DR. JOHNSTON.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London; graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfunness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of plensure finds he has imbibed the seeds of shis painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to these who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the const. utlonal sysimptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, noctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progress on with frightful rapidity, till at last the polate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufscration, till death puts a period to his dreadful suf-ferings, by sending him, to "that bourne from whence no traveller returns." To such therefore, whence no traveller returns." To such therefore, Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable secresy; and, from his extensive practice in the first Hospitalsin Europe and America, he can confidently recommend a safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid disease. It is with the greatest reluctance that Dr. JOHN-STON permits his card to appear before the public, deeming it unprofessional for a physician to advertise, but unless he did so, the afflicted, especially strangers, could not fail to full into the hands of those impudent, boasting imposters, individuals destitute of knowledge, name and character, pedlars, shoemakers, mechanics, &c., advertising themselves as physicians; ignorant quacks, with fifthy lying certificates of Great Wonderful Cures from persons who cannot be found, or obtained for a few dollars from the Worthless and Degraded, and many other cunning and contemptible artifices to enlice the affilicted, trifling month after month, or as long as possible, and in despair, leave you with reined health to sigh over your galling disappointment.—It is this morive that induces Dr. J. to advertise, for he alone can cure you. To those unacquainted with his reputation, he deems it necessary to say that his credentials or diplomus always hang in his Office.
