CUMBERLAND COUNTY FAIR. FAYETTEVILLE, Dec. 1 .- The second Annual Fair of Cumberland county was held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday last. Every public house in Fayetteville was crowded, and many of the private houses were opened for the accommodation of visiters.

The ardeles on exhibition were quite numerous, and we are glad to have it in our power to say that the stock, &c., from the adjoining counties of Moore, Richmond, Robeson, Bladen and Sampson, was creditable to these counties, and we indulge the hope that our enterprising neighbors will, at succeeding Fairs, exhibit the products of their farms, stocks, &c , in greater abun-

We could not procure a list of the premiums awarded in time for our issue this week. We notice a few of the most important articles on exhibition, especially those of neighboring counties.

Mr. W. H H. Tyson, of Moore, exhibi-ted a bbl. of Flour; J W. Purdee, of Bladen, a Stallion; T.+D. McDowell, of Bladen, a fine Mule, Jack, and Coli; J. P. Slade, of Rockingham, some fine Durham cattle and pair Mules; Thos I. Faison, of Sampson, a Filly, Two Mares by W. A Faison of Sampson; M. McRae of Robe son, stalks of Rice 7 feet high; Mr Eller-bee of Richmond, had a good Filly on exhibition A. H. Dewar, of Harnett county, had some fine upper Leather on exhibition; C. B. Mallett a Seed Harrow; S. S. Everitt a newly invented churn, bring Butter in-side of 16 minutes; A. S. Mc.Neill a Harrow and a patent model Lock for rivers; A. A. McKethan a fine Buggy; Houston & Overby fine set Harness; Wm. A. Mc-Intyre some very superior brick made near this place; Jas. McIntyre a fine Stallion : Mares were exhibited by Turquill Shaw, A. H. Dewar, and D. P. West; W. H. Gainey 4 yr. old Horse; John Waddill a five yr. old Mule; Threshing Machine by John Kershaw, and an excellent Corn Sheller by James G Cook. Holland, Weiseger & Co. had a well-made fourhorse Wagon on exhibition, and C. W. Andrews a supurb lot of Tin Ware; M. Fanik two pair of beautiful Boots, and M. A. two Rifles. In fact, every mechanical department, we believe, was represented, but as we said above we cannot this week

notice all or even one-hulf Mr. Geo. Lander exhibited a splendid Marble Monument and Sun Dial, which were executed with much taste and skill. Mr. Vernon exhibited a fine piece of Sculpture, his first attempt at anything of the short, in taking her leave. And as she stepped into her carriage, aided by the kind hand of the Doctor, she turned her beautiful face towards him, and cast upon him a glance that was full of tenderness and solicitude, and inspired him anew with admiration and pity.

The carriage drove away, the Doctor's eyes following, amid the clouds of dust which followed in its wake, until it was entirely lost to view. Down to the bridge. along the crowded thoroughfare, over the pebbled way of Chesnut street, to a fashionable, if not the fashionable, jewelry establishment of our city, the carriage passed, its sweet and solitary inmate glancing out and smilling within, and growing radiant with a thought that requires another paragraph to learn.

She alighted, and glided into the bazaar of gold and silver and precious stones with all the stateliness of a queen. One or two of the gentlemanly attendants ran to learn her wish. She wanted to select a set of silv r ware, not too elaporate in design of workmanship, nor yet too plain-something neat, tasteful and beautiful. The various patterns were shown, and a set valued at 8500 was selected by the lady of the stately tread. She desired the articls put up, a bill made out, and she would settle it. Her wishes were complied with, and the lady took out her elegant portmonaie, but, alas! there were but about $40 in it. She had picked up her wrong portmonaie, she said, with bewitching sweetness, and she was vexed at her stupidity. She, however, could arrange it. She was the wife of Dr.

-, the principal physician of the Insane Hospital, and she desired her attendant to accompany her to that place, where she would pay him at once. Who could re sist such a request, from a beautiful woman -a request spoken as much with the eyes as the voice. Not the clerk, certainly. The two got into the carriage together, and back it whirled to the Hospital. The lady jumped from the carriage, and was warmly greeted by the Doctor, who was at the entrance. 'Doctor, this is my husband,' said she, with an air at once sweet and sorrowful. The poor attendant started. He was struck aghast. He could not fathom her meaning.

"What did you say, madam,' he stam. mered, as he best could, 'what did you say?

Doctor, this is my husband, please take him in charge.'

'The devil, madam, I'm not your husband; what do you mean? Bursting into tears she sobbed aloud .--

STEAMBOAT DISASTERS ON THE WESTERN WATERS, AND STEAMBOAT

DIRECTORY.

DIRECTORY. THE undersigned have now in course of prepar-ation a NEW STEAM BOAT DIRECTORY, which will be issued in October next; the book will contain over two hundred pages, illustrated in the best style, and neatly bound in a durable manner. It will be one of the most interesting books ever published, and will be a book that will be interest-ing to all classes of people. The Steamboat Di-rectory will contain a complete list and description of all the steamboats now afloat on the Western and Southern waters. The length, model, speed, power, and tonnage of each boat, where and by whom built, the name of the boat, will contain a history of Steamboats and Steamboating on the Western waters, since the application of steam; also, a sketch of the first boat built for the Ohio river, with the name of the builder, commander, and owner.

Ad respectations, ad respectations, ng till the const? utional system, disease make their appearance, such as anten-disease make their appearance, such as anten-sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities progress on with frightful ra-pidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in and the victim of this awful disense becomes a horrid object of commis-awful disense becomes a horrid object of commis-tion till death puts a period to his dreadful suf-tion till dea Red, Ouachita, i acco, and other rivers, with towns, and citics laid down, with correct distance also, many other tiver and commercial items interest to the people at large. The book will co tain the cards of the various United States in the cards of the various United States in case. It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fall victims to this dreadful disease, owing to the un-skilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that deadly poison, mercury, ruin the constitu-tion, and either send the unfortunate sufferer to an boats, with the trade they are in, &c., &c. The Di-rectory will also contain a complete list of all the responsible Steamboat Licensed Officers, their places of residence, &c., dec.; the new Steamboat Law, its requirements, with comments, showing wherein it benefits the incompetent officer, and in-jures the competent officer, &c., &c., and all the important United States Supreme Court Steam-boat Decisions up to date; the Rates and impor-tant Commercial Privileges, Bills of Lading, im-portant Decisions of the various United States portant Decisions of the various United Sibtes courts, in regard to Freights lost and domaged, &c., &c; with many other things of interest. The Directory will be illustrated in the best style and printed in the best manner 'The author has for six years been gathering together all the facts and items in regard to the numerous steamboat disasters on the Western and Southern waters, and now intends publishing them in book form.— The price of the work will be put at the low sum of One-Dollar. Ten thousand copies will be issued for the boatmen; all others desirous of subscribing will have to do so at once, as none will be bringed will have to do so at once, as none will be prin This work is destined to have a circulation of over eighty thousand copies, as the publishers are receiving large numbers of tubscribers, per mail, from all parts of the country, daily. Another Sell-Madness, and a Method in it.

On Wednesday last, a neatly dressed, very prepossessing, and prettily spoken woman, somewhere between sweet sixteen and twenty-five years of age, drove up to the door of the Insane Hospital, over which Dr .- presides, and inquired for that gentleman. She was ushered into the reception room, where she awaited the coming of the for the past three or four days with many Doctor with an air of nonchalance which a hearty laugh. rather fascinated the servant, who looked upon her with eyes of admiration and unfeigned pleasure. When left alone she amused herself-a woman always will-in lowing interesting account of the loss of a gratifying her curiosity by inspecting the child of Franklin Gray, in Preston county, various articles in the room critically and thoroughly. seration, till death puts a period to his dreadful suf-ferings, by sending him to "that bourne from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore. Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secresy; and, from his extensive prac-tice in the first Hospitals in Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy eure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid disuntimely grave, or else make the residue of life mis-

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured them

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured them-selves by private and improper indulgences. These are some of the sad and melancholy ef-fects, produced by early habits of youth, viz:--Weakness of the Buck and Limbs, Pains in the Head. Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Pow-er, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsy. Nervous irritability Derangement of the Digestive Func-tions, Ganeral Debility, Symptoms of Consump-tion & c

Mentally — The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings. Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude. Timidity, &c. are some of the svils produced. Thousands of persons of allages, can now judge what is the cause of their declining [health. Losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale and emacia-ied, have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of consumption. Married Persons, or those contemplating mar-riage, being aware of physical weakness, should immediately consult Dr. J. and be restored to per-fect health.
