Quackery. DR. I. B. SMITH has for many years devoted his whole attention to the treatment of Private complaints, in all their varied and complicated forms His great success in those long standing and difficult cases, such as were formerly considered incurable, is sufficient to commend him to the public as worthy of the extensive patronage he has received. Within the last sight years, Dr. S. has treated more than 29,500 cases of Private Complaints, in their different forms and stages; a practice which no doubt exceeds that of all other physicians now advertising in Saltimore, and not a single case is known wherehis directions were strictly followed and medicines taken at reasonable time, without effecting a radical and permanent cure; therefore persons afflided with diseases of the above nature no matter hew difficult or long standing the case may be," would do well to call on Dr. Smith at his office. TRUST IN GOD

BY ESTRES B. STRATTON. ["This little fellow," said Martin Luther, of a bird going to rest, "has chosen his shelter, and is quietly rocking himself to sleep, without a care for to morrow's lodging, calmly holding to his little twig, and leaving God to think for him.]

Yes, the little birds and shelter; And hum their evening prayer, And close their beavy eyellds, Without a thought to care. They droop their glossy heads, 'Mid the feathers on their brenst; And lettying God to watch them, Thus sweetly full to rest;

Dear cherished little sleepers, Their merry song is still-No care for to-morrow's lodging Their gentle bosom fill. Guardian angels round them, Watch with a silver rod; For they've left their every sorrow

And if birds trust our Father, Who giveth them a home, Why should our hearts murmur When evil shadows come ! If God will feed the raven, And think for all the birds, Will be not love His children, And listen to their words ?

All in the care of God.

Ay, let us trust His goodness, His promise and His love, And, like the birds, be happy With His blessing from above. Have not a thought of trouble, While future paths are trod, But keep our hearts from evil, And leave our care with God.

MISCELLANY

A SINGULAR TRIAL A Singular Trial has just terminated in the Oneida Circuit Court of New York -It is that of Emily C. Day vs. Volkert W. Roth and Nelson Roth. By the testimony adduced, it appears that Volkert Roth wooed and won the heart of Miss Day, in England, which is her home, and formed an engagement of marriage with her. She had about £2500 in money, which Volker persuaded her to entrust to his keeping, i order that he might come to America and establish himself sufficiently to enable him pay interest on the sum regularly. For a time he fulfilled this latter stipulation, but We most respectfully call the attention of the finally endeavored to get rid of the marriage, and the obligation to pay the money, by representing to Miss Day that he had failed in business. He had also managed to mix up his brother with the affairs so much that it was a question which had the property. Miss Day getting alarmed for her little fortune, came to the United States to hunt her faithless swain. She found him 1400 PIECES North Carolina Bacon, a at Utica, N.
