A CASE OF CRUEL DESERTION AND DEATH. THE THE WEEKLY COMMERCIAL PETERSBURG, Sept. 17.-The body of Mrs. Wm. Gill, was found at the residence on Friday last, under somewhat singular circumstances. Gill's residence is in the upper end of the county, near Oak Grove

the neighborhood, wert to the residence of Gill, to get him and his wife to go and stay with a corpse. Mrs Gill declined going, expecting momentarily to be confined, and Gill refused most peremptorily. Thursday morning one of the women again repaired ved a sum of money amounting to $42 to Gill's residence, and found Mrs. G. very 25, and this sum he had converted into low, a new born child on the bed dead, and Gill absent. Witness left, but returned dumore careful. The money consisted of about three years old, son of Gill was also a twenty-dollar gold piece, some quarter in the house, an! supposed to be dying of starvation. The little fellow was immediately removed, and nourishment administered. Friday morning the body of Mrs. Gill was found by witness on the floor, having been removed from the bed. News of her death was now noised about among hole of his pantaloons pocket. The the neighbors, and upon several of them previous afternoon he had been seen repairing to the house about 11 o'clock, a. in, the body of Mrs. Gill was found in a ed to have a miserly affection, and it is perfectly nude condition, and stretched certain that the desire for its possession across the front door. The female witness led to the murderous assault upon him, stated, that on Thursday morning, upon as his pocketss were found to have been inquiring of Mrs. Gill, as to how some rifled. He was engaged in his usual stains of blood which were seen upon the avocations until halt past ten o'clock on bed came there, she received for reply from Tuesday night, and in half an hour was Mrs. G. that it was where her husband

Having heard the evidence the jury reurned a verdict of "death from neglect." A somewhat remarkable fact connected with this strange affair is, that Gill has not been seen or heard from since Wednesday He was entirely speechless and helpless evening, when he was requested to stry with a corpse. That somebody removed dition up to the moment of his death.—

the dead body of Mrs. Gill from the bed to the dead body of Mrs. Gill from the bed to the floor during Thursday night is clearly is well located for business, and an active man ously been in the coach-house, was evident, as she was seen dead on the bed found concealed among the straw; it Thursday evening; and that the body was had marks of blood upon it, and is sup- divested of its clothing during Friday morning, and removed from the floor to the

MAIL ROBBER ARRESTED.

Deputy Marshal Couch, of Ohio, on Saturday last, at Lafayette, Ind., arrested Edward Reynolds, a bowsman on a canal boat, on a charge of aiding in the robbery of the Post Office, at Circleville, Ohio. Jerome Gephart, who had been as the birds to warble, or the breeze to a clerk in, the Circleville office, was arrested some time last week. It appears that in October last, Gephart abstracted from the office a money packet contain ing one thousand dollar which he im invested it in the canal boat on joint acin October next.
