeared upon the platform, but were not listened to, and retired, the under graduates immediately following up their retreat by storming the platform, and "proposing an amendment-that tobacco is anything but permeious." Amidst the confusion a policeman collared an under-graduate who was breaking up one of the forms, whereupon the under-graduate immediately struck out with his fists, and shouting out 'gown,' a rush of the gownsmen was made, and the silly fellow was borne off in triumph, amid the crash of seats and loud hurrah. The whole of the police had by this time arrived, and a desperate fight ensued, the constables using their staves freely and making sundry prisoners, whom they lodged in the old sessions just as the senior proctor, the Rev. Mr. Eddleston, of Trinity College, arrived.

On the arrival of the proctor, the prisoners capitulated, and having given their names and colleges, were allowed to pro-

On Saturday night again, notwithstanding that the proctors assis'ed by a number of masters of arts, paraded the town, several skirmishes took place.

A subsequent attempt on Sunday the 5th. on the part of some 200 students to get up another tobacco row, was defeated by the college officials, when the town magistrates determined to imprison the participitants, an operation which was effected by locking the doors of the chapel while the young men were at evening prayers.

On Wednesday, at the Town Hall, Richard Clayton and Charles Wood were placed in the dock to answer to a charge of assaulting the police in the execution of their duty, Both of the young men, who appear to have acted with great violence, were fined £5 each, and expenses.

The fine was immediately paid, the a mounts having been soon made up to the defendants by a "whip," among sympathi-

ANECDOTE OF SPANISH GYPSIES

A band of gitanos being in the neighborhood of a village, one of the women went to a house where lived a lady alone This lady was a widow, rich, without children, and of very handsome person. After saluting her, the gipsy repeated the harangue which she had already studied, to the effect that there was neither bachelor, widower, nor married man, nobleman, nor gallant, endowed with a thousand graces, who was not dying for love of her, and then continued—"Lady, I have contracted a great affection for you, and since I know that you well merit the riches you possess, notwithstanding you live heedless of your good fortune, I wish to reveal to you a secret. You must know, then, that in your cellar you have a vast treasure nevertheless, you will experience great dif ficulty in arriving at it, as it is enchanted, and to remove it is impossible, save and alone on the eve of St. John. We are now at the eighteenth of June, and it wants five days to the twenty-third; therefore, in the meanwhile, collect some jewels of gold and silver, and likewise some money, whatever you please, provided it be not copper, and provide six tapers of white or yellow wax, for at the time appointed I will come with a sister of mine, when we will extract from the cellar such an abundance of riches, that you will be able to live in a style which will excite the envy of the offices of all papers containing this advertisement. style which will excite the envy of the where information may be obtained in regard to whole country." The ignorant widow, the paper and Enterprise. hearing these words, put implicit confidence in the deceiver, and imagined that she already possessed all the gold of Arabia and the silver of Potosi. The appointed day arrived, and not more punctual were the two gipsies than anxiously expected by the lady. Being asked whether she had prepared all as she had been desired, she replied in the affirmative, when the gipsy thus addressed her: "You must know, good lady, that gold calls forth gold, and silver calls forth silver; let us light these tapers, and descend to the cellar before it grows late, in order that we may have time for our conjugations." Thereupon the trio, the widow and the two gipsies, went down, and having lighted the tapers and placed them in candlesticks in the shape of a circle, they deposited in the midst a silver tankard, with some pieces of eight, and some corals tipped with gold, and other jewels of small value. They then told the lady that it was necessary for them all to return to the stair-case by which they had descended to the cellur, and there they uplifted their hands, and remained for a short time as if engaged in prayer. The ing their voices in such a manner that five or six people appeared to be in the cellar. "Bless little St. John," said one, "will it be possible to remove the treasure which you keep hidden here?" "Oh, yes; and with a little more trouble it shall be yours," replied the gipsy sister, altering her voice to a thin treble, as if it proceeded from a child four or five years old. In the meantime, the lady remained astonished, expectng the promised riches, and the two gitanos presently coming to her, said, " Comop, lady, for our desire is upon the point of being gratified. Bring now the best petticoat, gown, and mantle, which you have in your chest, that I may dress myself, and appear in other guise to what I do now." The simple woman, not perceiving the trick they were playing upon her, ascended with them to the doorway, and, leaving them alone, went to fetch the things which they demanded. Thereupon the two gipsies, seeing themselves at liberty, and having already pocketed the gold and silver which had been deposited for the conjugation, opened the street-door, and escaped with all the speed they could. So much for their divination, their foreseeing things to come, their power over the secrets of nature, and their knowledge of the stars.
