ARRIVAL OF THE ATLANTIC.

ONE WEEK LATER FROM EUROPE. New York, Dec. 31 .- The steamer Atlantic arrived here this afternoon about 5 o'clock, with Liverpool dates to conday. the 18th inst, having been compelled to return a few hours after sailing on Saturday, owing to an accident to her rudder

THE WAR The general political news by this arrival is interesting in detail, but it presents no startling facts beyond previous accounts. The siege of Sevastopol was at last accounts still progressing, though the weath- SPERM CANDLES & SPIRIT CASKS. JAMES AND ERED N. er was very cold, and the elements adverse to successful or speedy operations. Bombardment was continued at intervals without any special effect. The damage done was speedily repaired. A fumor prevailed that five thousand Russians had retired from the second line of the defence of Sevastopol. It is also stated that the trenches cut by the allies in these sieges, owing to the incessant heavy rains, had been filled with water and rendered almost useless.

THE AUSTRIAN ULTIMATUM. This appears to be the most important item of intelligence by the present arrival. The "Ost Deutsche Post" publishes the following as the ultimatum addressed by Austria to the Emperor of Russia:

1st No modification of Russia's territo rial possessions is demanded. 2.1 Besides the four points, indemnifica tion for the war expenses is to be the basis of peace propositious.

3d. The future Russian protectorate, and the Greek Catholic subjects of the Porte, is declared inadmissible, as interfering with the Sultan's sovereign rights.

4th. The five powers are to guarantee the privilege of equal rights to Christians 5th. The Russian protectorate in the Danubian Principalities, and in Servia, are to be declared extinct.

6th. The navigation of the Black Sea is to be guaranteed by raising the siege of Sevastopol, and converting other arsenals on its coast into common harbors. 7th. The Russian fleet (in the Black Sea) is to be reduced four frigates and two line of battle ships. fleet is to be allowed to withdraw to the

9th. The free navigation to be insured by a formal declaration.

10th The Salina mouths with its environs are to be declared neutral territories.

The above alteration, it is generally be lieved, will be indignantly rejected by the Czar. Some, indeed, look upon it as a ruse of Austria, to free herself from the peculiar relations she stood in towards the Affairs in Hungary are much agitated. Austria's movements are badly relished PRUSSIA.

It is stated with much confidence that Prussia has signified her determination to join the allies against Russia, for pacific purposes.

Affairs in England were still much excited. The war question seems to absorb all else.

Throughout France the war question was the absorbing topic of interest. Troops were being shipped daily for the Crimen Aside from this, there was nothing else of special moment.

Latest from the War. Accounts from Sevastopol to the 7th state that great movements were observed before and around that city on that evening. Important steps were supposed to be taking. It looked like preparations for another great battle. The investment of the place had been nearly completed. Numerous reinforcements had arrived to the allies The Russians were also pouring in
