TAKE NOTICE. It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. JOHN-STON permits his card to appear before the public deeming it unprofessional for a physician to adver tise, but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not fail to fall into the hands of those impudent, boasting imposters, individuals destitute of knowledge, name and character, ped-lars, shoemakers, mechanics, &c., advertising themselves as physicians; ignorant quacks, with filthy, lying certificales of Great Wonderfut Cures from persons who cannot be found, or obtained for a few dollars from the Worthless and Degraded, and many other cuaning and contemptible artifices to entice the affileted, trifling month after month, or as long as possible, and in despair, leave you with ruined health to sigh over your galling disappointment.— It is this motive that induces Dr. J. to advertise, for he alone can cure you. To those unacquainted with his reputation, he deems it necessary to say that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his
