MY FIRST HOME AND MY LAST.

"An invalid" is credited in the Boston Transcript with the following stanzas:

Out of my first home warm and bright, I passed to the cold world's lowering night; From love more real than light or life To doubts and jealousy, feers and strife; Ill hath it ended that well begun-Into the shadow, out of the sun.

Dut of my last home, dark and cold, I shall pass to the city whose streets are gold; From the silence that falls upon sin and pain, To the deathless joy of the angels strain; Well shall be ended that ill begun—Out of the shadow, into the sun!

MISCELLANY.

COLPORTAGE IN VIRGINIA AND NORTH AND SOUTH CAROLINA.

FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1855. gression of the work.

In Virginia alone, the combined labors of the agents and colporteurs would have required twenty-five years incessant application for one man to perform. Sales were made to the value of $9,955 86; grants of books and tracts, $2,599 53, or 15,534 volumes at 16 1-3 cents each; meetings held, 1.426 : 1,665 families were found destitute of religious books except the Bible, and 778 destitute of the Bible; 1,179 families habitually neglect church; 14,391 families were prayed with, and 27,834 were visited; total expenses of the work, omitting those of the wrapper nearly all off the bundle, but the general agents, $8,855 10; donations still the lad held on. The boy then asked in full from Virginia, $7,066 44.

Twelve years of labor for one man were performed in North Carolina. Sales to the value of $5,744 67; grants, $1,325 26; 740 meetings were held; 2,288 families had no religious books but the Bible, and 1,001 families were destitute of the Bible; 1,542 families were found that neglected evangelical preaching; 10,375 families SATURDAY at $5 per annum, payable in all cases were converted or prayed with, and 18,555 BY THOMAS LORING—EDITOR and PROPERT.

Total expense of the work, $3,348 29; donations received to aid the work, $1,-

But six months of the year were reported to me in South Carolina. Time of service, two years; sales, $849 65; grants, $122 55; 50 meetings were held; 71 families were found destitute of religious books except the Bible, and 83 destitute of the Bible; 192 families neglecting church; families prayed with, 1,330; whole number visited, 386; expenses of the work, tion, which were considerable, are not charged to S. Carolina, but to the States the time he has advertised. in which the men resided.

The sum total in these States is as follows: 40 years of labor accomplished by 161-value, $16,540 19; by grant, 24,284 volumes-value, $4,049 34; meetings held, 2.216; families destitute of all religious books but the Bible, 4,029; destitute of the Bible, 1,862; 2,913 families, according to their own statement, neglect preaching ; 49,675 families were visited, many of them repeatedly, and 26,096 of them were prayed with. Donations in full, $13,833 32.

From the tenor of the colporteur reports it is inferred that God's blessing has attended the labors of those, his humble servants, in a remarkable manner. In various portions of this vast field churches have been strengthened, common schools and Sabbath schools have greatly increased in numbers and efficiency, and many precious souls have passed from nature's darkness into spiritual light. There has also been a large increase of friends to the cause. Liberal minded Christians of all denominations have cheerfully co-operated in it. They appreciate the extent of the ground occupied and its urgent call for aid from all quarters, and from all under most encouraging auspices. The friends of the cause are entreated to aid it by their prayers and contributions, that its laborers may press forward with the glad tidings of salvation to the poor and destitute, in the highways and hedges of these

The Society has the continued service of Rev. S. R. Slack, and Rev. M. T. Sumner, as Agents in Virginia, and W. J. W. Crowder, in North Carolina. They are all efficient agents, and are cordially recommended to the public.

South Carolina was recently transferred to the supervision of E. L. Kerrison, Esq., of Charleston, who has accepted a commission, and who will devote all his time to the work gratuitously. His piety and business habits will, with God's blessing, insure success. J. CROSS.

WHAT SOME FOLKS EAT. A keeper of a branch in the Fulton Market, New York, had a hearing before a Justice on the charge of selling "plated veal." The testimony showed what plated veal is. A witness said:

"I mean by plated veal, putting a piece of fat pork where the kidney ought to be; if the whole of these nine quarters were tried out, after taking away the pork, GRAND ROYAL ARCB CHAPTER OF enough fat could not be got out to grease a jack-knife; butchers call this bob veal : I have been a butcher for 40 years; I consider this meat very unwholesome; it was very young, and had been starved either here or while it was being brought here; there was not a particle of fat about it, and but very little meat on the bones, and 1 consider what there was very unwhole-

Mr. Perringer-It was at a hotel in the Bowery, at an affair called a "tackle," in which every person participating contributed some article of food to be prepared for the dinner: this place was a resort for medical students, and the body of Gibbs having been handed over to the medical faculty for dissection, a wag of a student conceived the idea of playing off a joke upon some of the participants at the "tackle;" he accordingly procured some slices of the remains of the pirate, which were cooked and passed off as the flesh of some animal ; those who partook pronounced it most de-

> A BRIGHT BOY. The Boston Bee of the 11th instant says: "An errand boy, about twelve years of age, was sent to the United States Hotel with a coat from Harlow's, 58 Washington street, on Monday evening, and on the way he was met by a fellow who claimed the coat, and as the lad was not willing to give it up, the fellow caught hold of him and tore the man if his name was Hudgins. "Yes." said he, "that's my name." "Well," said the boy, "then the coat is not yours, for it belongs to a gentleman by the name of Ordway." The fellow very soon disappeared.'

GRATIS!

Just Published, a New Discovery in Medicine. A few words on the rational treatment, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local weakness, Nervous Debility, Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the call for aid from all quarters, and from all men who love our common Lord.

There is now a larger band of experienced, well trained men engaged in this work than the Society ever had in these States before, and the year commences under most construction.

FROM THE FRENCH of Dr. B. DE LANEY The important fact that these alarming complaints may easily be removed without Medicine. is, in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means, of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the least possible cost, avoiding thereby all the advertised nostrums of the day. Sent to any address, gratis, and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two post-age stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, No. 17, Lispen-ard Street, New York. March 10.
