class was John McL --- e, a native of as well die now as then." old Virginia, who became a citizen ot Texas soon after it was admitted into the Union. Now friend John was passionately fond of hunting, and scarcely did his foot press 'Texan soil before he was running in all directions in search of game, but unfortunately he wound up his first exploit by slaving three tame turkies, the property of an old la-dy living in A. This threw such a damper on his feelings that it caused him to forego this amusement for some time, until one day, when I wished to go hunting, and having no company, I called by for John, and after some persuasion pevailed upon him to accompany me .-Now be it known that north of the city of A-n about a mile, there lives a wealthy butcher, who, at the time I they were allowed to proceed to the resispeak of, possessed a large flock of sheep dence of the Doctor in Arcadia, Bienville and goats, and among the latter a tre- Parish, whence, a few days afterwards, the mendous "William-goat," who was fa- bride was summoned to the bedside of a mous for his implacable hostility to sick sister. Having at length apparently decided, he took two or three steps backward, and rearing upon his hinder legs, he sprang forward, and planted his horns and forehead in that part of friend John where honor is generally supposed to be located, with such good will and effect that he vanished with most unbecoming haste, and a second afterwards the ominous sound of a heavy body falling into the water told but too plainly the fale of the duck-hunter. I ran down and crossed the creek opposite to where the People, by Gervase Wheeler; A Trentise on the Steam Engine, by the Artizan lub of London; Oliver Evans Millwright's Guide; Overman's Mechanics for Millwrights, Engineers and Machinching and Council of the counci John was, and found him just getting out of the water, and heaping curses upon me for pushing him in, while "Billy" was standing upon the other bank very complacently viewing the scene, as though he was innocent of all participation in it.

John not having perceived his goatship made the very comforting asser-tion that he intended "to give me a good licking for it," and was coolly preparing to put his words into effect, when I pointed to the real perpetrator of the mischief, and burst into a laugh. He gazed at "Billy" for a moment, then taking up his gun and starting off, he quietly remarked-

ELOPEMENT. The Claiborne, La. Advocate, of the 31st has an account of an extraordinary series of events which is published under the heading Elopement, marriage, civil commotion and Bloodshed," and of which the following is a condensation:

About four or six weeks ago there eloped from Terryville, in Claiborne parish, one Dr. Clement and one Sarah T. Wafer, an orphan heiress of a wealthy Louisiana planter, being at the time at School at Terryville. To Arkansas they proceeded with the utmost dispatch, when the nupual ceremonies was duly performed On their return, the happy couple were met by the brother of the bride who proceeded to chastise the groom for the abduction of his sister. Finally, however, ter to Red River, in the parish of Rossiter. and took up her residence in the home of another sister. Dr. Clement followed in pursu't with fifteen stalwart friends atmed cap-a pie, and demanded the person of Mrs. yielded on condition that she should be taed guns, and thought fit to retire. He immediately proceeded to Homer, and made such representations as caused the issuance pearance in its midst, on horseback, and "Very well," he answered, "I'll do it with double-bareled guns, of the en ire bovious, and in the centre of the concourse, mirabile dictu, the hero and heroine seated side by side in a buggy. The bloodshed spoken of above was caused by the accidental discharge of one of the guns of this party, wounding a lawyer who was standing in his office. The par ties were brought before a justice for trial and a habeas corpus was issued by the judge tle mound just behind where we were, of the District Court and served upon the and out of the reach of his goatship, doctor, commanding him to produce the who had now left the flock, and was body of his wife The result of the trial approaching John with his head, ears, was that all parties were discharged, but the trouble has not ended here, for while for a shot at the ducks, my friend fol- the excitement was going on our heroine lowed my instructions to the letter, and was spirited away to parts unknown; but the general opinion is that she has been transported to Arkansas, where she is protected or guarded by forty double-barrelled guns and a howitzer! DR. JOHNSTON. Member of the Royal College of Surgeons London; graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Par-is, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most ustonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the cars and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bushfainess, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbibed the seeds of shis painful disease, it too often happens that anill-timed sense of shame, or drand of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from edu and respectability, can alone befriend him, delay ing till the coner utional sysmptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, dualness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head-face and extremities progress on with frightful ra-pidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secresy; and, from his extensive practice in the first Hospitalsin Europe and America. he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate vietim of this horrid discase. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant protenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, thin the constitu-tion, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an untimely grave, or else make the residue of life mis-

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured them-These are some of the sad and melancholy effects, produced by early habits of youth, viz:— Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head. Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Pulpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsy, Nervous

tant Surgical Operations performed by Dr. J., wit-nessed by the Reporters of the papers, and many other persons notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, is a sufficient guaran-tee that the afflicted will find a skilful and honorable physician TAKE NOTICE. It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. JOHN-STON permits his eard to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to adver-tise, but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not fail to fall into the hands of those impudent, boasting imposters, individuals destitute of knowledge, name and character, ped-lars, shocma kers, mechanics, &c., advertising themselves as physicians; ignorant quacks, with fithy lying certificates of Great Wonderful Cures from persons who cannot be found, or obtained for a few ollars from the Worthless and Degraced and many other cunning and contemptible artifices to entithe afflicted, trifling month after month, or as long as possible, and in despair, leave you with ruined health, to sigh over your galling disappointment.—

It is this motive that induces Dr. J. to advertise, for he alone can cirre you. To those unacquainted with his reputation, he deems it necessary to say that his credentials or diplomas always hang in his
