PROSPECTUS OF THE. N. C. CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

THE North Carolina Annual Conference of the Mathodist Episcopal Church South, having determined to issue a weekly paper bearing the above name, the subscribers are authorized to isnation sue this prospectus. It is intended to publish a family newspaper, which, while it shall be religious in tone and sen-timent, and maintain the decirines and usages of the Methodist Church, shall be devoted to all tre interests of North Carolina, and furnish intelli-gence for every class of readers. In size and ap-pearance the new periodical is to be equal to any pearance the new periodical is to be cqual to any of our Church papers, while it will surpase them all in adaptedness to the wants of our people. The entire insufficiency of the existing "Advocates" to the necessities of our position forces us to the publication of our own paper, and we confidently expect the hearty co-operation of the Members of our Church in all parts of the State and Confer ance and house to make the space to inconfer ence, and hope to make the paper so interesting and instructive as to attract patronage from the and institutive average of the published at $1,50 a public generally. The "Advocate" will be published at $1,50 a year and the first number will be issued as early as practicable after the next Session of our Con-ference. It is believed that the publication will be commenced on the 1st of January, 1636. It is becommenced on the 1st of January, 1636. desirable that as large a subscription as possible be obtained before the Conference and the Minis-ters and all others interested in the enterprise are respectfully urged to secure and forward the names and address of subscribers, particular attention being paid to correctness in writing the ames of persons, post offices and Counties .-Those who may have no opportunity of subscrib-ing through the agency of our Ministers may write directly to Rev. THE "LIVE GIRAFFE" AGAIN

A New Era About to Dawn Upon North-Carolina.

At the constant and earnest solicitation of nearly every body, but especially the old acquaintan-ces of "ye Animal," we have been induced to pro-mise, if "provender" enough can be secured, to trot that beast ont again to the gaze of all mankind, and the universal admiration of womankind, during the first week in January, 1856.

"The Live Giraffe," while it was a neutral pa-per, while it grazed in its own green pasturage, played with the girls, and joked with the boys, was the most popular sheet, animate or inanimate, that ever issued from a Southern press; and had it been content to have lived in its own native sphere, it would now have been the "Brother Jonathan" of the South. Such a result can but be evident to any thinking man ; it was, indeed on the high road to fame and a most enviable on the high road to fame and a most envirable distinction. But becoming fat, in an unlucky moment like the man who had grown "rick en-ough to ride an ass," and had, therefore gotten above his fellows, the "Animal" leaped the bars of its accustomed field, and the next thing we heard of him, he, like a man turned politician from preacher, was pining for the good things of life, and no doubt, like the silly lamb of old that cluded the sight of the shepard, and got into the thick woods which was found to be infested with wolves, he wished himself back in his old range. Bot the bars had been put another rail higher and be couldn't get back; besides, he had grown so lean that he could not jump. It is said that bought wisdom is the best in the world, if it dont cost too much. A mighty true saying ; one in which there is more of truth than poetry or romance, and in view of this old saying and the Annimal's experience. his old friends need have little fear that he will at any time hereafter cut the same caper again. He'll ond edition. Received and for sale at kick any man that would intimate such a thing. The Live Giraffe will then be neutral. It will be devoted to fun, to the news, and literature. It will be made the vehicle of publishing many a thought to the world, funny, grave and instruc-tive, that would have wa-ted itself on the air "as summer roses do," but for its columns ; it will seek every opportunity to turn grave and uninter-esting matters into pleasant and agreeable incidents ; upset all ill-natured humanity it meets with and mould it anew; expose all rascality wherever found, whether in Church or State-(that's promising a great deal.) or in the social circle, and keep a strict watch on the press, literary, religious and political, and see that each keeps its bounds. The cilizens of Raleigh know well enough the value of such a sheet, and would not do without it another year for half a million. Why, since the exit of the Animal from their borders, they have had more bad luck than was ever heard of before. More Trusts have been made, more liens been given upon property, more assignments made, more quarreling and fighting, more drinking of liquor, more meanness generally, and more ill lighor, more meanness generally, and more ill luck than ever was known at any period since the great plasme in Eavot. J. R. BLOSSOM. great plagae in Egypt. Now this is as plain as daylight, and the only remedy for such evils is to trot out the Animal again. So I think. Now, this is the proposition I shall make to you. I want as assurance of your willingness to patronize the Animal, and to get that assurance I shall give you full opportunity to correspond with me and to send in all the names that can be se-
