Serious Railroad Riot and Bloodshed. Buffaco, Jan. 20 .- A riot of a very serious nature occurred to-day on the Buffalo, Brantford and Goodrich Railroad The disturbance took place among the laborers at Ridgeway, some 20 miles from this city, who, not having received their pay, regularly gave notice that they would spike down the switches to-day, if they did not receive the wages due them. As their money was not forth-" 3 " 1 00 1 1 " 6 " 8 09 coming, they accordingly spiked the switch at month, 2 50 1 " 12 " 12 00 Ten lines or less make a square. > One of the Park Orators Set to Work. On Thursday afterdoon last, while a man named Chas. Smith was declaiming in the Park, in New York, against the soup societies, and declaring that he wanted work, one of the audience intimated to him that he was lazy and liked better to talk than work. Mr. Smith replied indignant-

DR. Johnston is the only regularly Educated Physician who advertises his very extensive Practise, and his many Wonderful Curss is a sofficient guarantee to the afflicted. Those who wish to be specially and effectually cursd, should shun the numerous trifling imposters, who only ruin their health, and apply to Dr. Johnston.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London; graduate from one of the most entinent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has affected some of the most astonishing cures that were over known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleen, great norvoucess, being alarmed at when asleep, great nervoueness, being alarms sudden sounds, and bashfaness. with fre blushing, attended sometimes with derangement, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of deasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of dils pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease; it too often happens that an fill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as vicerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimpess of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremitles, progress on with frightful rapidity, till at last the pulate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a borrid object of computer. awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful at ferings, by sending him to "that bourne frowhence no traveller teturns." To such therefor Dr. Johnston phologes himself to preserve the metaviolable secreey; and, from his extensive purfice in the first hiospitals in Europe and American confidently recommend a safe and upee cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid dense. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands care to the unfortunite victim of this horized dis-case. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fail victims to this decadful discase, owing to the un-skindalness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, rain the constitu-tion, and either a nd the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of life mis-

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REME. DY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS. By this great and important remedy weakness of diately relieved. All impedimen MARRIAGE.

Physical or Mental Disqualifications, Nervous Irritability Tremblings and Weakness, or exhaustion of the most feurful kind, speedily cured by Dr. Young men who have injured themselves Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice induleed in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and inculging in a certain secret habit.—
Such persons, before contemplating

Should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote commbiat happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.
