MISCELLANY.

THE LIQUOR LAW.

Supreme Judicial Court of Maine. at its law term, held at Augusta, on Thursday last, gave an important decision, which, in its practical results, must nullify, or at any rate abridge the working of the recent liquor law in the manner and form in which it is attempted to be enforced. A written opinion of the Court, prepared by Chief by the dense masses of smoke, were occa-Justice Shepley, was given on Thursday, which will, as we learn, be published in the ning -Petersburg Express. bext issue of the Age.

The decision is, that Justice of the Peace Police and Municipal Judges, have no power to try and pass sentence for the offence of selling liquor, under the second section of that act, unless provision is made therefor by the act establishing such Municipal or Police Court; or, in other words, that the crime of selling liquor can only be tried in the Supreme Judicial Court, after all in-dictment by the Grand Jary.

John Hessum was tried before the Po lice Court of the city of Augusta, for selling a glass of liquor, and sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and 30 days' imprisonment He was brought before the Supreme Court on a writ of habeas corpus, his counsel, Sewall Lancaster, Esq., claiming that he was unlawfully imprisoned. The Court cited in the County Attorney, R. H. Vose, Esq., and the question was fully argued and considered. The result was, a discharge of the prisoner, and the proceedings of the Police Court declared null and void.

As we shall soon have the opinion of the Court, we shall not attempt to give in full the grounds of this decision. It is sufficient to say, that the power to try and punish the offence of rum-selling is not conferred on Justices of the Peace, or on the Judge of the Police Court of Augusta or Portland, and that no man can be sent to prison therefor, except on a full trial and conviction by a jury in the Supreme Judicial Court.

This decision, practically, nullifies the liquor law, and takes from our Police Courts all jurisdiction in the matter of liquor selling.

The Maine law party are overwhelmed by a single blow, and this decision terminates their career, unless our worthy Governor shall think it wise to call the Legislature together, to take action in the prem-
