VIRGINIA NOMINATIONS.

The Convention lately held at Winchester, Va., nominated the Hon. Thomas Stan-HOPE FLOURNEY for Governor, in opposition to Mr. Wise, and J. M. BEALE, of Mason Co. Lt. Governor, and Hon. John M. PAT-TON, of the city of Richmond, for Attorney General. It is believed that these nominations will be very popular.

A friend, interested in the matter, requests us to ask if Coal Barges, loaded at the Coal Fields, in Chatham county, at the deepest draft allowing them to come through the Locks, can proceed to Wilmington, at all seasons of the year, without detention from any obstruction. We hope the information will be furnished, by those having cognizance of the facts.

It is all a matter of but little consequence. We do not care a fiddle-stick's end what Wise says about the Methodists .-If he can get Roman Catholic votes, as he surely will, by remarks like the above, he is welcome to them; for the other party neither wants, desires nor expects them.
