MISCELLANY.

FAITHFUL LOVE.

The gallant Sir Thomas Trowbridge s about to lead to the altar Miss Louisa | knew of an accident on that road, and Gurney, daughter of Daniel Gurney, replied: "Never-but once a middle-Esq., of Norwich, and sister of the Hon-Mrs. W. Cooper. Seldom has that proud and died of old age at Birminghammeed of homage which beauty loves to half way !" pay to valor been conferred on a more worthy recipient. The descendant of one of England's greatest admirals, and among the bravest of the brave at Alma, the heroic valor of Sir Thomas Trowwho record the great achievements of England's soldiers in the present war, will emblazon, in the brightest colors of military story, how, when his skill and courage in directing the fire of a hattery had contributed to turn the tide of battle, and when a fatal cannon shot had carried away both his feet-the wounded hero refused to be conveyed to the tear, fire of his battery until he shared in the yer-faugh!" final triumph and shouts of victory.

Preserved by almost a miracle of life his services crowned by every applause that a nation's gratitude could bestowhis honors hallowed and enhanced by the tear of pity from his sovereign herself, while placing them upon his shattered frame, the noble soldier now reaps his final and greatest reward in the happy consummation of a long cherished attachment with the beautiful and amiable lady who is about to share his titles and honors, while she consoles and repays his sufferings .- English Paper.

SINGULAR ARITHMETICAL FACT. Any number of figures you may wish the answer will be 2,320; divide the the up immediately. same number by 2 and you have 232, and as there is no vemainder, you add a cipher. Now, take 357, and multiply 5, the answer is 1,785. On dividing this by 2, there is 178 and a remainder; you therefore place a 5 at the end of the line, and the result is again 1785.

Pins Extracted from the Stomach of a Female.

Dr. E. P. Fearing, of Nantucket, Mass., has taken from the stomach, abdomen and left side of a patient named Jane James, sixty-two needles, and it is probable, it is said, that quite a number remain to be removed. They were swallowed twelve years ago, when the patient was deranged, and imagined FRUIT AND CONFECTIONARY, FANCY ARTICLES, herself a pincushion.

CUNNING OPERATION. The evening before last a thief got into a rear apartment of the residence of Mr. Josiah Spegel, near the plank road, and having secured a well-filled leather trunk. he put himself and it out through the window, and was coolly retiring with the booty. Coming to the front of the house a noise betrayed him, and a voice from a window inquired what he wanted?

Does Mr. Parker live here?' demanded he thief coolly, 'Mr. Abraham Parker, I've got a parcel for him.' 'No, sir,' exclaimed the proprietor, this is

Mr. Spegel's. You could not tell me where Mr Parker lives. could you? replied the thief.

'No, sir, I can't, he does'nt live here,' said Mr. S. hurriedly.

'The 'gent with Mr. S.'s trunk on his shoulder expressed his sorrow for 'troub-ling' Mr. Spegel and retired, perhaps to ok for Mr. Parker. The things thus coolly carried off, consist of a handsome leather trunk, two pairs of pants, a cout, three vests, some shirts, and other articles mark-

PROSPECTUS OF THE RAIL ROAD TIMES.

AN INDEPENDENT JOURNAL. Devoted to News, Internal Improvement, Education, Agriculture, Manufacture & Com-

W E know that the interests of the People of our State demand such a paper, and believing that one free from political strifes and quarrels of the day, devoted to such topics, will be the kind they desire, we confidently enter upon this enter-prise with the assurance of meriting and meeting ject we expect to devote as much space as a full statement of the various operations will require; for as our works of improvement advance, so do all the other interests of the State.

EDUCATION.-It is a source of regret to all nterested in the Educational interests of our State, (and who is not?) that our papers are so much devoted to party politics, &c , that this great cause has been too much neglected; we propose, therefore, to devote to this subject, a portion of our space. We will foster and carefully note the advancement of Education, not only in our higher advancement of Education, not only in our higher Schools, but also in our Common Schools.

AGRICULTURE, MANUFACTURE AND COMMERCE, at this stage of our history, are commanding the attention of all our good State and money-loving citizens. Therefore, the Markets will be reported with care, and all items, calculated to throw light on either of those inseparable branches of industry, will be carefully gleaned and inserted every week.

It is unnecessary to say more if we had time, but the "whistle of the locomotive" on the East and the cheering news from the West admonish us to close. Permit us, however, to assure you that the first number of the Times will make its appearance about the time the cars reach this place TERMS-The Times will be printed weekly in

A CURE IN TWO DAYS, OR NO CHARGE. No Mercury or Nauseous Drugs Used. TAKE NOTICE.

DR. JOHNSTON IS the only regularly Educated Physician who advertises his very extensive Practise, and his many Wonderful Cures is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted. Those who wish to be specuily and effectually cured, should shun the numerous trifting imposters, who only ruln their health, and apply to Dr. Johnston. DR. JOHNSTON.

Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most Red, Oun Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secresy; and, from his extensive practice in the first Kospitalsin Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid discase. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful discase, owing to the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly polson, mercury, thin the constituskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitution, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of life miserable.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgences.

These are some of the sad and inclaneholy effects, produced by early habits of youth, viz:— Weakness of the Back and Limbs. Pains in the Head. Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsy. Nervous irritability Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

Mentally—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings. Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c.. are some of the svila produced.

Mentalty — The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings. Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c. are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages, can now judge what is the cause of their declining health. Losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale and emaciated, have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption.

Married Persons, or those contemplating marriage, being aware of physical weakness, should immediately consult Dr. J. and be restored to perfect health.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REME-DY FOR ORGANIC WEAKNESS.

By this great and important remedy weakness of the organs is speedily cured and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most Nervous and Debilitated individuals who had lest all hope, have been imme-diately relieved. All impediments to

MARRIAGE. Physical or Mental Disqualifications, Nervous Irritability Tremblings and Weakness, or exhaustion of the most fearful kind, speedily cured by Dr Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, and the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit.—

Such persons, before contemplating MARX:AGR,

Should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a wear; pilgrimage: the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

100,000 COPIES! STEAMBOAT DISASTERS ON THE

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London; graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the cars and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed a studen sounds, and bashfuness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of shis painful disease, it too often happens that anill-time ed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the const utional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progress on with frightful rapidity, till at last the paints of the mounts of the Steamboat Diseasers that he of the const.

The River Directory will contain a list on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progress on with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that bourne from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore.

The River Directory will contain a list and description of al the Steambout Dissaters that have expired on the Western and Southern where have perished by their burning, sinking and exploding, by sending him to "that bourne from Whence no traveller returns." To such therefore.
