It is stated that there is a merchant in Boston who, during fourteen years, has always had his name on the docket of some court, either as plaintiff or defendant. The lawyers " tip their beavers ' to this gentleman almost instantly.

BRIDGE BURNT.

The Savannah Republican states that the Etowah Bridge, on the State Rail Road, was destroyed by fire, Thursday night last. The bridge is near a half of a mile in length. New piers have been built, with the view of filling up as far as practicable the gap spanned by the bridge, the same having been done with the other bridges on the Road. The destruction of this bridge must scriously interfere with the business of the Road. and especially the transit of Tennessee produce.

HOMIDIDE.

The Marion Star of Tuesday says : "We learn that in a fight between Henry Nobles, alias Sutten, alias Gunter, and Henry Ganey, the latter was severely stabbed. Sutten was arrested, and Ganey, since the commitment of Sutten to prison, has died. This gives us again three homicides for our next court."

SMALL POX IN CHARLESTOWN, MASS. Small pox and varioloid continue to prevail ex. tensively. So many cases have occurred among the pupils in Bunker Hill School, that a correspondent of the City Advertiser advises the temporary closing of that school.

SIGNIFICANT WHISTLING. The Washington correspondence of the New York Tribune, in speaking of the reception there of the news of Wilson's election, says :-

"Those who think it was Know-Nothingism that clected Wilson, it is said, deceive themselves .-His friends express their opinion, when asked if that was really the reason of his election, by a long and significant whistle."

REMOVAL FOR DISOBEDIENCE OF ORDERS. Gov. Garder, of Massachusetts, has removed nel of the 5th regiment of light infantry, because of his refusal to execute the order commanding him to disband the foreign company connected with his regiment.

LIBERTY TO THINK BUT NOT TO SPEAK.

Almost a Duel-One of the Acres Family Still Lives.

The Accident ou the Ohio and Mississippi Rail Road.

This accident, which occurred on Tuesday week, fourteen miles from Cincinnati, was occasioned by a switchfastening giving way. The Cincinnati Enquirer says:
