WONDERFUL DOCTOR.

We have heard of many remarkable cures in our day, as having been performed by quack doctors, but they tell a story of a man up in Vermont, that beats all others. He is death on fevers, consump-tions flies out of a window as he opens a door, and dropsy vanishes at his touch, but it is in curing cancers, fever sores, etc., that he most displays his skill, if we may be-lieve his friends. They say he was recently called to visit a young lady who

BOY LOVE.

One of the queerest and funniest things to think of in after life, is "boy love." No sooner does a boy acquire a tolerable stature than he begins to imagine himself a man, and to ape manish ways. He casts sidelong glances at the girls he may meet, becomes a regular raw material indispensible to the proseattendant at church or meeting, sports a cane, carries his head erect, and struts a little in his walk. Presently, and how very soon, he falls in love-yes, falls in is the proper word, because it best indicates his happy, delirious, self-abasement. He lives now in a fairy region, somewhere collateral to the whorld, and yet, somehow, blended inextricably with it. He perfumes his hair with Tragrant oils, scatters essences over his In the North he manufactures bogus handkerchief, and desperately shaves Democrats, Abolitionists, and Anti-Aand anoints for a beard. He quotes poetry in which "love," and "dove," and "heart," and "dart," peculiarly predominate; and, as he plunges deeper into the delicious labyrinth, fancies himself filled with the devine afflatus, and suddenly breaks into a scarlet rash-of duct is Sambo!
