MISCELLANY.

December 13th .- In the Senate Mr. Adams offered a resolution that in future no erson in the employment of the Executive fler a brief conversation the resolution was rejected. Mr. Collamar, of Vermont, pre-mented a memorial from the heirs of Revolusionary officers, asking the half-pay for life promised by resolution of the Continental Congress. This is in support of the Evens, of South Carolina, whose bill was pasted by a large majority, and was left on the calendar of the House unacted on. A similar memorial was presented by Mr. ration, there can be no doubt the peo- with wines, whiskyes, &c. le will heartily approve this measure of

A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds he has imbited the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that anili-timed seeds of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the conrect utional sysmptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progress on with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in. and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that bourne from whence no traveler returns." To such therefore, Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most invisable serversy; and, from his eviterious preserve the most interesting books over published, and will be a book that will be interenting to all classes of people. It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. JOHN-STON permits his card to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to advertise, but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not fall to fall into the hands of those impudent, boasting imposters, individuals destitute of knowledge, name and character, pedlars, shoemakers, mechanics, &c., advertising them selves as physicians; ignorant quacks, with fifthy lying certificates of Great Wonderful Cures from nersons who cannot be found, or obtained for a few the afflicted, trifling month after month, or as lo as possible, and in despair, leave you with roin health, to sigh over your galling disappointment. It is this motive that induces Dr. J. to adverti for he alone can cure you. To those anacquaint with his reputation, he deems it necessary to a that his credentials or diplomas always hang in home.
