MISCELLANY.

To the Editors of the N. C. Standard:

GENTLEMEN:—I request a small space in ros, your columns, to announce to the public, that in consequence of unexpected delay in the arrival of materials, and subsequent indisposition, the publication of the first number of "The North Carolina Arator" is necessarily deferred until the end of this month, and that the paper will thereafter appear regularly on the first of every month. I was induced to procure new materials at heavy cost, and to undertake its publication at the urgent solicitation of a number of the most intelligent and influential members of the State Agricultural Society, with the assurance that it on the most liberal terms. would be adopted and supported by the friends of improvement as the organ of that Society; and, relying upon the fulfilment of necessary, a charge according to the published that pledge. I shall prosecute the work with terms will be at the option of the contractor, for the hope of success.

The instrument signed by only four of the Executive Committee, and presented to the public by Mr. Cooke, as an "endorsement" of the "Carolina Cultivator," certainly can-"endorsement," coming as it does from so small a minority of the Committee. To ofier it as such would be a gross insult to the members of the State Society, and to the intelligence and common sense of the public generally-and yet it comes out in that imposing form, placing the four signers in the lalse and unenviable attitude of usurping au thority, and undertaking to do what neither JOB, CARD AND FANCY PRINTING, the Society nor the Committee had authorized them (a me gre minority.) to do-a thing of which I believe those gentlemen incapable; whereas they had signed it, pro bably, upon the application of Mr. Cooke, with the understanding that it could not of course, appear as an official document, without the concurrence of a majority; or they may have signed without examining critically the language prepared for their signatures. with the intention, simply of giving Mr. Just Published, a New Discovery in Medicine, Cooke nothing more than a friendly certificate. Its publication, therefore, as an official "endorsement." is clearly unjust to the four signers, as it is deceptive to those who are ignorant of the number of members composing that large Committee. To a plain mind thus thrust out with hot haste a document unsupported by a sufficient number of names to give it either valudity or weight. The Executive Committee, numbering fourteen of fifteen members, to whom the matter has been referred by resolution of the Society, will no doubt in due time announce their determination. Whatever that may be, my purpose is fixed to proceed with the publication; and, after all, I shall be content for it to be indeed by its marks at the result of the shall be content for the best possible cost, avoiding thereby all the advertised postrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free in a "endorsements." Those who may be pleased to exert themselves in procuring subscribers are requested to former themselves in More 10. here are requested to forward their names within the month, that they may receive the

P. S .- I have received a letter since the above was written, from a prominent member of the State Agricultural Society, who participated actively in the proceedings of the late special meeting of that body, embracing a list of twenty-six names procured by his personal efforts, with the cash, who says, in allusion to a report which had reach ed him, that the "Carolina Cultivator" had "received the sanction of the Society, or the Executive Committee," "after what passed at the special meeting in January, it is incredible that such a statement can be true."

ANECDOTE OF MR. JAY. Mr. Jay had become aware of a growing evil among his brethren, arising from a cause with which he being familliar, determined upon rebuking and denouncing. When in the midst of his discourse, he said:

'My young brother, it is to be regretted that many enter the ministry after they have been educated, to whose services the church has a claim; they look round and select a lady for their wife, but they are careful she possesses a fortune. After a time they begin to get weary in well doing. They take cold, it results in a cough, they are so weak that they cannot attend to the duties of their office. They resign, and live upon their wife's fortune. I know five cases of this kind ;-

may it never be your lot.'

During the delivery of this keen rebuke, there was a young minister, or rather an exminister, who did not seem very comfortable. Alter the service was closed, the merits of the discourse were canvassed, and the general opinion was that it was only such a one as could be delivered by Mr. Jay. Said one to an ex-pastor:

Our "Regular Style" Gentlemen's Dress Hat, for Spring and Summer of 1855, is now ready—Lightness, Beauty and Durability, its most prominent points.

· How did you like Mr. Jay? it was quite Well, I liked him very well, but I think he was rather personal.'

'Personal, ch, how so?'

'I shall spenk to him about it,' said the delicate fastidious ex-minister. He sought the vestry, and found Mr. Jay there. He congratuated him on his health, there. He congratuated him on his health, and discourse, but hinted that he was personal in his remarks, and would like to know if he referred to him.

HAVE just received by late arrivals, 50 dozen Winsor Chairs; 20 do. Cane Scat Maple Chairs; 20 do. do. Ball top do; 'Personal,' said the patriarch, 'personal eh,

'Oh.' said Mr. Jay, I see, yes; have you resigned ? .

'Did you marry a rich wife?'

Did you have a cough and become disabled for service? Yes, sir.

Ah, my friend, yours is the sixth case

This young man reaped the reward of his folly, and retired confused and ashamed from the presence of Mr. Jay.—The Wesleyan.

All claims for insurance against the Company will frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marrimpossible, and destroys both mind and body. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the daring of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit.— Such persons, before contemplating MARRIAGE. Should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote committal happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a wear; pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another be-OFFICE NO. 7 SOUTH PREDERICK-ST., All Surgical Operations Performed. TAKE NOTICE.

It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. JOHNSTON permits his card to appear before the public, STON permits his card to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to advertise, but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not fail to fall into the hands of those impudent, boasting imposters, individuals destitute of knowledge, name and character, pedlars, shoemakers, mechanics, dc., advertising themselves as physicians; ignorant quacks, with filthy, lying certificates of Great Wonderful Cures from persons who cannot be found, or obtained for a few dellars from the Worthless and Degraded and seems persons who cannot be found, or obtained for a few dollars from the Worthless and Degraded, and many other cunning and contemptible artifices to entire the affileted, triffing month after month, or as long as possible, and in despair, leave you with rained health, to sigh over your galling disappointment.— It is this motive that induces Dr. J. to advertise, for he alone can cure you. To those unacquainted with his reputation, he deems it necessary to say that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his Office.
